Tillamook Jottings.

Potted plant in bloom and cut flowers at Clough's Drug Store.

A marriage licence was issued to J. M. Edwards and Nellie E. Burton.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Craver, on Monday, Dec. 8, a son.

It is reported that no trains left Portland the last two days.

A marriage license was issued to Harold E. Epplett and Irene E. Stiverson.

R. F. Zachmann underwent an operation in St. Vincent's Hospital in Portland.

We have a large assortment of gift books in leather and paper cover at medium price. Look them over early at Clough's Drug Store.

For Reo touring cars, Reo light trucks, commerce trucks and all kinds of truck trailers and tractors, see TillamookAuto Co.

McCarag & Lively vs. Silver Spruce Company is a suit filed in the circuit court to recover $457.00 on a promissory note.

Our stock of genuine Pyroline Ivory is the most complete we have ever had. We have in stock every item made in Ivory toilet goods—Clough's Drug Store.

Conklin's self-filling, mechanically correct fountain pens. The easiest writing and most successful pen in the world. Step into Clough's Drug Store and look them over.

State Industrial Insurance Accident Commission vs. Silver Spruce Company is a suit filed in the circuit court to recover $1,860.95 for insurance for the men who worked in the saw mill at Bay City.

The Tillamook County Jersey Cattle Club will hold its regular meeting at the farm of L. C. Daniel, one mile north of Tillamook, Thursday, Dec. 18. A basket lunch will be served at noon.

Lloyds Agency vs. J. B. Delsman and A. T. Dolan doing business under the firm name of Delsman & Dolan, is a suit filed in the circuit court to recover $125.00 and attorney's fees amounting to $200.00.

The annual budget meeting is to be held next Monday, and from present indications there is no opposition to the different items, and in all probability will be agreed to with the exception that an appropriation be made for the American Legion for a memorial building.

L. B. Zeimer, of the Dairy and Food Commissioners Office, Portland, will be in Tillamook, December 22nd, and December 23rd, inclusive, to give examination for State Testers license. Anyone wishing to take this examination may make application through County Agent R. C. Jones.

We wish to make one correction in the I. H. Moore assessment. The entire Moore property is assessed at $6,200, but the property involved in the condemnation suits is assessed at $4,700 and the arbitration committee allowed $3,400.00 damages for allowing the state highway to go through the place.

The county court has three market road projects in the county, and is conferring with the State Highway Commission in regard to them. They are the Sandlake road, Netarts road and the north fork of the Nehalem road. The county will receive somewhere about $50,000 for market roads from the State Highway Commission.

State Industrial Accident Commission vs. Bay City Logging Company, is a suit filed in the circuit court to recover $1,672.69, the defendant having failed to pay the insurance for men working in the logging camp.

Cadets Errold Haltom and Lee Stephens who are Tillamook boys attending Hill Military Academy are doing good work in their studies and making good records in their department, according to Joseph A. Hill, principal of the academy.

County Judge A. M. Hare left Sunday for Portland and Commissioners Farmer and Alley left Monday. While in Portland they will confer with the light house authorities with regard to building the road to Cape Meares light station, it having been decided that the government will expend $18,000 on that road as soon as it is decided about the completion of the Bayocane road next year, it being the intention of the court to use the government dredge, a formal application was to have been made for the use of the dredge.

The Oregon Dairy Council is making the milk survey in the Tillamook schools through the cooperation and courtesy of the superintendent. This survey is interesting in that it discloses what percentage of people appreciate the food value of dairy products. In Astoria grade schools out of 2004 children, 605 are getting no milk in the daily diet. In Seaside out of 252 grade school children, 74 are getting no milk. In Ashland there is a school with 410 pupils and 199 get no milk. Mothers are asked to show a greater interest in the value of this food. Let's see if Tillamook, this greatest of cheese producing districts will make a better record. The survey has the endorsement of the state superintendent of instruction, Dr. D. N. Roberg, the federal clubs and many persons of prominence.

Snow Storm Hits Tillamook.

The weather the first part of the week was exceedingly cold for this time of the year for Tillamook County, with a cutting east wind, and late Monday night a flutter of snow made its appearance, which increased during the night into a genuine snow storm. Tuesday morning the entire county looked as though a juvenile middle west blizzard had struck it, for there was three inches of snow on the ground when people peeked out of their windows. That was only part of the snow storm. All day Tuesday the snow fell, with a most uncomfortable east wind, which increased all day, for in the evening there was quite a strong wind which continued until after midnight. The snow was dry and drifted and on that account it was hard to tell how much snow did fall, but it must have been eight inches. In some places the snow drifted to such an extent that it covered the fences. Wednesday was cold but very little snow, and late in the day there were strong indications that the weather was on the change. The weather Wednesday night was the coldest in the present cold snap. There are no trains today, neither mail from the south for two days. Owing to the snow storm there was no train on Wednesday, caused by drifts in a number of places. None of the old settlers can remember a snow storm in Tillamook county so early in the year, and during the last 20 years only one storm can compare to the present one which took place some time after the new year.

The saw mill closed down Tuesday and few persons came to the city, which, for the time being, put a stop to the Christmas trading, which had already made a good start.

Husband and Wife Both Sue For Divorce.

F. W. Rinehart vs. Edna Rinehart is a divorce suit filed in the circuit court, August, 1911, and it is alleged that state of Michigan in the month of August, 1911, and it is alleged that one year after defendant began a system of cruel and inhuman treatment and of personal indignities against the plaintiff, she having conducted herself in an indifferent, unaffectionate and unusual way. The complaint also alleges that defendant openly and improperly associated with a certain man in Tillamook county, and who still continues to do so, whose name can be mentioned in court if desired. The defendant associated with the man by going with him in the night time in various public and private places against the objections of the plaintiff. Two children were born to the union. All property rights have been settled. Besides asking for a divorce plaintiff wants the court to decide the question of the custody of the children.

Edna M. Rinehart vs. Frederick W. Rinehart is a divorce suit filed in the circuit court. These parties were married at Allegan, Mich., on the 23rd of August, 1912. The complaint alleges cruel and inhuman treatment, that ever since the date of the birth of a child which occurred a year ago, defendant treated plaintiff in a cruel manner, using obscene language and manifested a total lack of affection, that plaintiff has been compelled by necessity to work for her own support and support of the child, although the defendant was a strong, able bodied man, that defendant refused to pay the rent of the house, and that last month the defendant left the plaintiff, who claims that she was true to her marriage vows of purity and chastity, and has treated the defendants as a loving wife. Plaintiff asked the court for the custody of the child and $50.00 per month for the support of herself and child.

Six I. W. W.'s Plead Guilty.

Judge Geo. R. Bagley held court on Monday morning for the purpose of disposing of a number of the I. W. W. cases, as six of the men had agreed to plead guilty. The judge closely questioned all the men when brought before him after asking them whether they desired to change their pleas from not guilty to guilty.

A. Lewis was the first man to go on the stand and undergo a grilling by the judge. He was sentenced to ten years in the penitentiary and fined $1,000. The judge paroled him on condition of paying $100.

J. A. La Clear, ten years in the penitentiary and a fine of $1000. Paroled on paying $100.00. Alex. Simon and H. C. Holleran were each fined $100. H. P. Haddock sentenced to ten years and a fine of $1,000. Paroled on paying $150.00.

John Lund fined $1000.00, Paroled on paying $250.00, at $25.00 per month, but not to leave the county until money is paid.

This leaves only three wabblers out of those who were rounded up in the county, to be dealt with, and they will remain in jail until the February term of the circuit court, when they will be tried. The names of the men are Eugene Bondrez, Steve Rossehaus and Gus Hersche.

Meeting of Jersey Cattle Club.

A special meeting of the Tillamook County Jersey Cattle Club was held at Fairview Hall on the evening of December 8th, 1919.

The meeting was called to order by F. Blackadar, president of the club, who stated that the purpose of calling this meeting was to discuss and adjust the expense of taking cattle to the International Stock Show at Portland. It was agreed that each exhibitor be taxed according to the number of cattle shipped by him, and that the bill for feed be paid in the same way.

Those who attended the stock show pronounce it a great success, and the Tillamook Jersey breeders have just cause to be proud of their exhibit, as nearly every animal shown came home with a ribbon. Some of these ribbons may not have been the blue, but when we consider that the Jersey breeders had to show against, we think they had just cause for exultation. They had to compete with the best show cattle in the Pacific Northwest, cattle that have been on the circuit for all the big shows, and have been in the hands of experienced herdsman for months. Another thing is this. Just stop and think for a moment of the short time we have been handling the pure bred. It has been but a few years. Many of us can remember when there were no pure bred cattle in the county, and now nearly every dairyman is procuring them as fast as his finances will permit.

All Jersey breeders should begin early in the season to get their stock ready for next year's show. A great deal of credit is due Mr. Blackadar, president of the club, and Jos. Donaldson, secretary, for the exhibit made. It was they who urged the Jersey people to send a car load of cattle to the show, arguing that we have as good cattle as the best of them. The Jersey men co-operated with them, with the results before mentioned.

At this meeting Roy C. Jones talked of the fine display of all breeds at the stock show, and urged that there should be a calf club organized in this county. Edwin Glad won first prize in the calf show. Mr. Glad purchased this calf when two days old, from Morrison Mills. It is the daughter of Gambo April King. Mr. Glad gave the calf to Edwin and he has had the care of it. Edwin should have attended the stock show, and led his calf in the ring. His father is training him to be a thorough Jersey man, and this was made evident when he went forward at the meeting Monday night, and settled his bills with the other exhibitors.

Although the reporter for the daily Oregonian failed to report anything for the Jerseys at the recent stock show, we have come out victorious, for not one of the Jersey cattle had to be taken out of the ring until it received a ribbon.

The secretary of the club read a letter from S. Fine, Secretary-Treas. of the Oregon Jersey Cattle Club. He says this club is on its way to become the greatest state breeders organization in Oregon, if not in the United States. There are over one thousand breeders of pure bred Jersey cattle in Oregon. Oregon Jerseys lead the world. Of the nine world's records in the nine classes of Jerseys, six were made in Oregon. We have the highest producing Jersey of all ages. We have two of the eight Gold Medal bulls of the breed, and several others coming fast. It will only be a few years until every world's record for Jerseys will be held in Oregon. The world is beginning to recognize this and as a result breeders from Canada, from New England and from Central States are looking to Oregon for their foundation stock, and many are buying.

The Sec was instructed to write to the president and to the secretary of the Oregon Jersey Cattle Club urging them to meet with us at our next regular meeting which will be held on the 18th. Instant, at the home of Lester Daniels.

Presbyterian Church.

Subject for the evening sermon: "Will the world come to an end Wednesday, December 17?"

The public is cordially invited to attend all of these services.

Pomona Grange Notes.

The regular quarterly session of the Tillamook County Pomona Grange was called for December 4, 1919, to meet with White Clover Grange at Nehalem.

On account of rough roads the only officers present were the treasurer and secretary. At first it was thought impossible to hold a regular session, but when a vote was taken the majority stood for the meeting. The Master of White Clover Grange was placed in charge of the meeting. The lecturer of that grange suggested that each subordinate grange be instructed to send a delegate to each meeting of Pomona Grange and that the traveling expenses of such delegate be borne by the grange of which he is a member. After considerable discussion the matter was dropped.

A resolution committee, consisting of three members, was appointed by the master of ceremonies to draft resolutions of condolence to be extended to the families of sister Geo. R. McKimins and Sister R. Y. Blalock, both deceased since the last regular quarterly meeting. Members of committee: Mrs. Clay Daniel, Mrs. Lillian M. Zaddach and Mrs. Geo. Loerpebel.

Nestucca Grange, No. 503 will have the honor of entertaining the Pomona Grange at its next meeting, to be held on the first Thursday in March, 1920.

Following was the resolutions of condolence submitted by the committee and adopted:

"Since our allwise Father has seen fit to call to their heavenly home the spirits of our beloved sisters, Mrs. George R. McKimins and Mrs. R. Y. Blalock, be it resolved that we, the members of Tillamook County Pomona Grange, extend to the bereaved families our heartfelt sympathy and pray that they be sustained in their hour of sorrow by the grace of the living Savior, who doeth all things well;

Resolved that a copy of these resolutions be spread on the records of this grange, that copies be sent to the bereaved families and to the Oregon Grange Bulletin and the county papers."

The Census Questionnaire.

The 1920 census will be taken in January of next year, and it would be well when the census collector calls upon you in your home to be ready to answer the following questions:

1. How many members of the family are there living permanently at home?
2. Who is the head of the family? Name in order those most nearly related to the head of the family, beginning with the wife, children in order (beginning at the eldest), relatives, boarders, roomers, servants, etc.
3. Give the names of other persons not members of the family who reside permanently with the family.
4. Give age, at last birthday, sex, race of each member of family and other persons, and whether married, single, widowed or divorced.
5. Were all members of family or persons residing with family born within the United States?
6. If born in a foreign country, state date of arrival in the United States.
7. Has any member of the family or person residing permanently with the family been naturalized or declared his intention to become a citizen?
8. If so, give the date of naturalization if full citizen; date of first papers if declared intention.
9. Has any member or person residing permanently with family attended school since the first day of September, 1919?
10. Is there any member of the family or other person residing there who cannot read and write some language?
11. Give birthplace of each person including members of the family who reside there permanently, and their native tongue if foreign born.
12. Give birthplace of the father of each person residing there permanently and his native tongue if foreign born. Give the birthplace of the mother of each person, including members of the family, that reside there permanently and their native tongue if foreign born.
13. Is there any member of the family or other person residing permanently with the family who does not speak English?
14. What is the occupation or profession of each person, including members of the family residing there permanently?
15. Does the house in which they live belong to some member of the family or is it rented?
16. If house is owned by head of family or by some member of the family, state whether mortgaged or free from incumbrance.
17. Are there any outbuildings on the premises in which houses, cattle, sheep, hogs or poultry of any kind are kept?
18. Does any member of the family own or operate a farm?

19. Are there any members of the family that are either blind, deaf or mute?

MONEY TO BE REFUNDED.

Regarding Rates of the Pacific Telephone & Telegraph Company.

E. G. Munson, manager of the Pacific Telephone & Telegraph Co., has the following to say with reference to the recent order of the Public Service Commission regarding telephone rates, which are restored to their former rates:

"First and most important I desire to announce on behalf of the company that we propose to obey this order both in letter and spirit. This is not because we are satisfied with the order, nor because we concede that the order is fair or reasonable, but we recognize that the Commission was confronted with some exceedingly grave problems from its point of view, and that our efforts to make our position plain before the public has been greatly complicated and made exceedingly difficult by the made exceedingly difficult by the presentation involved have run concurrent with the government control, and the passing of that control with all the difficult questions of jurisdiction as well as the relative equities involved. For this reason we are not disposed to indulge in detailed criticism of a result which we think is, in fact, quite unfair.

"In the course of the hearing in this proceeding the Company voluntarily pledged itself to make refunds from August 1st to all its patrons of any difference in the rate collected and the rates established by the Commission despite the fact that it involves a difficult accounting and mechanical problem; this refund will be made by way of credit on the December bills, delivery of which to our subscribers is delayed for this purpose. This refund will also include toll charges made between Tillamook and Bay City exchanges during the past four months. With this declaration of purpose regarding the refund we hope that there may be extended some degree of leniency because of the innumerable details which are certain to present themselves. We will gladly take up individual instances with all subscribers who may find reason to be dissatisfied with the disposition of this matter on their current bills.

"Candor requires that we say now that it is the purpose of the company to apply for a new hearing regarding the reasonableness of these rates as the bases upon which we must go on with our undertaking to render a full, complete and satisfactory service to our subscribers. Our purpose will be to convince the Commission that it has not in fact provided sufficient additional revenue to cover the advance in wages which has actually been made. Thus far the revenue problem has never been approached with the prospect of results to which we are entitled under the law, namely, a reasonable return on our investment in the state of Oregon.

"We are particularly sorry that the Commission found it necessary to comment as it did on the quality of service we are giving. We realize that we cannot and as a matter of fact we have not for some time, claimed for this service that degree of excellence to which our patrons are entitled, but it had been our thought that the people were sufficiently acquainted with the grave difficulties, with which the company have been met, in the way of changing jurisdiction, strikes and the difficulties involved in the technique of mechanical equipment, as to give us some degree of charitable consideration on this point; but it is our hope that these difficulties are now largely a matter of the past.

"It is perhaps sufficient to say, finally, that with the best endeavor to co-operate with the Commission and its engineers, with our subscribers, and with the public officials of the State of Oregon, we are going into the future with a renewed hope in our ability to give service, under conditions so satisfactory, that this Company will attain a position in the public esteem, which it regards essential to its permanent success, satisfy its subscribers, satisfy the Commission and satisfy the public."

Reformed Congregational Church.

Regular services next Sunday, 10 a. m. Sunday School, 11 a. m. preaching, theme: "How to secure a hopeful Future."

In our time we have seen that even the bright future of great men has been crushed unexpectedly. And it seems that no one is sure about his coming days. But there are so many which like to be safe of crushing future troubles. Well here is a chance for you to hear of the best way to do it.

Rev. Richard Schuetz, Pastor.

Fairview School Had Close Call.

Fairview school house was saved from total destruction by fire on Tuesday by prompt action and good judgment of the youths of the school. In some way the cement chimney in the north room of the building had split and a fire was started in the roof. When the fire was discovered it caused some little commotion and the senior boys in the school climbed on the roof and poured water on the flames until assistance arrived. The fire burned the shingles near the chimney as well as the wood work. A fire alarm was turned in and assistance was asked from this city, when an effort was made to take the fire truck to the fire, but owing to the snow and the heavy load the truck was abandoned and the fire boys were taken in autos. The Fairview school is an old building and will be replaced next year with a new structure.

Former Student Makes Plea For Gymnasium.

To the Editor: The need of a gymnasium for the Tillamook High School is imperative. Never before has the need for a systematic method of physical training and a well equipped gymnasium been so much in need as now. The growth of the school justifies the addition. The physical welfare of the students is as great a responsibility as the mental welfare. Health should be maintained at all times, and with it a properly equipped gymnasium is this possible? An hour of gymnastic work under the supervision of a competent instructor does much toward strengthening the mind and also towards overcoming physical defects. It is resting and helps get rid of that extra physical energy so characteristic of boys and girls of school age. The athletic ability of the high school rests largely upon the physical training maintained in that school. A football game cannot be won on just wishing for a victory. Trained men meet trained men and in the clash the stronger and best trained team comes out on the long end of the score. In basketball and track it is the same. Efficiency wins. A high school successful in its athletics has a gymnasium, well equipped for the use of the students. The school with a gymnasium has a higher percentage of scholarship than a school without one. Can we afford to have our high school low in scholarship for the head of an efficient gymnasium? Is it not worth the money expended to build a gymnasium and have our high school on the top rung of the ladder of efficiency?

—A Former Student.
