NEHALEM NOTES.

Mrs. Louise Hines and son, of Elgin, Illinois, are visiting her parents Mr. and Mrs. Morrison of this city.

Harry Scovell, wife and child, who have been residing in Garibaldi the past few months, have moved to Nehalem.

Mrs. H. V. Crawford, of Coal Creek Camp, has been reported on the sick list.

H. J. Hickerson is in Newberg this week on business.

The community singing at Mrs. H. W. Tohl's last Thursday night was a grand success. The honorable Jack Leslie with his chorus of singers carried off all honors.

The Methodist Sunday School will hold Easter exercises next Sunday instead of the regular Sunday school. Public invited.

William and Leona Perego are home from the Washington University for a short vacation.

On last Friday night the K. P. lodge held open meeting, the event being in honor of a visit from the Grand Chancellor, J. A. Hurley, of Yale, Oregon. Brother A. C. Anderson was chairman of the meeting and introduced Mr. Hurley, who made one of the finest talks ever heard in Nehalem. Brother Hurley was followed by Knight T. B. Handley, who was up from Tillamook, and who made a few well chosen remarks. After the addresses, the floor was cleared and a social dance was given, which was enjoyed by all. A fine luncheon was served and everyone present had a grand time. A number of Brother Knights were present from Tillamook. Brother Hurley made a lot of friends here.

John Ebinger and wife, formerly of Tillamook, have taken up their abode on the Kunze ranch at Nehalem.

John Ebinger and wife, formerly of Tillamook, have taken up their abode on the Kunze ranch at Nehalem.

Capt. Loll, an old pioneer of the Nehalem country, and at one time prominent mariner of the Oregon Coast, died in Tillamook Sunday and was buried in the Nehalem cemetery Tuesday by the side of his wife, who died several years ago.

Miss Marina Larsen, who was in Portland last week, happened to be a witness to the accident in which a lady clerk from Meier and Frank's store was run over by an automobile and killed.

Harry Bell went to Portland this week after another new car. He was accompanied by his little daughter, Norma.

J. W. Thompson, proprietor of the Nehalem Drug Co., made a business trip to Portland last week. It is very seldom that Mr. Thompson gets away from home.

John Ebinger and wife, formerly of Tillamook, have taken up their abode on the Kunze ranch at Nehalem.

em. John will help Mr. Kunze in the management of the big place. We are glad to have Mr. and Mrs. Ebinger among us.

C. A. Thompson, of Portland, will lecture at the K. P. hall Friday night on Starving Armenia. He will also have the moving pictures. Admission free.

The United Brethren in Christ.

Watch the contest that is on in our school and see the school grow.

Let us meet you at our mid-week prayer meetings on every Wednesday at 8 p.m.

E. F. Wiggle, Pastor.

"The Virtuous Thief" has a Capable Cast.

Enid Bennett, the charming Paramount star comes to the Gem theatre next Monday, April 5, in a most attractive photoplay, "The Virtuous Thief." In this picture she has been surrounded by an exceptionally strong cast.

Niles Welsh plays the part of the jealous young lover. He has been seen in many Paramount pictures, and has a host of admirers. Lloyd Hughes, a young man friend of Mr. Ince's, appears as the heroine's brother, and William Conklin is the designing employer who attempts the ruin of the innocent young stenographer.

Others in the cast are Willis Marks, Dorcas Matthews, Lucile Young and Andrew Robson. Every part in the picture is the delineation of an interesting character and every one assigned to the parts was chosen because of his special aptness in the interpretation of that line.

Olive Thomas in 'Upstairs and Down'

"Upstairs and Down" a comedy drama with pep, dash and thrills, that will entertain and delight any moving picture audience in the country will be seen on Sunday, April 4, when Selznick Pictures presents the lovely and vivacious young star, Olive Thomas, at the Gem Theatre in the first of her series released through Select Pictures Corporation.

Olive Thomas as Alice Chesteron gives a delightful characterization of the "baby vamp" who was happiest when she was entangled in a web of intrigue and trouble. This adorable little mischief maker is adored by Tom Carey, but to her that is only an ordinary incident in the wheel of life. At a large house party in Long Island she "vamps" Terry O'Keefe, an Irish boy, with a captivating smile and a bewitching brogue. He is the means of furnishing her with one of her very happiest moments. She follows him to the city and when later he really falls in love with Alice's sister, Betty, and asks her to marry him, Alice says that Terry has compromised her and must marry her. Eventually things straighten themselves out, to the satisfaction of all concerned.

Summons.

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon, for Tillamook County.

Andrew Peterson, Plaintiff, vs. F. R. Beals, and Bird Beals, husband and wife, Arthur M. Churchill, James Pailin and Laura Pailin, husband and wife, Charles F. Blum and Minnie B. Blum, husband and wife, Shute Savings Bank a corporation, as Trustee, and the Federal Land Bank of Spokane, Washington, a corporation. Defendants.

To the Federal Land Bank of Spokane, Washington, a corporation; In the name of the State of Oregon, you are hereby notified and required to appear in the above entitled Court and cause and answer the complaint filed herein, within six weeks from the date of the first publication of this summons, which said date is the 25th day of March, 1920, and if you fail to so appear, for want thereof, the plaintiff will apply to the Court for the relief demanded. In the complaint in said cause, to-wit: for an order forever canceling and annulling the lien of that certain mortgage which you hold on the property described in the complaint, and for such other relief as appears in the prayer of said complaint.

This summons is served upon you by publication by order of Hon. Geo. R. Bagley, Judge of the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon, for Tillamook County, made and entered during a regular term of said Court on the 24th day of March, 1920. First publication March 25, 1920. Last publication April 29, 1920.

Talmage, Claussen & Mannix, Attorneys for Plaintiff. Address: Tillamook, Oregon.

Holstein Breeders Attention.

I have for sale some of the very best bred heifers and bull calves in Tillamook. These calves are from world's record breeding, climatic and health certified herds. The dairy man of Tillamook County who has a scrub bull in his herd can make no better investment at this time than seeing me at once and getting a registered bull now, for service in his herd next year.

Rollie W. Watson, Sec. Treas. Tillamook Co. Holstein Breeders Assn.

Obituary Notice.

Captain Ernest Loll was born in Germany, June 28, 1860, and died March 28, 1920, at the age of 59 years and ten months. He leaves three sons, namely, Carl Loll of Newport, Oregon, Ernest Loll of Portland and Louis Loll of Tillamook, Oregon. The funeral was held at the church in Nehalem Tuesday afternoon, and the interment was at the K. P. cemetery. The Rev. McRea, of the Presbyterian church in this city, had charge of the services. Captain Loll was well known in Tillamook county, as he had lived here many years, and he leaves a great many friends to mourn his loss.

Attention Odd Fellows.

Tillamook Lodge, No. 49, I. O. O. F. met in regular session Tuesday. We had a glorious meeting where the principles of Odd Fellowship were exemplified, and after a business and social meeting, the Brothers present adjourned to the dining room where all were served a sumptuous feed by the good eats committee.

Absent Brothers do not realize how much they are missing by not attending lodge, in good cheer and good eats, for in both we excel.

Commencing at once, lodge meetings take up at 8 p.m. every Tuesday evening and we earnestly request all Brothers to attend. See that your dues are paid in advance. Do not blame brothers if you are taken sick and looked after, when it is your fault, for how can we know, if you are always absent from lodge meetings?

F. F. Conover, Sec.

Armenian Lecture Thursday.

The drive for funds for the relief of the starving nation of Armenia, which was put on in Portland in February has been delayed in Tillamook county on account of the influenza epidemic; but that is past now and Mr. C. H. Johnston, of Portland will spend the latter part of this week with us in the interest of this cause.

He brings with him a stereopticon lantern and many pictures depicting the terrible conditions in that country, and every person with a heart in him should hear this lecture and see these pictures.

He will speak in the court house at Tillamook, Thursday, April 1st at 7:30 p.m.

Appointments are also made for him at Cloverdale, Wednesday, March 31; Nehalem, Friday, April 2; Wheeler, Saturday, April 4 at 2:30 p. m. and Brighton Saturday night at 7:30.

Oregon's slogan is "Feed 'Em Oregon."

The Grouch is Gone.

"A soft answer turneth away wrath," likewise patient home service effort has converted many a grouch into good will. "X" was a returned service man who had a number of very real injuries while in the service. In addition he had some very real grievances because of the government's delay in attending to his injuries. On top of the real grievances, some imaginary ones were added, and the whole was moulded into a first class "grouch". This was when he first came to the Home Service Section several months ago. A letter received by the Home Service Secretary speaks for itself.

"Dear friend: Will you please forgive me for not thanking you for all your bother. It seems as though thanks is very poor pay, but if you ever need any one to fight for you, don't be afraid to call on me. I want to thank you once more for what you have done for me. I will see that young Smith, one of these days pretty soon. My very best wishes to you, from a friend."—Red Cross Bulletin.

Surface Religion Won't Do.

"People today endorse religion when they get married, when they get sick and when they die, with perhaps a few church collections thrown in between, and that is the extent of their profession. They refuse to take a positive stand and publicly commit themselves on the great issue of Christian redemption. They care more for the respectabilities of religion than for its realities. Many do not wish to be classed as pagans, yet they don't want to be disturbed. It makes them tired to think. They deplore anything that looks like religious excitement, as a mark of vulgarity. Polite indifference is one of our modern styles and there are not a few people who want to be stylish.

"But the clandestine Christianity won't do. It is poor stuff. It is the very climax of inconsistency. People who want the conventionalities of religion and who wish to be courted to its leaders need to be reminded that conventionalality can never take the place of conscience and that courtesy can never be a substitute for courage."

This is the way Dr. Harold Griffin, of the First Christian church, of Portland, addressed the noonday evangelistic meeting of the federation of churches in the Pantages Theatre Monday, Dr. J. J. Staub, Rev. W. P. Ineson, Bishop W. H. Washinger and the Rev. Howard Johnson are other speakers for this week.—Journal.

"Tin Pan Alley" New Fox Comedy Coming.

"Tin Pan Alley" is coming to town to give us a glimpse on the screen of the life of Tin Pan Alley, the music publishing quarter of New York, of the young musician, and of the girl who inspired his songs—all of whom have been made famous in the magazine story by William C. Lenger. The Gem Theatre will show the William Fox picturization of this story next Saturday, and if it pictures half as well as it reads, it should be a worth while performance especially in the hands of the "happy snappy" comedians, Albert Ray and Elinor Fair.

Meeting of Jersey Cattle Club.

There will be a meeting of the Tillamook Jersey Cattle Club at Fairview Grange hall, April 15th. All members of the club are requested to be present as there is business of importance to be transacted. By order of the president, Rose Crawford, Secretary.

Call for Warrants.

All outstanding County Road Warrants endorsed prior to and including the 31st day of January, 1920, will be paid upon presentation. On all such warrants not heretofore called, interest ceases this 31st day of March, 1920.

Kathleen Mills, County Treasurer.

Methodist Episcopal.

Easter the day of all days will be observed with appropriate services at the Methodist church next Sunday. The Sunday School is again getting back into condition after the epidemic of sickness. If you are not systematically studying the Bible anywhere else this is a splendid place to begin. Sermon theme: "The Message of Easter for the Twentieth Century" Help make the Sunday School 25 per cent more than last Sunday.

Yours for service, G. O. Oliver, Pastor.

"Wagon Tracks" New Hart Picture.

William S. Hart, hero of a hundred thrilling dramatic situations, star of some of the finest photo dramas that have ever reached the screen and one of the most virile and popular delineators of western characters, will be seen in "Wagon Tracks," an Artcraft picture at the Gem Theatre next Tuesday, April 6. This photoplay promises to eclipse even his best previous offerings by reason of its exceptional quality and historic interest.

To men, women and children in every section of the country "Bill" Hart is typical of the Western spirit—breezy, resourceful, skilled in every sport and necessary accomplishment of the plains. His face is the synonym for power and manliness; his ability as an actor is admitted by all; his naturalness, restraint, quiet ease in even the most trying moments stamp him as a finished artist.

"Wagon Tracks" was written by C. Gardner Sullivan and that is a guarantee of its dramatic strength.

"A Society Exile" Raises Question.

"Who ever heard of an heiress writing a popular novel?" inquired an incredulous male person during the filming of Elsie Ferguson's new Artcraft photoplay, "A Society Exile" which is coming to the Gem Theatre Wednesday, April 17.

"Lots of them have," a woman came back. "There's Mrs. Leonard Thomas, who writes poetry under the name of 'Michael Strange,' and Carmen Sylva, the well known poetess and novelist, was not only heiress to millions, but the Queen of Roumania besides."

The question was occasioned by the fact that in "A Society Exile" Miss Ferguson plays the part of Nora Sharr, the daughter of a millionaire and the author of a "best seller". She is taken to England by her aunt, where she is courted by a disolute lord. Nora refuses him, and in revenge the thwarted Britisher has her hooded out of England on a trumped up charge. She flees to Italy and becomes a resident of Venice, where happiness finally comes to her. The picture is from the well known English play, "We Can't Be as Bad as All That."

Mary Pickford at The Gem Friday.

Mary Pickford is presented in another photoplay that will increase her popularity in Paramount's four-part screen adaptation of Frances Hodgson Burnett's play "Esmeralda" which comes to the Gem Friday.

Miss Pickford delineates this famous character study with all the sweetness and tenderness that is hers. In "Esmeralda" the gifted authoress has cleverly interwoven real pathos, simple and beautiful sentiment and quaint originality and humor.

Whether in Esmeralda's quiet little home on the farm, or in the whirl of society's life in a large metropolis, she is the master of every situation with which the appealing drama confronts her. Not only because it is unlike anything else she has ever done before, but also because of its humanness. The story is so well known that it is perhaps unnecessary to more than briefly indicate the motif. The theme is based upon the separation of the simple little Esmeralda and her sweetheart by the unexpected finding of a fortune in ore on the farm and the suddenly developed ambitions of her mother who becomes uncontrollably society stricken when she learns of her wealth.

Merit That Makes Mileage

-In Tires for the Smaller Cars

Such extraordinary competence and carefulness as are characteristic of all Goodyear manufacture likewise characterize Goodyear's building of tires for the smaller cars.

Only very unusual experience and endeavor make possible the high relative value built into the 30x3-, 30x3½-, and 31x4-inch Goodyear Tires in our Plant No. 2, the world's largest factory devoted to these sizes.

In addition to the larger sizes Goodyear builds, a daily production averaging 20,000 tires of these smaller sizes alone makes them easily available, regardless of the big demand, to owners of Ford, Chevrolet, Dort, Maxwell, and other cars taking these sizes.

If you are one of these owners, go to the nearest Goodyear Service Station Dealer for these tires, and for Goodyear Heavy Tourist Tubes. He carries a stock.

30x3½ Goodyear Double-Cure Fabric, All-Weather Tread... $23.50

30x3½ Goodyear Single-Cure Fabric, Anti-Skid Tread... $21.50

Goodyear Heavy Tourist Tubes are thick, strong tubes that reinforce casings properly. Why risk a good casing with a cheap tube? Goodyear Heavy Tourist Tubes cost little more than tubes of less merit. 30x3½ size in water-proof bag... $4.50
