

THE CLOVERDALE BAPTIST CHURCH SQUABBLE.

"The Gates of Hell", a "Campbellite" And "Lying" Cause of Trouble.

The following letters were brought to this office last week, which will throw some light on the Cloverdale Baptist Church squabble.

Our machine operator was instructed to follow copy, and that accounts for the manner in which they appear in print.

The letter of Rev. R. Y. Blalock is not only interesting from a literary point of view—it being a peach—but it is alleged that the Cloverdale Baptist church went into an agreement with "one of the Gates of Hell", that a "campbellite" was elected to teach in the Sunday school, the preacher is accused of "lying," and there is accusations that "a name was forged to a certain letter."

Some reaction this, especially by persons who call themselves Christians and an ordained minister of the gospel.

The letters follow:

Feb. 22, 1920. Mr. J. A. Dawson, Tillamook, Ore. Dear Brother, Yours of the 18th received a few days ago. And you seem to be some what wrathful, and make some direct charges against me, that you can take your choice of with drawing, or prove them to the Church of Cloverdale. You Charge me of lying. I never charged you of that, I thought your information was false, and I think so yet. In your letter to Brother Moore and I you did not write like you wanted any information, you mad charges, and went on vilifying us. But First—you charge us of going into Union Xmas trees with one of the Gates of Hell? The Church of cloverdale never went into any union Xmas tree, the Sunday school decided not have any Xmas tree, and if the members wanted to, they were left to take part in the Community tree that was at the Presbyterian church house. My children two of them were learning Christmas pieces at the Public School, where the most of the Entertainment was gotten up. We taken no vote, in our Sunday school about a union tree. We to the Presbyterian minister that would have any tree, and our people that wanted to would join in Community Tree at his church, that week he put in the Enterprise. I guess what you refer to, I never saw it until it was published, My goldsworthy set it up, and if you would use right judgement, you could not accuse me of lying on wh/ another man says in my paper, as I said it. A lot of us went, My children recited I was pleased with it. It was no Church affair at all, I did not sin in it. But you set up there and Condemn us. Second—you charged us of going to law with sinners. And ask if we have ever got together, and tried to settle matters? We have our church meeting every second Saturday. The Church has been going a long doing its business according to the Scriptures. A committee of us sent a proposition to some of those who have not been going a long with the Church offering to leave certain questions to three men in five miles of Cloverdale, or three ministers in Middle Oregon. Association. You said we limited it to 5 miles of Cloverdale. We have two copies of our proposition.

Third—You ask who caused the trouble. Now when I drove a team and a horse balked, I always knew the horse that balked caused it. Well a few of the members balked from doing what they with the rest of the church voted for and started out to do. Now who caused the trouble, you can see. Fourth—you say in speaking of the vote to move up to Cloverdale—the first step to move was not league for you Brother Moore put the Question your self with out a motion or second? Now I was there I know and I am sure every member of the Church there would swear that that is not true for it was made and seconded and discussed and discussed whether to have "it some future tim" or not. your informant was wool gathered.

Fifth—you accuse us of electing a campbellite to teach in Sunday School I am the Supt. I know that is untrue, there has been no one elected but Baptist. If ever a Campbellite taught a lesson in the S. S. I never knew of it. Sixth—you charge us of having a Baptist Young peoples meeting, and Campbellites as leaders in it. There is A Christian Endeavor society. Meets just before Preaching, it is a society of the Church nor by the Church, it is separate and distinct. But if there were a campbellite member of it I could not see all the active members believe in angelicians and Baptist. Now Brother Dawson one More You have insinuated that a name was forged to a "certain letter" that is to this When you signed my name as Moderator, when we granted letters from Tillamook Baptist Church did you commit forgery. When the Church of Cloverdale, Voted Asking the Grange of Cloverdale for their Hall, and Webster Hudson was there and clerk of the meeting, but left before the meeting, was finely closed though he was there acting as clerk? You are or some one else hunting for something to Condemn your brethren. Now Brother Dawson I always have taken you for a man of good sound judgement. But you have made a slip in your judgement, you have heard from one side, I ask you my last letter to Not be to hasty. You without thought and accusing me of lying. I made mistakes, and may unintentionally not knowing it, tell something not the truth. But I do not wilfully lie. You must Bring the Proof or withdraw it or I shall ask the Church to investigate it if I have lied I will suffer the Consequence if you or some other member has and you came you have two whoos oath has not been impeached. Bring them up to the Church meeting Saturday March 13, at 2 P. M. And let the Church here it. Now do not Get mad and sit down and write something that will linger some one. "He that digs a pit shall fall there in" says the wise man. Who ever dug this pit you try to put Brother Moore and I in Must fall there in. May God bless you and lead you. Your brother in Christ, R. Y. Blalock.

Birds of a feather flock together and this is the plumage of one of cock birds, R. Y. Blalock, in any to the charges of having Camp. lite leaders in a Baptist young peoples society, says there is a the society not of the church or not, church, it is separate and inter but in the Nestucca Valley. R. Y. Blalock, edited and published a state-ment, according to his own state-ment under the heading "Campbellites", we find this "The Baptist will hold people's in the grange hall, there is there meeting, 7:15 p. m. announcement, any C. C. there in the meeting? and who is holding, H. Dawson.

NEHAL NOTES

Anah Steele Sunday for Nehalem, she will spend the summer months with the Cain family.

Minnie, of Tillamook, is visiting for a few days with her sister, Mrs. Ari York. We wonder what is the matter up at Nehalem? We hear from Minnie herself not long ago that she was married. Hasn't she told you yet?

Mr. Mrs. S. Larsen, accompanied by Marina and Katherina Clark, left for Seaside last Sunday. They were having a splendid time and report that the roads are good. Mr. Walker and Edith Thompson, of this city, were married a Tillamook, June 24. The young people are very popular with the people in this part of the country, and all their friends wish them a long and happy wedded life.

Mrs. M. L. White and son spent Sunday visiting with relatives in God's Valley.

CLOVERDALE CLIPPINGS

Work on the road between the cut off and the "Y" is progressing rapidly. When completed this will be a great improvement over the present road.

Preparations for the national celebrations are going along at a very rapid rate and "a good time" seems to be the slogan. The celebration will be held on Saturday and everybody is invited.

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Imah returned Sunday night from Portland, where they had been called by the serious illness of their daughter, Mrs. Arthur Freize, who had undergone a very critical operation recently. They report that she is improving.

Quite a number of our Rebekahs attended the County Convention which was held at Bay City the 22nd of this month. They report having had a splendid time, and that the convention was a success in every way. They voted that the Bay City Rebekahs were splendid hostesses. A joint convention of the Rebekahs and the Odd Fellows will be held at Tillamook, June 2, 1921.

The young boss of the Enterprise has quit. She applied for and landed a new job at Vancouver, Wash., June 29. She now signs her name as Mrs. John Imah. What do you think about it?

One of our most enterprising young men had a disagreement with a bulldog at Pacific City last Sunday, in which he came out second best. Numerous suggestions were forthcoming, but were turned down. After Garret had supplied a pair of trousers Lloyd didn't have to back off the scene like they do in the movies.

TOM CORWY ENTERTAINER

Remarkable Powers of Imitation Possesses and Mimicry.

He is a prince among entertainers. Tom Corwy fills every minute with telling laughter. All that he does fine. He imitates no one and is an imitate him successfully. no let Daily News says: "Tom Corwy has the most marvelous throat Ctenese. He is a living wonder.

possessing four distinct throats in one, so that he can make a concordance of sounds that no other voice has ever accomplished." He imitates birds, animals and mechanical contrivances with a perfection that is uncanny.

His humorous sketches are irresistibly laughable and have won for him a nation-wide reputation.

He appears in two programs on the fourth day of Chautauqua.

"POLLYANNA" TO BE PRESENTED

Pauline Lucile Mayo Gives Popular Play at Chautauqua.

No book or play of recent years has won more friends and admirers than Eleanor H. Porter's "Pollyanna." On the fifth afternoon of Chautauqua Pauline Lucile Mayo, one of the foremost readers and dramatic interpreters of the American platform, is to present this story of "the glad game" in monologue, portraying every character with the consummate artistry for which she is noted.

AUTHORITY ON SUPERVISED PLAY

T. Dinsmore Upton to Lecture at Chautauqua.

T. Dinsmore Upton, who is to present one of the most worthwhile lectures of Chautauqua week, was formerly Athletic Director at two of our largest cantonments. Before that time he was Superintendent of Municipal Playgrounds, Grand Rapids, Mich., and is rated as one of the foremost authorities on recreation in the country. Capt. Upton will give western audiences the story of things he has learned through many years of experience with youngsters. He will make you think deeper on the question of child health probably than you ever have before. He will leave with you a definite constructive message in his lecture "Recreation—the Maker of Men."

The Republican party and all the people of the United States are to be congratulated on the manner in which the Chicago convention solved the situation which confronted it. It was an open race. There were some hot, if not odds-on favorites, but every contestant ran on his merits alone and got the position at the finish to which his powers in competition entitled him. The common verdict is that "the best man won." —Pittsburgh Gazette Times.

LECTURE TRANSLATES LIFE EXPERIENCE

Sam Grathwell Knows Whereof He Speaks.

Sir Philip Sidney once said: "If a man would write poetry let him look into his heart and write." What is true of a poem is true of a lecture. With a real live struggle—in which he was often knocked down but never knocked out—what more natural than that Sam Grathwell, lecturer at Chautauqua on the second afternoon, should talk on "Getting by Your Hoodoo," a study of obstacles and how to overcome them.

Grathwell's story is not dry, nor filled with abstract theories, but a message of human interest straight from the heart. He knows the value of faith, hope, optimism and exalted ideals. He brings them to you with the enthusiasm of virile manhood and by force of his presentation impels you to accept them for your own.
