

Big Value in Tires for Small Cars

Back of the manufacture of Goodyear Tires for small cars is the same purpose to supply high value in the product that is behind the manufacture of the Goodyear Tires that equip the most expensive automobiles built.

This purpose is expressed by the enormous resources, extraordinary skill and scrupulous care applied to the manufacture of Goodyear Tires in the largest tire factory in the world devoted solely to the 30x3-, 30x3½-, and 31x4-inch sizes.

The effect of this endeavor is noted in the fact that last year more cars using these sizes were factory-equipped with Goodyear Tires than with any other kind.

It is also noted in the fact that, if you own a Ford, Chevrolet, Dort, Maxwell or other car requiring the sizes mentioned, you can secure Goodyear Tires and Goodyear Heavy Tourist Tubes at the nearest Goodyear Service Station.

30x3½ Goodyear Double-Cure Fabric, All-Weather Tread..... $20.00

Goodyear Heavy Tourist Tubes are thick, strong tubes that reinforce casings properly. Why risk a good casing with a cheap tube? Goodyear Heavy Tourist Tubes cost little more than tubes of less merit. 30x3½ size in water-proof bag..... $3.90

Coaxing You to Smile.

Duration Still On.

On the Bassan docks at Bordeaux, France, an old time sergeant of a negro regiment was having trouble with a detail of men of his own race, who seemed inclined to loaf on their work in loading box-cars with provisions for the army of occupation. Addressing one negro who was especially lazy, he exclaimed: "Some on, you, get to work, dar!" "Shucks sergeant," replied the lazy one. "Ah listed foh de wah, an' hit's ovah." "Yo' all's a dura fool," the sergeant yelled. "Yo' listed for de wah Y-e-s! An' also for de duration of de wah. Now nigger, de wah its ovah, but de duration, hit's jes' done begun."

Perfectly Simple.

Brown was going to have some alterations made on his home and asked Jones—who had just got rid of the builders—the best way to go about it. "Oh," said Jones, "you call in a decent builder and tell him the limit you are prepared to pay out, being sure that the sum you mention to him is about a quarter of what you have for the alterations; and then, if you are lucky, and keep your wife away while the work is proceeding you may get half of what you want done for about twice the total sum you want to spend."

Nevermore!

The landlady of a well-known London boarding house made a point of asking her departing guests to write something in her visitors' book. She was very proud of some of the names of the people inscribed in it, and of the nice things that were said. "But there is one thing I can't understand," she confided to a friend, "and that is what an American put in the book after stopping here. People always smile when they read it." "What was it?" queried the other. "He wrote only the words, 'Goth the raven.'"

He Got His Drink.

A red-headed Irish soldier thrust his head out of a passenger coach and excitedly cried. "A woman has fainted here! Has anyone a drink of whiskey?"

A man in the crowd handed up a pocket flask, and the soldier took a long swig. "Thanks!" he said, smacking his lips. "It always did make me nervous to see a woman faint."

Cause of the Trouble.

An old sailor approached a farmer for a meal one day, saying he was willing to work.

"I will give you a meal," said the farmer, "if you will round up those sheep on the common there and drive them into this fold."

In three hours time the sailor came back looking hot, but happy.

Glancing over the gate in the field the farmer saw the sheep safely in the fold. "There's a jackrabbit sitting up among them," he exclaimed.

"Do you mean that little fellow there?" asked the sailor. "Why, that's the little begger that gave all the trouble. I thought it was a lamb."

His Reception.

"No one," says a Louisville man, "can more effectually take the wind out of a fellow's sails than an old-time, leisurely Kentuckian. After fifteen years' absence, during which I had graduated at a university, got my name in the papers a few times, and bought many articles of fine raiment, I went to see the little town in Kentucky where I had been a 'poor but ambitious youth.' Now it was my expectation that a reception committee would be on hand to greet me, but nothing of the sort happened. Observing the grandeur of my clothes, however, my old acquaintances came around and shook hands quite cordially, all except old Henry Miles who kept the general store. Old Henry sat back of the stove, handy to the sawdust box. He seemed not to notice me in the least. I was piqued—angry, in fact. I walked up to the old chap and stood right in front of him, so that he could not fail to see me in all my glory. Slowly, casually, old Henry looked up from under the flap of his old white hat, and remarked: 'Clarence, you have been away somewhere, haven't you?'"
