Mildred Whan vs. John N. Whan is a divorce suit filed in the circuit court. These parties were married in Douglas county, Or., on the 21st of August, 1919. The complaint alleges cruel and inhuman treatment. and one month after the marriage the defendant deserted his wife and this compelled her to return to her Imported Guernseys Will Arrive family for support. The defendant wrote the plaintiff that he did not love her, that he never did love her, that he wanted her to obtain a divorce, that he would never live with her and with the exception of $25.00 that was all the support that she had received. The plaintiff asks the court to compel defendant to pay $30.00 per month, from the 30th of Sept, 1919, to compensate her relatives; $50.00 for costs and disbursements; $50.00 for the support of the plain- Cattle Exchange until the sale paper where this condition is not tiff and her infant child; and alimony of $50.00 per month.
