Miss Jessie Warren is here visiting her parents for a week or so. She is attending O. A. C. this year.

Robert Watt, Jr., also from the O. A. C., is here visiting his parents. This is his first trip home since he had his feet frozen last winter. It was thought for a while that his feet would be seriously affected, but his slight limp is hardly perceptible.

NEHALEM NOTES.

A great time is expected at the community sing at Mrs. Tohl's Thursday night.

A logger at Brighton camp four by the name of "Frenchie" tried to commit suicide last Saturday by slashing his throat with a razor. He failed in the attempt and Dr. Rinehart took 15 stitches in sewing the fellow up. He will be examined for insanity.

Miss Uellie Conder, of Nehalem, left last week for a visit in Portland. Kinks Monte Cristo was severely hurt while working at Coal creek camp last week. We are all glad to say he is getting better.

Henry Gage, an uncle of I.W. Gage, spent the week end with Will and his wife here. Mr. Gage resides in Clatsop.

Preparations are being made for a grand time Friday night, the event being in honor of the Grand Chancellor Commander of the K. P. Lodge, who will be here at that time.

Adolph Matthies, of Portland, George Sullivan of Monmouth and William Minty, of McMinville, were in town the fore part of the week looking for grazing land for young stock. They like the Nehalem country and are buying up several desirable locations.

A number of people were interested in the discussion of this subject last Sunday night. Everybody welcome.

Allan A. McRea, Minister.

Those who understand cards and especially the national game of poker, are going to get a good laugh out of a game in which Charles Ray plays in his latest Thomas H. Ine picture, "Bill Henry," which comes as a Paramount offering at the Gem next Monday.

Mr. Ray is seen as a country boy who is inveigled into the fame by some "wise" traveling salesman. It develops toward the end of the game that he isn't such a boob and when he lays down the winning hand, he rakes in a jackpot big enough to do the thing he wants—buy the seemingly worthless piece of land owned by the girl he loves, who is in desperate straits for want of a sale.

Walter Heira, the fat boy, is the wise salesman who lures the youth into the gambling game and finds that instead of a lamb he has coaxed in a lion.

Reformed Congregational Church.

Meditation for Palm Sunday. "Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord even the King of Israel." One of the morning prayers of the Synagogue Liturgy reads: "We hope in Thee, O Lord our God, that we may speedily behold the glory of thy might, when thou wilt remove the abominations from the earth, and the idols will be utterly cut off, when the world will be perfected under the Kingdom of the Almighty, when all the children of the flesh will call upon thy name, when thou wilt convert unto thyself all the wicked of the earth. Let all the inhabitants of the earth perceive and know that unto Thee every knee must bow, every tongue must swear. Let them all accept the yoke of thy Kingdom, and do thou reign over them speedily and forever."

"The Beast" Coming; George Walsh, Star.

"The Beast" a William Fox photodrama, is coming to the Gem Theatre next Saturday, March 27. George Walsh plays the title role. Those who have seen this forceful actor would naturally be eager to see him again in anything he might do; but in the coming production he is said to give a characterization of astounding dramatic quality. As the "Beast" he sinks his real personality and for a time becomes a drink-crazed brute ready to destroy that which is destined ultimately to bring him complete happiness.

His fight for a woman horrifies; his struggle for life thrills, and his triumph over evil should satisfy those who see this picture.

High School Notes.

Bernice Nelson, formerly a student of Tillamook High School, who is now attending O. A. C. at Corvallis, addressed the student body Friday on the millage tax.

Our boys played basket ball with Bay City Monday. The score was 10 to 41 in favor of Bay City. It is expected that "Shingles" Gabriel will be able to play in the near future and we expect our luck to change.

An unusually large audience gathered at the high school auditorium last Friday to hear the championship debate. The following program was rendered:

Piano Solo, "Rustle of Spring" by Ramona Haltom.

Debate, Resolved: That the use of the writ of injunction in Labor disputes should be prohibited by federal law.

The affirmative was upheld by Forest Dryden and Morris Baxter, of Corvallis High School and the negative by Clara Solo and Harry Elliott of Tillamook high school. The rebuttal for the affirmative was given by Forest Dryden and of the negative Clara Solo.

Piano Solo, "Fifth Nocturne," Lucia Wiley.

The decision of the judges was in favor of the affirmative. The judges were Dean Alden, Willamette University, Salem, Oregon, Lee Goodman, Beaver, Rev. McRea, Tillamook.

Betty Lantz and Martha Crank who went to Corvallis to prove the affirmative lost unanimously.

An interesting student body meeting was held Tuesday. It was decided to have loud sock, collarless and hair down back day next Friday. The faculty will be compelled to comply with the regulations also. A triangular pin was chosen as the standard pin for the High School.
