

NAZIMOVA
in a striking pose. Drawn from a recent portrait of the brilliant Russian Star.

Nazimova in "The BRAT."

In the charity homes, in the chorus, and in the dark haunts of the city's slums—people called her "The Brat." She never knew any other name. One night an author found her among the drab derelicts of a police court. He took her home and she met his finance.

The Flu Epidemic.

Once more the flu epidemic has blown over and it is hard to tell when another wave will make its appearance and in what form the disease will take. Tillamook county was not the only place where a great mistake was made in calling mild forms of the disease simply colds and influenza. That did more to cause carelessness and the spread of the disease than anything else, in fact, it helped to cause the deaths of several persons who exposed themselves when they should have been in bed. Some few years ago several cases of small pox developed in the county, and one local doctor was loud in his protests that it was not small pox and pronounced it chicken pox, with other doctors just as pronounced that the disease was small pox. Several bad cases developed in different parts of the county and the situation became alarming, with a general sentiment in favor of strict quarantine but while the doctors were disagreeing, the disease rapidly spread, and we know several persons who are badly pitted now with small pox mark, yet one doctor had the audacity to stick to what he said and claimed there was no small pox in the county. To the average layman when some contagious disease like small pox, diphtheria, the flu, etc., become prevalent, it is time to get busy and quarantine and not allow it to become general before some precautionary measures are taken. This is what happened to the doctor who stuck to the no small pox theory: He was discredited by most persons in the county, lost his practice and was eventually starved out, leaving the county for other parts of the state.

Secretary Lane, in his farewell address as a member of the Wilson cabinet, said that departmental heads could make better use of appropriations if they were given more discretion in using them. Perhaps the reason Secretary Baker didn't use more discretion in his expenditures on air planes, artillery and cantonments is that he wasn't given more.

Celebrated Novel Adapted to Screen

Mrs. Elinor Glyn, one of the most celebrated novelists of the world, is the author of "The Career of Katherine Bush," a thrilling story of English life and manners, the sale of which in this country and abroad exceeded eleven hundred thousand copies. The book was pictureized by the Famous Players-Lasky Corporation and it will be shown as a Paramount Arterial Special at the Gem Theatre next Tuesday, March 23, with beautiful Catherine Calvert in the stellar role.

In the story of "The Career of Katherine Bush," Mrs. Glyn paints the portrait of a young woman who carves out her own career successfully, but before she reaches her goal that of marriage with a celebrated nobleman, she suffers many a bitter pang occasioned by her recollection of imprudences of her early life. She is a woman of high ideals and she risks the loss of the love of the man she yearns for by telling him of her career, but instead of sacrificing her future, he takes her to him forgivingly, and both are rendered happy.

Resolutions of Condolence.

Whereas our comrade, Joe J. Rutgers, has been called from this earthly existence, leaving a vacancy in our ranks that can never be filled; and Whereas, we sincerely mourn his loss and sympathize with his relatives in their bereavement;

Now, therefore, be it resolved: That Tillamook Post, No. 47, express by these resolutions, to the surviving relatives of our departed comrade, our sympathy in this, the hour of sorrow;

Be it further resolved: That copies of this resolution be sent to the parents of Comrade Rutgers and that a copy thereof be published.

Everett T. Wells, Floyd Eberman and H. L. Lamar, Committee.

Whereas, The Supreme Ruler of the universe in his definite wisdom and mercy has seen fit to receive from this world to that happy home beyond our Brother and Friend, Joseph J. Rutgers, and that in his departure we are again reminded that our lives are fleeting and transitory, and are called to pause a moment in the busy whirl of life and bow our heads in humble submission to the will of Him who rules the destinies of all, and

Whereas, his loyalty to his family and friends, and his fidelity to the responsibilities of life have gained for him the sincere admiration of those who were privileged to make his acquaintance, and in his departure we have lost one of our most faithful brothers;

Therefore be it resolved, That we, as members of Tillamook Lodge No. 94, I. O. O. F., extend to the bereaved family and friends of our beloved brother our heartfelt sympathy in this their hour of sorrow, and that our charter be draped for a period of thirty days in remembrance of our beloved brother.

Be it further resolved, that a copy of this resolution be sent to the bereaved family, and one to the newspapers of Tillamook City, and a copy spread upon the minutes of this lodge.

Geo. P. Winslow, F. F. Conover and J. M. Wilson, Committee.

Reformed Congregational Church.

10 a.m. Sunday School. 11 a.m. preaching.

The glorious gospel for Palm Sunday, which will be delivered on coming Sunday, is the message of Christ's Kingship. Wherever Christians are living they will not fail to show their loyalty to Christ not only in going to church, also crowning Him King of their hearts and lives. Christ is King for all power is given to Him in heaven and in earth. The history of the church is the march of the glorified Lord Jesus across continents and centuries. Saluted by the songs of all the churches in all the countries, where his name is known, and advancing from nation to nation. He marches toward the final dominion of the whole world.

A cordial welcome is extended to all by Rev. Richard Schuetze.

8 p.m. Evening sermon. All welcome.

Service of song, prayer and testimony on Thursdays at 7:30 p.m. led by Mrs. Clink, evangelist from Calgary, Canada.

If you are a stranger in town and have no church home, we bid you welcome to our house of worship, (near the Tillamook Hotel.) Bring your friends with you and make yourself at home. You will find our services inviting and helpful.
Rev. A. E. Ingler, Pastor.

NEHALEM NOTES.

Mrs. Graham of this city has been reported on the sick list.

Misses Anah Steele and Edith Thompson visited the Walker family of Southfork last Saturday.

Mr. Graham returned last week from Portland with a team of horses.

We are all sorry to learn that Herman Tohl is on the sick list again after recovering from one a few weeks ago.

Three candidates went through the burning sand of the K. P. lodge of this city last Monday night.

Quite a number of our people attended the dedication services in the new Methodist church at Wheeler last Sunday.

Monday morning all the mountains about Nehalem were conspicuous for their snow-capped peaks. The rain during the night had turned to snow on the mountains.

Rev. Hickerson entertained Dr. W. W. Youngson and Rev. M. B. Paroungin, of Portland, at his home here the fore part of the week.

We understand that C. J. Hanks, proprietor of the city dairy has purchased a new piano from Mr. Erwin, of Tillamook. People all over the country are more musically inclined than ever before.

Holly McKiddy accidentally shot himself through the foot with a cheap pistol one day last week. Dr. McGee was called to dress the wound which was not very serious.

B. Batzner had a tussle with the "flu" last week. It has visited about every family in Nehalem.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Anderson left Sunday for a week's vacation with friends and relatives in Portland. Mrs. Hattie Smith will assist Mrs. Klugg in the store during their absence.
