P. E. Hendenstrom was in Tillamook on business this week, from Seattle. He says that business was poor, that is, for him, as he sells hoisting machines, and the people of Tillamook don't seem to appreciate the dire necessity of installing a few of them. He says he likes the place, though and is coming again.

Give B. F. Jones a vote for secretary of state because he is a Coast county man and the Roosevelt Military Highway booster. His number is on the ballot. The snap shot man has known "Ben" for about 30 years, when he used to be a country editor, and attend the Oregon State Editorial Association meetings. We can highly recommend him for secretary of state.

The Roadmaster, John Carroll, has had new sign posts put up at all cross roads in the county. This is the first time that good ones have been provided, and they only cost the county one hundred and fifty dollars. He said that the price of them would be saved many times by the new people coming in who otherwise lose a great deal of time by getting on the wrong roads.

A special general election is to be held at the Fairview Grange hall on the 22nd of June for the purpose of determining whether certain land in Fairview precinct shall be incorporated as a municipal corporation for the purpose of obtaining a supply of water for domestic purposes for its inhabitants and to elect five commissioners to carry out the purpose of the incorporation.

Marsh Burdick and Glen Terry were in Portland last week. While there they attended a picnic given by the Portland Fireman. Games were held, and different demonstrations of the fire fighting apparatus shown. They said that with the new engine that Tillamook was to have and the different equipment they would make a better showing than the firemen of Portland, which goes to show that Tillamook is right there in every thing.

Sunday afternoon, as he was returning home, Mr. Thacker, the foreman at the Wheeler mill, ran off the grade near Mohler, turning his car completely over. It fell down about fourteen feet, and the passengers were injured. The windshield, making new one necessary.

Will Hare has sold his ranch on the Kelchis river to Henry Landolt. Landolt will leave Tillamook about the first of July. They have not decided as yet where they will move to, but they will visit for awhile with their daughter, Mrs. Louis Anderson, at Montemano. Mr. Hare is recovering rapidly from his long siege of illness, but is greatly worried because he lost most of his beautiful brown hair, and fears that he will have to invest in a wig, or not come to town until it grows.

The Presbyterian Guild met Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. David Robinson. An enjoyable afternoon was spent at needle work, and every one present enjoyed the delightful program which was rendered by Mrs. Emmet Bales and Mrs. Allan McRea. A delicious luncheon was served to fourteen including the members and guests, by the hostesses, Mrs. Robinson and Mrs. E. T. Halton. The next meeting will be held in June, at the home of Mrs. W. L. Campbell, Mrs. S. A. Brodhead assisting as hostess.

Fire Chief Coates was in Portland last week, and while there he learned that J. Stevens, of San Francisco, will be in Portland in a few weeks, and that he would be glad to come over to Tillamook if he were invited. At the request of Mr. Coates, the Council sent him a formal invitation to visit Tillamook. The Fire Department is planning on big things for the future, and they expect to have their new apparatus and have the stations painted up and everything new and shining by the time Mr. Stevens comes.

E. F. Rogers received about six hundred gallons of gasoline Saturday evening. There was a crowd of people in front of the garage that made one think of the good old days when the circus came to town. This gas lasted about two hours, that is, until every one had a little bit in a pint can, or a quart or two in their cars. If this keeps up long, and gas at forty and fifty cents a gallon, Johnny will have to take Susie and ride 'em, and old Lubbin won't get to lead such a retired life as he has heretofore.

The Tillamook boys took revenge for former beatings at the hands of the Wheeler ball team by drubbing the boys from the northerly port 18 to 8, on the local Fair grounds ball park last Sunday afternoon. Manager Howard Edwards, of Tillamook, has a likely looking bunch of seasoned veterans in the baseball team and with a good battery will give all comers a run for their money this season. Dick Donovan and Carl Heisel performed exceptionally well during the opening Sunday, letting the Wheeler boys down with a few hard hits. Wallace, Eberman, Gabriel and Crimmins make a dandy, peppy infield, and with Driscoll, McClellan, Himes and a couple of good substitutes, the baseball year now looks as if it were going to be prosperous all around.

Woodmen of World Convention

The Third District Convention Woodmen of the World met Wednesday morning in the W. O. W. hall in this city, when Attorney Joseph Mannix of this city, was appointed temporary chairman; R. L. Wann, Vine Maple Camp, was elected temporary secretary. L. H. Fletcher, of Salem, and P. J. Philpott, of Albany, and M. B. Cooper, of Oregon City, were appointed as committee on credentials.

L. E. Mize, of Albany, E. R. Simlance, of McMinnville, and A. N. Wallace, of Silverton, were appointed as committee on organization.

E. A. Carlson, of Sheeds, Frank Matthews, of Tillamook, and M. Kraxberger, of Astoria, were appointed a committee on resolutions. Committee on organization reported at the afternoon session, when the temporary officers were made permanent.

J. J. Longcor, of Salem, John Smith, of McMinnville, and A. C. Winney, of Corvallis, were appointed a committee of condolence.

The resolution committee reported: "Whereas the growth and prosperity of the Woodmen of the World has caused our order to be known as the leading fraternal society of this country, and

"Whereas this growth and prosperity has been phenomenal during the past term in the face of war and epidemic, and

"Whereas we believe that our present standing and reputation is due largely to the efficient leadership of our chief executive Head Consul, L. I. Boak, therefore "Be it resolved that we, the Representatives of the Third District, in regular convention assembled, do hereby commend and endorse the administration of our esteemed Head Consul L. I. Boak."

Another resolution was: "Whereas, the W. O. W. stands for the protection of the homes and education of the children of its members, and

"Whereas, one of the great issues before us today is the protection of our schools and institutions of higher education, now be it.

"Resolved by the W. O. W. of the Third District of Oregon in convention assembled, that we endorse the movement now on for better schools and the protection of our schools, and institutions of higher education, and

"Be it resolved, that a copy of these Resolutions be spread upon the minutes of this convention and a copy be given the Press of Oregon."

Both resolutions were adopted.

Tom Tyndel, Louis Viereck, O. L. Donaldson and Frank Matthews were elected delegates to the Head Camp session, the four receiving the next highest votes will be alternates.

Dallas and Oregon City were placed in nomination at the meeting place of the next district convention and Dallas was selected.

On motion of L. Viereck, a vote of thanks was extended to Tillamook and the citizens of Tillamook for their courtesy extended to the visiting delegates. A rising vote of thanks was tendered to Chairman Mannix and Secretary Wann.

The Condolence committee submitted a report, which was adopted and then the convention adjourned.

There were about 100 delegates and others who attended the convention, Wednesday evening a banquet was given the visitors at the K. P. hall, covers being laid for 150. This proved a very interesting event with a good many fine speeches complimenting Tillamook for its hospitality.

It was the intention of the local camp to take the visitors over the county, but this could not be done as the delegates were anxious to get back home in time to vote.

All members of Corinth Post are hereby detailed to visit the Public Schools of this County, in their vicinity, for patriotic exercises, at 1:30 p. m., Friday, May 28, 1920, and especially at Bay City, W. B. Flagg, Joseph Royal, and Mat Maroney, at Cloverdale, Job C. Forster, James Atkinson, at Tillamook High School, C. N. Drew, Samuel Downs, H. W. Spear; at Tillamook Grammar Grade School, Harry Lamar, Joseph Parrazo, J. S. Diehl.

Ladies of Corinth Corps will join the Comrades at the Schools.

Please do not put on U. S. flags on the grave of any one but a dead soldier, as it causes too much confusion. We are told that some years ago the Bay City Cemetery was fagged beforehand, for Decoration Day, and when the next day the flowers came, Decoration Day morning, every grave sported its flag and as many soldier graves were not otherwise identified; very few were decorated at all. Of course, special flags and colors are all right and every one who has a dear friend should put flowers on that grave.

If the Roster of dead soldiers of Tillamook County is complete of the thing after the holiday; otherwise not until apparently correct. Then, if it can be made more accurate, that will be done and copy filed. Its future value all depends on its accuracy, and every one who can add a mite to that should do so.

Programs for Memorial Day will be found in next week's Tillamook paper.

All soldier graves should be flagged by Saturday, May 29th.

By order of Commander, H. W. Spear, Adjutant, Samuel Downs.

Odd Fellows News.

All members who did not attend Lodge last meeting missed one of the best meetings of the year. Eight candidates were instructed in the mysteries of the first degree, and the second degree will be conferred at the next meeting, one more application for membership by transfer was received and more are coming. How many applications have you in view? Get busy and see how many new members you can bring into the Lodge this year. Remember your Secretary has set the mark nothing short of 100 new members added to our membership this year will satisfy him. So get busy and do your part. The goods are waiting. Go after them. The more new members we get, the more new members the Rebekahs and Encampment gets. They have to start as Odd Fellows first and you know when you get a fellow to join the Lodge who believes in the principles of Odd Fellowship, and practices the lessons he receives in the Lodge room, he is the better man and neighbor for it. Those who do not follow the teaching, do not live up to their obligations. If you are one of those come to Lodge, and renew your oath.

Several W. O. W. delegates, being also Odd Fellows, visited our Lodge last Tuesday. They are Odd Fellow Boosters. You should have heard them.

All camp members are requested to meet at the next session, May 28, at the K. P. hall for the benefit of the endowment fund.

All Odd Fellows are requested to meet in the I. O. O. F. hall Monday morning at 9 o'clock to take part in the Memorial Day Exercises in connection with the G. A. R. and other lodges.

Grand Lodge delegates start for Baker, Sunday, May 23, so if you have not subscribed your $5 to the endowment fund, do it now, or your name will not be recorded in the grand lodge records, and this fund will probably be expected to be raised as soon after as possible. Send your subscription to R. W. Watson or Chas. Bennett before Saturday noon, May 22, or if you can not do better, leave it with your secretary.

If you have 25c. to spare the secretary is instructed to collect that amount from each member toward the county convention which meets in Wheeler soon. They go to Wheeler to the Odd Fellows convention, and get $25.00 worth of Odd Fellowship for your quarter and be happy for once.

E. Heusser was nominated for N. G. Sollie Smith, J. M. Wilson and Geo. P. Winslow, V. G. F. F. Conover, See; and R. W. Watson, Treas. Come and see the election.

Shakespeare Club Meets.

The Shakespeare Club held its monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. David Robinson Friday afternoon. About ten members and seven guests were present. A social afternoon was spent at fancy work, and the Fifth Act of Antony and Cleopatra was read, after which refreshments were served. The table was tastefully decorated with purple violets, and a novel scheme was used to arrange the seating. Quotation from Shakespeare were written on paper, then cut in two. The first part of the quotations were passed around. Each person chose a slip of paper and found her seat by matching it with the quotation on the table. Every one had a delightful time, and at the close of the afternoon adjourned to meet next month with Mrs. W. J. Reichers.

Dancing Party

A very enjoyable evening was spent by all those present at the dancing party given by Carlisle Stranahan, at his home Friday evening, May 14th. Dancing, refreshments and music were the main features of the evening and it seems as if the belle of the affair, Miss Betty Lantz, violinist, Miss Edna Small, pianist, Arthur Anderson, who played the clarinet and Clare Small and Arthur Harris the saxophones, rendered selection which were received by a very delighted and appreciative audience.

The guests were: Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Shultz, the Misses Blanche Harris, LaVerna Holden, Betty Lantz, Violet Glaisyer, Martha Crank, Grace Jolliffe, Edna Small, Retta Goodspeed and Naomi Scheidler, and the Messrs. Clarence Anderson, Clare Small, Arthur Harris, Arthur Anderson, James Sharp, Peter Gabriel, Archie Pyle, Clarence Gabriel, Rodney Farley, Ogden Moulton and L. A. Beltz.

Another Jury List Drawn.

The new jury list that was chosen Wednesday morning, May 19th, for the Circuit Court is as follows: J. H. Johnson, Tillamook, farmer. L. H. Kenney, Mohler, farmer. Fred Poorman, Tillamook, Garage. A. G. Beals, Tillamook, farmer. E. T. Halton, Tillamook, merchant. Charles Pike, Bay City, farmer. Grant Mills, Tillamook, clerk. S. A. Brodhead, Tillamook, carpenter. J. H. Ellison, Tillamook, farmer. Gus Wicklund, Tillamook, farmer. S. C. Larsen, Nehalem, laborer. P. D. Ott, Hebo, merchant. D. Fitzpatrick, Tillamook, farmer. D. Moon, Tillamook, Garage man. C. J. Edwards, Tillamook, Electrician. A. F. Gardner, Blaine, farmer. H. E. Howard, Nehalem, Merchant. Ross Chilcott Hebo, farmer. H. A. Miles, Woods, farmer. A. S. Coffey, Cloverdale, laborer. C. L. Doughney, Nehalem, farmer. L. V. Eberhardt, Tillamook, abstractor. C. F. Girard, Bay City, restaurant. A. E. Meyer, Hebo, farmer. C. I. Desmond, Hemlock, farmer. D. E. Brown, Tillamook, farmer. D. Kurath, Tillamook, banker. E. D. Hoag, Tillamook, farmer.

High School Notes

A student body meeting was called last Friday for the primary election of officers for next year. It was agreed upon by the students that the yell leader and editor be elected the second Monday after school opens next semester. Those nominated for officers are as follows: President: Clayton Hadley and Grace Jolliffe, Vice-president: Peter Gabriel, Secretary: La Verna Holden and Marie Geinger; Gen. Manager, Henry Becker, Sergeant-at-arms, Albert Viereck and Bill Anderson.

The nominees will be voted on next Friday.

Francis Shrode, who was a student in the Tillamook grammar school and who is now attending Salem Senior High School at Salem visited the High School last week.

At the Gem Theatre next Wednesday evening the class '20 will give a comedy skit entitled "A Lady's Note". Knowing the class as we do we are able to say this will be an evening well spent if you attend. Miss Graham, language teacher of the High School, is the supervisor for the Senior class. The Seniors have chosen some of the best singers in the student body to help in this feature. A group of "Chorus Girls" will be one of the main attractions.

Next Friday will be "exhibition day" for the grammar school and high. All work covered this year will be represented to a certain extent. Parents are requested to come and see the work that the average child has covered this year.

The attendance in the High School is normal again. It has been steadily increasing since the middle of the winter when so much illness prevailed throughout the county.

Mr. Cloyd Dawson, of this city, addressed the student body last Friday on the Higher Education Bill to be voted on May 21. The students are thoroughly convinced that if the people of Oregon do not pass this bill, Oregon's sons and daughters will not be able to gain a democratic education and no man can be successful in the business world without a higher education. Oregon will therefore "sink" in the commercial world. The students plead with the voters of Tillamook to consider this question and vote right.

H. C. L. Gets a Jolt.

Wood Prices Show Decline

The Tillamook Transfer Co., announces a cut in the price of slabwood, effective immediately which will be welcome news to the householder who is now preparing to pile up his winter supply.

They announce the following scale which is a radical reduction:

Slabwood	per cord	$5.50
Planer Ends	per load	4.50
Green Block	per load	3.50
16 inch dry wood	per load	6.00

Clean Carpets and Rugs

Clean carpets and rugs will be possible for residents of Tillamook. Within the next few days the "Hamilton-Beach" carpet washing machine which you have noticed advertised in the Ladies Home Journal and other magazines, will be operated in Tillamook for about two weeks. This electrical machine cleans and scrubs your carpets on the floor and at the same time dries them and puts them in use in an hour's time. Original colors are restored and your carpet or rug as clean and fresh as when it was new. All work guaranteed.

You furnish an electric light socket and the machine will do the rest. Charges very reasonable.

Mail your order and the approximate amount of work you want done and an expert operator will call and quote prices and advise you fully as to how this machine operates without taking your rugs or carpets off the floor.

Address M. Agard, care of Tillamook Headlight.

John Leland Henderson,
Administrator of said estate.

VOTE GOOD ROADS MAY 21

"We are in an orgy of extravagance," says Barney Baruch. In other words the administration started it, and now everybody's doing it.
