

Goodyear Leadership— and Tires for Small Cars

Enormous resources and scrupulous care have produced in Goodyear Tires for small cars a high relative value not exceeded even in the famous Goodyear Cords on the world's highest-priced automobiles.

In addition to its larger sizes, Goodyear manufactures an average of 20,000 small car tires a day in the world's largest tire factory devoted solely to the 30x3-, 30x3½-, and 31x4-inch sizes.

Last year more small cars using these sizes were factory-equipped with Goodyear Tires than with any other kind.

Their extreme worth is available for your Ford, Chevrolet, Dort, Maxwell, or other small car, at the nearest Goodyear Service Station. Go there for these tires and Goodyear Heavy Tourist Tubes.

30x3½ Goodyear Double-Cure Fabric, All-Weather Tread..... $20.00
30x3½ Goodyear Single-Cure Fabric, Anti-Skid Tread..... $17.65

Goodyear Heavy Tourist Tubes are built to protect casings. Why endanger a good casing with a cheap tube? Goodyear Heavy Tourist Tubes cost little more than tubes of less merit. 30x3½ size in waterproof bag..... $3.90

Coaxing You to Smile.

First Lad—I hear Phyllis going to marry a chap in the army. Second Lad—Well I daresay a man who makes a business of war might be able to get on with her.

Blame in Wrong Place.

H. A. Wheeler, who participated in the recent industrial conference, was talking about the social unrest.

"Some of these extravagant workmen," he said, "remind me, when they take the capitalist to task, of the young bride.

"A young bride entered the grocers store with fire in her eye.

"I wish to complain," she said, "about that flour you sold me yesterday. It was tough."

"Tough flour, ma'am?" said the grocer, with a puzzled look. "There must be some mistake."

"No mistake whatever!" snapped the bride. "I made a pie with that flour and my husband said it was so tough he couldn't cut it with an ax."

He Was Warned.

She was a young widow who had just remarried, and hubby number two was causing her much anxiety.

"I cannot understand why my husband is so fastidious," she confessed to a friend. Now, my first husband, who died, used to eat everything I cooked for him.

"Did you tell your present husband that?" queried her friend.

"Oh yes, of course, why?"

"Well, perhaps that is the reason."

It Usually Works.

When Theodore Roosevelt was police commissioner of New York he asked an applicant for a position on the force:

"If you were ordered to disperse a mob what would you do?"

"Pass around the hat sir," was the reply.

Cop's Hard Problem.

He had been celebrating his birthday not wisely but too well, and at 2:30 in the morning found himself reclining full length on the pavement. After he had been dozing for a few moments a policeman came and said:

"Here, you must get along home; you can't sleep here. Where d'yer live?"

For a moment there was no reply then very slowly and indistinctly came:

"Watch that you shay?"

"Where do you live—and what's yer name?" repeated the policeman.

No reply. "Who are you?" shouted the policeman.

The bibulous one eyed him sleepily. "Look here officer," he said, "you just go along to No. — and ask if Mr. Smith is in. If he's out that's me; but if he's in, I don't know who I am."

Why Moles Are Blind.

The mole is blind because it lives in the dark. Its case is like that of the blind fishes which live in the darkness of the Mommouth Cave.

Moles have eyes. Indeed, they are not born blind. But a degeneration of the optic nerve deprives them of sight. Their remote ancestors doubtless could see very well.

Now and then there is an adult mole that can see a little out of one eye. The creature's loss of vision is an obvious illustration of nature's disposition to abolish a disused function.

TO MARRY HER HERO.

Italian Girl Will Wed Soldier Left Blind and Crippled for Life.

Five years ago Angelo Robecelli and Giuseppina Bosis, the handsomest pair in the little Lombard village of Capralba, near Milan, became engaged and were about to marry when war broke out, says a report from Rome. Angelo Robecelli immediately joined the colors and fought through several battles without receiving a scratch.

It was during the final stage of the campaign in the course of the decisive fighting on the Piave that the soldier came within the radius of a shell explosion, with the result that both arms were blown away and both eyes completely lost. He was stone blind and a cripple for life. As soon as he was on the way to recovery from his terrible injuries Angelo Robecelli dictated a letter to his fiancée in which he released her from her promise.

The answer came in the person of the bride-to-be, who vowed that she would never give up her soldier lover all the more now that he needed loving help and care. The nuns say that the scene which took place at the meeting was one of the most effeteionate they have ever witnessed.

A concert has been held at Milan to present the couple with a check toward setting up house and has given satisfactory results. The pope, informed by Cardinal Ferrari of this fine instance of unquenchable love and devotion, has sent his blessings and a handsome present and Queen Helena has written an autograph letter to the bride, enclosing a substantial check.

Drink With Every Pair of Shoes.

One New York proprietor did not close his bar when wartime prohibition went into effect. Instead of converting it into a shoe store, the mahogany counter and brass rail still remain and an excellent soft drink service brings many customers to the store. Every time anybody buys a pair of shoes he gets a drink "on the house."
