First National Bank of Portland, Oregon, vs. F. A. Rowe, Walter Hidden, Ellis Hidden, D. R. Groves, J. A. Jensen and David Clay, partners doing business under the firm name and style of "Jensen Shingle Co." is a suit filed in the circuit to recover $350.00 on a promissory note with $150.00 attorney's fees.

Steve Schovell, of Beaverton, was called to Tillamook last Friday by the death of his daughter, Mrs. Naomi Corder, who had died at the Boals hospital after an unsuccessful operation for appendicitis. The body was shipped to Nehalem, Saturday, for burial in Nehalem cemetery, which took place Sunday.

Mrs. Rachel Mishler of Albany, was here for a week visiting with her daughter, Mrs. E. G. Lanz. She left Tuesday for Oregon City, where she will visit for a time with her granddaughter. She and Mr. and Mrs. Lanz spent Sunday at Bay-Ocean, and report having had a delightful time.

J. S. Hall, of Portland, returned Wednesday after having spent a few days here on business. This was his first trip here in two years. He had just returned from an extended trip through Coos county, and he says that this county has a very much better future before it than Coos county, as, among other things, it is so much closer to markets.

In the case of Adolph Erickson vs. Clatsop County, which was tried in the Clatsop County court last week the plaintiff received the thirty thousand dollars damage that he asked for. He had had a contract with the county to do a certain amount of road work, which was given to another party and then charged up to him.

James Langman and L. M. Krauer were in the city last week from Cloverdale. Mr. Langman having bought the Cloverdale Telephone Co.'s business from Mr. Krauer, and took over the same. Mr. Langman is an ex-service man and was 19 months in France with the United States army, being connected with wireless service.

Gerald Oscar Tittle, the six year old son of Oscar Tittle, who died Monday morning at the Boales hospital, after having undergone an operation for appendicitis, was buried at the I. O. O. F. cemetery, Thursday. The funeral was held at the home, at Fairview, Rev. Tucker, of the Christian church officiating, and the Fairview Grange, conducting the services at the grave.

Tucker performed the ceremony in the presence of Mr. and Mrs. Barber, the sister and brother-in-law of the groom. The couple are well known in and about Tillamook, and have the best wishes of their friends and acquaintances. They will make their home here in town.

The funeral of Frank Oliver, who passed away last Saturday, after a short illness, was held Sunday afternoon at the Undertaking parlors. The Odd Fellows had charge of the services, and a short talk was made by Rev. G. O. Oliver, of the Methodist church. Interment was made in the I. O. O. F. cemetery. The deceased leaves a wife, several brothers and a sister to mourn their loss, also a great many friends.

A cow and calf owned by J. J. Rupp of Tillamook county sold at the International Stock show in Portland, for $2,100, and recently the cow was sold in St. Paul for $5,000 and the calf for $2,500, a total of $7,650. A pretty good price for a cow and calf; a banquet for Tillamook county as well as for Mr. Rupp. This is the best kind of an argument for buying blooded stock. - Tillamook Times.

A party consisting of Mrs. May Tatom, of Tacoma, Wash., Mrs. Henry Gilliam, of Perrydale, Or., and Mrs. Stanley Edgar, of Croley, Or., were in town last week visiting with friends and relatives. This was their first trip to the county in over twenty years, and they certainly were glad to get back. All three of the ladies lived here when girls, and they have many friends in the county. They left Sunday after having stopped at Wheeler, Nehalem, Mohler and Bay City.

The Loyal Daughters class of the Christian Church will hold a lawn social Thursday evening, June 24th, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ira C. Smith, three blocks south of the school house, across from the Pacific Soda works. The Smith lawn is a beautiful place for any thing like that, and as the evening will be beautiful, no doubt, as there is to be a full moon, and as the girls are to sell ice cream, punch and strawberries, there will be a large crowd, so come early and avoid the rush.

The Presbyterian Guild met Tuesday afternoon, June 15, at the home of Mrs. H. C. Boone, with Mrs. Eastman acting as assistant hostess. The decorations, also the program, which was planned by Mrs. Lamar, were very appropriate for Flag Day. After having spent an altogether charming and pleasant afternoon the members and guests adjourned to meet again the first Tuesday in September. A year book will be prepared and delivered to all members before the next meeting.

Belle Atterbury, of Gresham, was over to spend Saturday and Sunday of last week with her friend, Margaret Gould, returning Monday. She motored over by the Grand Ronde road and says they are very good. This was Miss Atterbury's first trip to the coast and very first peep at the ocean. She thinks it is the most wonderful sight that she has ever seen. She and Miss Gould spent Sunday at Rockaway and had a delightful time, in spite of the rain. She is coming back next month to stay for some time.

At the special election on Tuesday, called for the purpose of voting on the question whether a water district should be established at Fairview for domestic purposes, the result of the election was decidedly in favor of doing so, 39 voting yes and 3 no. The three receiving 20 votes each will have to draw.

A meeting of the newly elected republican county central committee is called for at one o'clock on Saturday at the Court House when the committee will organize and elect a county chairman, as well as state and congressional committeemen. Frank Paul was chairman of the committee, elected two years ago and on Saturday. There are eleven precincts which did not elect committeemen and the new committee will make appointments, as it is the intention to have a live county committee to take hold of the county, state and presidential campaign next fall.

In regard to an article printed in this paper a few issues ago concerning the closing of the Mohler school, and that one of pupils who received a grade of one hundred per cent in the Physiology test, being the only one in the county having a perfect score, we wish to correct the error, as there were several others. Cora Pike and Lillian Be Atley, of the sixth grade of Bay City had perfect papers. In a class of ten, two had perfect papers, three received grades of 99 per cent and all others grades of ninety-five per cent, with the exception of one, who received ninety-one per cent.

Fire Chief Coates received a letter last week from E. R. Campbell, President of the Campbell Fire Apparatus Co. of Portland, saying that the Stutz Fire engines ordered by Tillamook had been shipped from Cincinnati, Ohio, on the twelfth of this month and that it should come through without delay, as there was a man coming with it. The switchmen's strike handicapped the delivery and the factory was forced to work day and night to get the machine on board before the 15th of the month. He says that it is a beautiful job and that Mr. Coates will be very proud of it when it gets here.

W. B. Pollock and H. C. Pollock and family, of Seattle, Wash., were here last week visiting with Mrs. Jess Kennedy of this city and E. J. Keller, of Beaver. They drove down in their car, and W. B. Pollock returned on the train, leaving Saturday, the rest going back later in the car. In an interview H. C. Pollock said, "I want the people of Tillamook to know that their roads are a race tracks compared with the roads around Seattle." He said that this was his first trip here since 1903, and he said that the town sure had changed, and for the better in every way. He likes it here very much, and says it won't be another seventeen years before he comes again.

William Henderson, or "Bill" as he likes to be called, returned to Tillamook Monday, after an absence of about a year and a half. He spent a year in the Merchant Marine, shipping from Seattle to Charleston, England, and has for the past five months been attending the Washington High School in Portland. He said that the Merchant Marine was all right, but that he wasn't very much in love with it, especially his job, which was in the stoke hole, with the atmosphere at 150 degrees, and we don't blame him a bit either. He will spend the summer here with his father, attorney John Leland Henderson. There is one good trait about "Bill," he has paid his way through school and never asked his dad for a cent.

Thief Gets Only Eight Dollars

Fred Ringle woke up Monday morning with a hunch that something had happened Sunday night, and when he rushed down to his place of business, the Elkhorn Pool Hall, he found that someone had relieved him of eight dollars and forty cents while he slept. Sunday night sometime between eleven and two o'clock some one broke in the back window and opened the safe and turned out the electric light, took the silver and then departed by the way of the front door. No one knows for certain who he was, but he imagine he swore softly to himself on finding only eight dollars, and we would advise him not to go to so much trouble next time, for it really isn't worth it, especially if he is caught. And another thing, we wonder where the night watchman was. He said that he had gone past there and had noticed that the place was dark, but hadn't stopped to come across the street and find out what was the matter. The door had been left ajar.

Eight Persons Narrowly Escape Death.

Monday afternoon 8 persons narrowly escaped death as the Oldsmobile Eight in which they were returning from Netarts plunged over the bank and down about five feet, turning completely over three times. The occupants were thrown out, which was lucky for them, as the car was badly smashed up when it struck the ground. Dr. Boals was called, and upon examination he found that no one was seriously injured, with the exception of Mrs. Ed Kellow, who sustains a broken arm and internal injuries, the others being badly bruised up. They were removed to the Boals hospital, where they are rapidly improving.

The accident occurred at Hoag grade, about 3 miles west of town, on the Netarts road, and the supposition is that it was caused by speeding. At any rate, the car was heavy and going rather fast and as it turned the curve became out of the driver's control and plunged over the grade.

The occupants of the car were; Mrs. Herman Farmer, Mr. and Mrs. Jess Kennedy, Mrs. Ed Kellow and the Rhodes family of Seattle.

Sheridan Band Here Saturday.

The Graves Canning Co. Girl's Band, of Sheridan, will be in Tillamook Saturday, June 26th, and will hold a concert early in the afternoon. In the evening they will also hold a concert in the city hall, charging 50 cents admission. Solos, readings and vocal solos will also be rendered, and after the concert they will play at the dances in the K. P. Hall.

The band consists of thirty-six pieces, and all the members are girls who are employed by the Graves Canning Co., whose headquarters are in Sheridan, having a branch house in Woodburn, Brownsville, Sherwood and Tillamook. Roy Graves organized the band in January 1919, and since then it has made wonderful strides toward improvement and development. Last week the band played at the Multnomah Hotel, and last fall they appeared at the Seward Hall, and other hotels in Portland, playing before several hundred easterners. Every place the girls have been they have received the highest praise and favorable commendation. As the girls wear a uniform of blue and white they have been nicknamed the "Sheridan Blues." Everyone should make an effort to come out Saturday afternoon and evening to hear them.

Wm. Farnum in Striking New Role

In nothing that he ever did on stage or screen has Wm. Farnum given a more convincing demonstration of his versatility than he gives in "Heart Strings," the Fox production which appears on the screen next Tuesday, June 29, at the Gem Theatre. The public, most familiar with Farnum as the robust, daring, fighting hero, here has him presented as a musical genius—not only a composer, but a wonderful master of the violin.

Here is a contrast as striking as it is effective, woven into a story of marvellous heart interest, yet thrilling throughout with the force of big dramatic moments. Mr. Farnum's performance is one of exquisite finish and tender appeal.

Kill Kare Klub.

The Kill Kare Klub met Thursday afternoon, June 17th, at the home of Mrs. Albert Plank, Mrs. Wm. Lewis being the assistance hostess.

The meeting was called to order by the president and roll call found a good attendance. The guests for the afternoon were; Mesdames J. H. Rosenberg, O. M. and H. F. Cook.

The following committee was appointed to decide and outline the study work for the Klub for the coming year: Mesdames Pennington, Edwards, Bales, Mason and Smith.

The entertaining committee consisting of Mrs. Alderman and Plank, gave the ladies a few stunts to perform and all those "looking on" enjoyed them immensely. Mrs. Edwards also gave a very interesting reading. The hostesses had planned a picnic on the river, which the weather did not permit, but everyone enjoyed the picnic eats just the same.

Klub adjourned to meet in September with Mrs. Conover and Mrs. Reedy.

A Slander Suit Filed.

Peter Schuecke vs. Otto Wismer is a suit filed in the circuit court to recover $2500.00 for using false scandalous, defamatory and slanderous words and language towards the plaintiff.

The complaint alleges that defendant, addressing plaintiff asked: "What did you do with that saw that went out of my woods?" "What saw?" replied the plaintiff. "You know—well you—well what saw it is, I want you to bring it back right away," said the defendant.

"Do you accuse me of stealing?" asked the plaintiff.

"Well not exactly stealing, but you know well where it is and I want you to bring it right back. Before you came here we did not lose anything, but after you came here we have been missing things every now and then," said the defendant.

"Well, if this is not accusing a person of stealing I would like to know what it is, and if you do not take this back before witnesses I will have you arrested," said plaintiff.

"Go ahead, I can prove that you took other things, and I am sure that you took other things, replied the defendant.

"Plaintiff claims that the slanderous statements were made with malice and wants $1000 actual damages, and for the further sum of $1,500 as punitive damages.

Child Kicked and Severely Hurt by Horse

The four year old daughter of John Naegli, who lives three miles east of town was kicked and hurt severely by a horse, Tuesday evening about six o'clock. The accident occurred in the barnyard, where the child and her older brother and sister were playing, and no one knows exactly how it was done, but the mother was alarmed by the little boy, who came running to her exclaiming that she was alarmed by the little girl, who was brought to Dr. Boals' hospital, where it was found that her left leg had been broken just below the knee, and the left side of her face badly mutilated, the cheek bone being broken, the forehead cut and the eye badly injured. As there were no internal injuries the parents and attendants feel confident of a speedy recovery.

Who is the chairman of the gas committee at the Dealer's Institute, of Portland, who is the chairman of the gas committee at the Dealers' Association, said that he was very sorry that there was a false report to that effect. He, in wiring the dealers to the state would naturally wire the Overland dealers first and leave it to them to let the other dealers know about it.

It has been decided to discontinue issuing cards for gasoline, but it is recommended that people be as economical as possible.

Hans Hanson Dies After Long Illness

Hans Hanson, who has been in very poor health for a long time, passed away in Portland, June 22nd, where he had gone on his way to Eastern Oregon, in search of improved health. The body was brought in Wednesday afternoon and the services were held this afternoon, Thursday, at 2 o'clock, at the Christian church, Rev. Tucker conducting the services. Interment was made in the I. O. O. F. cemetery, services at the grave were conducted by the Odd Fellows.

Restaurant Open At Rockaway.

The Elmore Annex Restaurant, next to the Elmore Hotel, is now open for the season. Chicken dinner served Sundays from 1 to 5 p. m. Special attention given parties on reservation. "Quality our Motto."

Pacific City Opening Day.

Next Sunday will be opening day at Pacific City, the principal feature will be an open air concert in the afternoon by Sheridan's Girl Band. This band is composed of thirty-six beautiful young women attired in attractive blue and white uniforms and are known as the "Sheridan Blues." These young women furnished music in the recent T. P. A. parade in Portland and at the Multnomah hotel and were highly complimented by the Oregonian and Journal.

Following the concert will be a visit to the beach and in evening a big clam bake will be staged in the camp grounds.

The Falconer orchestra will be in attendance and will furnish music at the Pacific Hall during the afternoon and evening.

Woman Run Over by Car.

Mrs. J. J. Stamper is in the Tillamook Bay Hospital at Bay City, badly crushed and will perhaps die as the result of having been run over by an automobile Wednesday afternoon, in Bay City.

The accident occurred late in the afternoon, in front of Provost's store. The woman, with her small daughter, had stepped from a truck into the road, and as another truck saw her it stopped to let her pass, and after the truck had passed on, the little girl broke from her grasp and ran into the middle of the street. The mother ran after her, without seeing the approaching car, which was driven by H. Z. Crawford, of Coal Creek, Nehalem. Crawford saw her too late to stop, so she and the child were both run down. The child was unhurt, but the car passed over the women's chest, crushing her. She was taken to the hospital immediately, but at the last report it was doubted very much whether she will live.

Fourth of July Celebration.

Everyone is planning on celebrating the Fourth in great style this year. The "doings" will be held at Rockaway, on Monday, July 5th, and a very capable committee has been in charge of the plans for the day. The Knights of Pythias eighteen piece band, of Tillamook will furnish the music. Another novel feature of the day will be the Liberty Girl, who will lead the parade. Two girls were chosen from each of the following cities: Tillamook, Wheeler, Rockaway, and three that have been chosen to compete with one another: Louisa Krebs, of Rockaway, Elsie Holmes, of Wheeler, and Harriet D. Ford, of Tillamook. Votes are on sale at different stores at five cents each. Be sure and go cast your vote for the girl from your home town. The contest closes Saturday, June 26th.
