Clara Kimball Young in "The Claw."

The many admirers of Clara Kimball Young can see her this week at the Gem Theatre, Sunday, Feb. 1st., in one of her most distinctive screen offerings, "The Claw", her latest Select picture.

The main action of the story opens when Mary Saurin, played by Miss Young goes to Africa to visit her brother Dick, and his wife, there she meets Major Anthony Kinsella, Mrs. Valetta the uncrowned queen of the colony, resents Mary's coming and when Mary and Kim fall in love with each other, her jealousy leads her to open plotting.

The story is one of Synthia Stockley's masterful novels of African life, it has been admirably adapted for the screen by Charles E. Whittaker and directed by Robert G. Vignola.

Industrial Club Work.

According to the report of the Industrial Club Work of Tillamook County for last year, received by the County Superintendent from the Agricultural College, the boys and girls of Tillamook County produced $1355.05 worth of various articles, at a cost of $570.11, leaving a net profit of $784.94. The chief items of profit were, potatoes, $230.74; gardens, $120.09; pigs, $261.20; calves, $96.66, and other smaller items. This is a good showing, considering we had no regular club work in the county.

Each boy and girl in the various projects carefully followed the directions of the college, and were required to keep an accurate account of all expenses and receipts.

The work that will appeal to boys and girls in the county should be calf raising, pig raising, dairy herd record keeping, and gardening, since this is a dairy county. It is hoped that the various breeders associations will encourage the future farmers to carry on the work.

This work is worth while; the boys and girls of Oregon last year through this work directed by the college made a net profit of over $65,000.00. The early training is well worth the effort.

Paramount Stars Appearing in "Great Expectations."

It is a long leap from the pages of Booth Tarkington's "Seventeen" to Charles Dickens' "Great Expectations", but Louise Huff and Jack Pickford are nothing, if not versatile. So the fact that have abandoned the twentieth century and reverted to the picturesque London of which the great novelist wrote need occasion no surprise to admirers of these two youthful Famous Players stars. "Great Expectations" will be shown at the Gem Theatre, Friday, Jan. 30.

In this story Mr. Dickens developed two of his most interesting characters in Provis, the escaped convict and Miss Havisham, the spinster who had been deserted at the altar and who planned to revenge herself upon all men by having her beautiful adapted daughter break their hearts.

"Broken Commandments" is the significant title of a new Fox photoplay starring Gladys Brockwell, which will be shown at the Gem Theatre next Saturday. From advance reports of the picture it is an intense and unusual presentation of the love of one girl and two men and the tragic results of broken commandments in two lives, that come at last out of their tangles through the nobility of the men and their understanding of the "new commandments." The story apparently offers as great promise as any ever shown and with Miss Brockwell as the star it should be a wholesome thriller.

Public Sale.

I will sell at public sale the latter part of February, about 60 head of cows, commonly known as the M. W. Harrison herd. These cows have been in the Association test for the past three or four years and all have made creditable records, some of them on pasture alone have made close to 80 lbs. of butter fat per month. All of the cows that were proven undesirable through the test work or for any other reasons have been disposed of and replaced by desirable young cows. This herd, together with 15 or 20 head of heifers coming two years old and three registered herd bulls will be sold. All animals tuberculin tested.

If you are in the market for high class cows you can not do better than be in attendance at this sale. Later announcements will furnish full information as to date and terms of sale.

Tillamook Jersey Cattle Club's Annual Meeting.

The Tillamook Jersey Cattle Club held its annual meeting at the home of F. D. Bester on the 22nd of January. The meeting was preceeded by the usual good dinner, for which the ladies of the Club are noted. Forty-five members and visitors were present and all did justice to the bounteous repast.

The meeting was called to order by F. Blackadar, President, with a few appropriate remarks, and the secretary's report was read which is in substance as follows:

Cash on hand at the beginning of 1919, $81.87; receipts during the year, $220.63; Total $302.50. Disbursements for the year $226.72. The report was accepted and order placed on file.

The following officers were duly elected: Mark Bays, F. Blackadar, Rose Crawford, L. Daniels, and Theresa Ross, board of directors. President—Joseph Donaldson. Vice-President—Theresa Ross. Sec-Treas.—Rose Crawford. Morrison Mills, Wm. Maxwell and Mark Bays, program committee.

Interest in the Jersey bred is daily growing stronger; and when we read the report of the Fairview Cheese factory, which is known as the Jersey factory, as nearly all the milk received at this factory is from the Jersey cow, we have just cause for exultation.

The average fat at the factory this year is 4.421.

Average price per 100 pounds of milk, $3.55

Average amount of cheese produced per hundred lb. of milk, 11.96.

This report shows that the better quality of milk produced by the Jersey breed gives both quality and quantity. The large quantity of fat incorporated in the cheese produces the soft, creamy, delicious product so much desired by the public. Many tests have proven beyond any doubt what the Jersey cow can do as compared with other breeds.

First—She makes more cheese, solids, other than butter fat.

Third—It requires less of her milk to make a pound of cheese.

Fourth—She produces a pound of cheese at much less cost.

Fifth—She produces cheese of a much higher quality.

Persistency in yield is one of her strong points, and no test shorter than one year can fully demonstrate the quantity and quality of any breed. The patrons of the Fairview Cheese factory are working in harmony. No arguments take place, nor dissatisfaction exists among them over the six-plus system. Each is satisfied with the Babcock Test, and is willing to take what his cow actually produces for him.

At this meeting there was interesting talks and discussions relative to the Jersey sale which is to be held at the Pacific International Exposition this year, providing, however, that enough cattle can be procured to carry on such sale. The growing demand among dairymen for the Jersey breed is such, that much doubt is entertained as to whether enough cattle can be procured to justify holding the sale.

It has been decided to hold another Jersey Jubilee during 1920, and an effort will be made by the Tillamook Jersey Cattle Club to have them visit Tillamook.

"A Square Deal to Everyone" is our motto. No attempt at extravagant or spectacular publicity is made nor does the Club ever attempt to "put things over" on anyone, that it cannot stand back of. This is one of the secrets of our success.

The club will meet next month on the 26th at the farm of Joe Donaldson.

Star is Seen as "Faro Fan" in "The Lady of Red Butte."

Dorothy Dalton as "Faro Fan" in the latest Thomas H. Ince Paramount picture, "The Lady of Red Butte" has a character which is a strong reminder of her successful type in "The Flame of the Yukon" a play that firmly established her as one of the foremost dramatic actors of the screen.

Miss Dalton has had an enviable stage and screen career. Her first engagement on the stage was with Virginia Harned, in Chicago. After a couple of seasons in stock she toured the Orpheum circuit in a sketch of her own writing, "The Smugglers."

OVERLAND 4

OVERLAND 4 marks a fundamental advance in motor car construction—the most important improvement in comfort to the passengers and in preserving the chassis from real shocks since pneumatic tires made motoring possible.

Its Three-Point Cantilever Springs create a riding buoyancy which establishes Overland 4 as a new type of car.

Before the Overland 4 was submitted to the verdict of the public it was subjected to preliminary trials covering more than 250,000 miles in widely varying climates and road conditions. In high and low altitudes, in rock and sand, in mud and snow and dust, the Overland 4 withstood every ordeal. And in so doing, this car established a new standard, not merely of roadability, but of economy.

An Open Letter to the Men of Tillamook.

Dear friends and brothers: The church which I represent is here to serve the community not to exploit it. If it is not serving the community it has no excuse for existence. It is also my firm conviction that it ought to serve every man and every interest of every man not affiliated with some other church in the community. It is not now doing that thing, I want you to help me solve that problem. I am anxious to see the church and its relation to this community through your eyes. I am here to be of service, if possible to every man in the community, and whatever a man's fellowship and a pastor's devotion to his task can do I desire to do.

One way we can serve each other is for you to answer the following questions candidly and frankly, mailing your replies to me at your earliest convenience. It is my purpose to use your replies at the evening service February eighth. No names will be mentioned and no confidences betrayed.

1—If you are not, why are you not a regular attendant at some church service?

2.—What has been the reason given by some neighbor or friend for non-attendance?

3—In what way, in your opinion, can the services of the church be made to appeal more strongly to men?

4—Why does it not now seem to appeal to them?

5—What practical phase of social or institutional work, in your opinion, could be undertaken in this community by this church that would appeal to and meet with the co-operation of the men of the community? Write your replies now before you forget it.
