State Superintendent Churchill, it is reported, has been asked to furnish the photographs of the most beautiful woman in the State of Oregon. That gives Tillamook county a chance to get in the limelight again. We do not envy Mr. Churchill his job, however.

There was a strike in the city on Tuesday, when the two young ladies who were employed in the Herald office, refused to work and walked out, the cause of which it seems was that C. E. Trombley had employed a printer at McMinnville to operate the type setting machine.

J. B. Hamilton and V. L. Forrey, of Portland, were in Tillamook for about a week, leaving Monday. They are planning to build a saw mill on the north fork of the Nehalem river. If all the proposed sawmills are built in the county, there will be quite an increase in the output of lumber.

Chas. Faqua is planning to go over into Tillamook county this spring to remain. His residence here, which is one of the best in the city is for sale, or rent, if it is not sold. Mr. Fupa's brother Amos, and family who reside in Tillamook City, are well satisfied with things in the dairymen's city.—Williamina Times.

A. F. Long shipped in a carload of thorough bred Jersey cattle last week to be sold at private sale at Dr. Reedy's Cattle Exchange. Dr. Reedy also has a bunch of very nice cattle, about fifty in all. One cow especially, Upland Daisy, a thoroughbred Jersey, imported from the Jersey Islands is worth over a thousand dollars.

Members of the Jersey Cattle Club please remember the date, April 15—when the club will meet at Fairview hall. Watch your next week's paper for a program of the Jersey Jubilee, which will start from Portland, in the afternoon, on May 3rd, and disband at some convenient place up the valley, on the afternoon of May 6th.

Miss Burrows has been carrying on home service work since she came here, and she has been successful in accomplishing a good many things for ex-service men.

Friday afternoon, about five o'clock, the Cloverdale stage collided with Jack Stienback's Ford, breaking a spoke or two in one of the wheels of the Ford, and the body was bent up considerably, that being the only damage done. However the Ford drove off as if nothing happened. The accident occurred across the street from the Fruit Palace.

The Ladies' Guild of the Presbyterian Church met Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. David Kuratli. Fifteen ladies were present and spent a very pleasant afternoon, at the close of which, Mrs. Hill assisted Mrs. Kuratli in serving dainty sandwiches. The next meeting place will be at the home of Mrs. Frank Hadley, April 20th, and all friends are invited to meet with the Guild.

On Monday night the council entered into a contract with the Stutz Fire Engine Company for a triple combination pump, chemical and hose truck with a pumping capacity of 800 gallons per minute. The machine is to be delivered within 90 days and will cost $12,000. E. R. Campbell, the agent assured the fire boys that he would have it here before the 4th of July.

Somebody borrowed a scraper, a single tree and log chain from Nels Hanson's new home north of town two weeks ago and have failed to return them. This is to advise those who took these articles to return them at once, for the owner does not want to swear out a complaint against the parties and have them sent to the state penitentiary with thieves, murderers and all kind of tough criminals.

Over 100 cadets of Hill Military Academy will go to Fort Stevens on April 15 for a three days' visit in the barracks. The boys will be accompanied by Colonel W. H. C. Bowen, U. S. A., and by Joseph A. Hill, president of the academy. In the three companies will be boys from Washington, Idaho, Montana and Oregon. Lee Stephens, Errol Haltom and Magnus Woolley, of Tillamook will be in "the bunch."

The many friends of Geo. L. Davis, formerly chief engineer of the P. R. & N., will be pleased to learn that he is now president of the Idaho, Nevada and Tidewater railroad, a proposed railroad from Twin Falls, Idaho, Filler, Buhl, Castleford, Contact, to a junction with the Southern and Western Pacific at Wells, Nevada. Writing from Twin Falls, he wished to send his kindest regards to his friends and acquaintances in Tillamook County.

Professor Westover was in from Corvallis last week to attend the meeting of the Cow Testing Ass'n., which met Wednesday to elect new officers. Joe Donaldson was made president, John Shields, vice-president, and F. K. Blackadar, secretary and treasurer. They are very anxious to get all the dairy herds in the county this year, as there is a yearly loss of one million dollars throughout the county, because the owners are not in the association.

The fact that the Whitney Company has now a railroad running from Idaville to a point up Kitchin river was brought forcibly to the attention of a young Nehalemite a few days ago. On his way to Tillamook, either he did not see the locomotive, or thought it was merely an optical illusion, for he tried to go through it as if it were a mere shadow. Result, broken lamps, radiator and fenders on the automobile. Evidently the engine doesn't care a snap for all the Fords and automobiles that try to push it off the track.

On April Fool's day someone called Clark Embum on the telephone and fooled him. He was sore so he called Central and gave her a piece of his mind for having given the other party his number. "Central" happened to be Mrs. Bob Driscoll, and the words Clark used happened to be very ungentlemanly, so Mrs. Bob told her hubby, who went straight-wagon to Wagner's cigar store where Clark was, and punched his face for the show case, besides a fine of $25. Measures are being taken against Embum, and the outcome of his trial will be in the next issue.

At a recent meeting of the local board of education re-elected teachers for the coming school year. At the present date all have not signified whether or not they will return. Those who have definitely decided not to return are the Misses Clark, Graham, Scheider and Bennett. Most of the others will return. The board decided to adopt a minimum wage for teachers with two years normal training, at $120 per month, for the grades, and in the High School a minimum of $133 per month for college graduates. These amounts were based on the schedule adopted by the Oregon States Teachers' Association.

E. C. Davis, principal of Utah Business College, and E. E. Franklin, master mechanic of the Utah Light and Traction Co., both of Salt Lake City, were in Tillamook for two days last week. They hiked for several miles into the woods at the Yellow Fir. Mr. Franklin has timber lands in that vicinity, and contemplates building a saw mill on it. This is Mr. Davis' first trip to this part of the country, also his first vacation in ten years, and they expect to spend two weeks at Portland and other places along the coast. He said "I never saw such healthy looking people in all my life, or people who ate more than the Tillamookers do." That is because we have so many good things in Tillamook to eat, Mr. Davis.

Have you seen the beautiful sterling silver cup in Henry Plasker's window? It is the trophy offered by Mr. Hemphy, of the Marshall Wells Hardware Co., to the best shot in the Tillamook Gun Club. They are to go to Portland and shoot once a month for four months, the man making the highest score winning the cup. Burr Beals Jr., says there is no use for anyone else to try, as he has it "copped" already, and Alva Williams doesn't agree with him, but, of course you can never tell a speck about it. Someone said that E. M. Condit's shooting was a great deal better at Portland than here at home. If that's so we're mighty glad he showed off out there. Henry Plasker says that he has found the Spaulding Building he is now ready to shoot, so look out, everybody else!

Attention Dairymen.

I can use any number of the following breeds of heifer calves, for which I will pay a good price, Holsteins, Guernseys, Durham or Jerseys, these calves must be distinctive of their breed, as it is impossible for me to dispose of these calves showing other blood than that which is represented. I can also use a few good Durham bull calves. If you live in the South or North end of the county, send the calves along and I will remit upon receipt of same.

Smith "The Calf Man."

Tillamook Ten Commandments.

1—Thou shalt not knock; boast rather with all thy might. If thou dost not like to live in Tillamook, move out quickly I pray thee; if circumstances will not permit this have the grace to keep thy mouth shut. Verily there is no better town than Tillamook even unto the ends of the earth. If thy head is sore amputate it or take it to a more congenial climate for treatment. It is better for Tillamook to dispense with thy superior wisdom and the honor of thy presence, than thou shouldst be like unto a dead fly in a jar of peaches, or a tack in a new shoe, or a long curly hair in the butter. The Lord loveth a booster, but a knocker verily he hateth.

Second commandment next week; subject cheese.

Adopted from "Home Lads." Rev. McLea.

Tillamook County Creamery Association in New Quarters.

Carl Haberlach reports that last week he and Mr. Claussen were too busy moving into the new quarters in the I. O. O. F. building to talk cheese. The association has fitted up rooms 106-7-8 and 9 and think they now have the best offices in the county. When asked about cheese production and prospects at this time Mr. Haberlach said:

"The market continues firm and active on Tillamook triplets and long horns. We have again resumed shipping to Los Angeles, shipments to date being three cars. The eastern people have been cutting prices on off grade cheese, a lot of their storage cheese being sold at from 14c. to 18c. the lb. Most of this cheese was made with excess moisture, in some cases over forty per cent moisture, then the cheese was boxed and shipped direct from the hoops. Naturally this has brought a lot of grief to cheese makers and hurt the whole industry. No one wants any sour whey cheese. They probably have learned their lesson.

"Our production is considerable larger than 1919. To the first of April we made 9,783 boxes, against 7,960 last year, a gain of 1,823 boxes, or 23 per cent. We hardly expect this increased production to keep up, unless we happen to have a good grass year.

"We are now copyrighting our brand and this will stop any one else from putting the name 'Tillamook' on their cheese to imitate us. The dairymen would not hesitate to prosecute anyone that tries to imitate our method of putting the name on the rind. They can put Tillamook on the cheese in some other manner if it is made in Tillamook, but we do not expect anyone else to sell their cheese on our reputation. Consequently we warn others to cease and desist. Our method of trade marking our cheese has been a great asset in getting our high prices."

County Interchurch Conference.

The county interchurch conference to be held at Tillamook, on April 10 and 11, is in reality a community affair," said Rev. H. E. Tucker, the county convener who is in charge of the meeting for this county. "It is going to be simply a get together meeting of the Protestant churches, at which they will talk over their common problems and common aims. They will also examine the question of making the church, as a whole, a more vital medium in the various communities in this county.

"The task which the churches set before themselves is a public and a social task. The welfare and activity of the church is one of the most important of community undertakings, and the working together of the Protestant denominations, as exemplified in the Interchurch World Movement signalizes the mobilization of Christian forces for a thorough-going and large scale treatment of these tasks. The addresses to be given at the county conferences will enable everyone to visualize more clearly and in concrete terms just what the churches' problems are, and thus enable us all to prepare for a direct and vigorous application of Christian principles to definite local issues.

"The financial campaign, the last week in April, is for the raising of a budget to meet needs which already have been examined and classified. The total interchurch budget represents the sum of the different denominational budgets. The county conference will bring home to the people of this county just what the interchurch movement means to do, as the Oregon conference at Portland brought home to the pastors of this territory, the purpose of this world project."

Saturday evening at 7:30, then Sunday three big meetings 11 a.m., 2 p.m. and 7:30 p.m. at the Christian Church. This is educational. Do not miss it. You want to know and these men will tell you in great messages.

The First National Bank has a new form of drafts—they are food drafts, issued under the American Relief Administration, which enables persons in the United States to send food to relatives in some of the foreign countries, such as Hamburg, Vienna, Warsaw, Budapest and Prague, which have branch offices in Poland and Czechoslovakia. The First National Bank has already sold a number of these food drafts to persons in this county who have relatives in Europe.

City Buy Fire Engine.

The City Council met Monday evening to accept bids for the fire engine. A contract was signed for the Stutz machine, costing $12,000, and having a capacity of 800 gallons. P. motor, $9,853; The American La France Fire Engine Co., Elmira, N. Y., 750 gal. capacity engine, $12,500, 1000 gal. capacity engine, $13,000.

The opening of tenth street was deferred until further investigation of the matter, and the bills were allowed, being no further business the meeting adjourned.

Excellent Role for Famous Star in Picturization of W. R. Chambers' Novel.

Irene Castle, internationally famous dancer and motion picture star, will be seen for the first time as a Famous Player-Lasky star in an adaptation of Robert W. Chambers' popular novel "The Firing Line." It will be shown at the Gem Theatre next Tuesday, April 13.

Mrs. Castle recently returned from England where for seven months she worked in American and British hospitals. During her stay in England she appeared by command before the King and Queen on one occasion and on another gave a performance at the welcome entertainment accorded Gen. Joffre on his visit to London. A nervous breakdown compelled her to give up her work there, but on her recovery she began work on the paramount Arterial special picture, "The Firing Line."

"The Firing Line" first appeared in serial form in the Saturday Evening Post in the early part of 1907. It proved one of the most popular magazine stories at that time and a year later was published in book form.

An excellent company appears in support of the star, Robert V. Steele playing opposite the star.

Loyal Scout Fire Fighters.

The Loyal Scout Fire Fighters in the name adopted by the public spirited boys who have organized to prevent loss by fire in Tillamook City. Their names are: Kenneth Conover, William Campbell, Vern Christensen, Ernest Dodge, Frank Erickson, Merle Frisbie, Edwin Glad, Sidney Hart, James Harrison, Sheldon Johnson, Eugene Jeffries, Wade Jenkins, Lloyd Johnson, Marion Lamb, Carl Leach, Jack Moore, Kenneth Mahan, James Petty, Gordon Shartel, Walter Severance, Paul Todd, Carl Woolfe and Walter Zeller. When the first meeting was held only 6 boys were present, but at the last meeting 23 were there.

These boys are between the age of 12 and 16, and at their meeting Friday night, every one of them knew how to turn in a fire alarm, the street and house number where they lived, and the nearest water hydrant to their homes. How many grown people know these very important things in case of fire?

The next thing the boys are going to do is to locate every telephone in their neighborhood, not only the house, but the location of the telephone in the house so as to issue prompt alarms. It is to be hoped that the people will give them this information cheerfully. They will meet again with Chief Coates tomorrow night at the Christian Church basement at 7:30.

The Armenian Drive.

The campaign for funds for the war cursed throngs in Armenia is being waged throughout the United States, and Tillamook County is trying to do her share of it. In spite of the severe storm last Wednesday night Gloverdale raised $148.65; and the lodges and clubs of Tillamook are being asked to contribute. The Sunday School gave wholeheartedly to this work in November, and now it is up to the rest of the county to do its share, words come from the Relief Corps of Tillamook that they will try to raise $1.00 per member, and they have 90 members.

The country people, as well as those in the towns are asked to contribute, and a committee is being appointed, and a small amount allotted to each school district.

An Easter message to those who are making the Near East Relief Campaign a success:

When you lie down tonight, and the lights go out, a little child will come to you. Forbid it not, for of such are the fragile kingdoms of the Near East.

A rag if skin drawn tightly over poor little bones, sunken cheeks, nothing left but eyes—accusing baby eyes that plead with you. How comfortable are you! And this child— and thousands upon thousands more—dying in a war made wilder by Father slain, mother dragged to a Turk's harem! A Christian child, starving alone—and you a Christian—are you?

It is so far, and the sea lies between! The sea has no alibi for you or for me. It is just the window through which we have been watching the crucifixion of nations. We're present. We know. We have known all along. Every soul of us must say "yes" or "no" to the question: whether some child shall die. Anything else you do but pay and work, any explanations or excuses, means only one thing. No matter what words you use, the Recording Angel will write down your answer: "Let The Child Die!"

The Tusatila Club Meet.

The Tusatila Club met at the home of Romona and Wanda Haltom Friday evening, April 2nd. The business meeting was called to order by the president, the minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved. A committee was appointed to buy an Easter lily to put in the church. It was decided that one guest be invited at each meeting. The girls discussed helping to solicit for the Armenian drive. After the business meeting Georgia Mae Carlin played a piano solo and Cordelia Outfield gave a short talk on Armenia, both numbers were very much enjoyed. An old fashioned musical game was played in which Emma Groat won the prize, after which the girls hunted for Easter eggs. The hostess served refreshments which were enjoyed by all present. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Robinson, Camille Haltom and Mrs. Haltom. The club adjourned to meet at the home of Lucia and Muriel Wiley April 16.

The club met at the home of Mary LaMar Thursday evening March 19, instead of Friday as the girls wished to attend the debate. Each Saturday two members are going to decorate the church. After the business meeting Emma Groat played a piano solo and Wanda Haltom gave a short talk. A pleasant hour was spent in playing games, Ramona Haltom and Lillian Groat carrying away the two first prizes. The hostesses Georgia Mae Carlin and Mary Lamar served refreshments which were enjoyed by all present. The guests were Dr. and Mrs. Robinson, Mrs. Carlin and Mrs. Lamar. After spending a pleasant evening the club adjourned to meet at the home of Wanda and Romona Haltom.
