SATISFIED WITH TWO MEALS

Roosevelt Family, While on Vacation, Decided There Should Be No Un-necessary Dish Washing.

"Practical Politics" was but one of many subjects the late Colonel Roosevelt had made his own. His many-sided common sense approached nothing without going straight to the practical heart of it. In his inimitable letters to his children the chapter, "A President as Cook," gives an example of this, remarks the New York Evening Post. The letter is from "Fine Knot," the isolated little Virginia retreat where from time to time during their last years in the White House, and when in need of complete rest Mr. and Mrs. Roosevelt repaired, taking no servants with them. After descriptions of several meals of chicken fried by the president with appealing mention of beefsteak and corn-bread, bacon and eggs, also cooked by him—all interspersed with animadversions upon the Russo-Japanese war and the peace he was endeavoring to bring about—comes this: "As we found that cleaning dishes took up an awful time, we only took two meals a day, which was all we wanted." How the housewife's heart, specially in these without-a-cook-times, warms to that sentence! How true it is that "cleaning dishes" takes up "an awful time," and how practical the two-meals-a-day cure! Few families would endorse the cure, of course—it might be worse than impractical to establish it. And also, of course, the whole thing would be heresy from housewives themselves. But they relish the comfort of such distinguished sympathy.

GOAT ALWAYS GOOD FIGHTER

"Billy" Seldom Looks for a Scrap, but He Is Equal to It When Forced on Him.

"Mr. A. B. Fenwick related to me the particulars of a battle of two Indians, fifteen dogs and two horses with a billy goat that had wandered out upon Joseph's prairie, where Cranbrook, B. C., now stands," says Dr. William T. Hornaday in his article on "The Rocky Mountain Goat at Home," in Boys' Life. "The Indians thought that with their horses and dogs (but no guns) they could capture the goat alive. The goat thought otherwise. A little later a squaw says that they were having a bad mixup and ran out to the Indians with a rifle. One of them shot the goat. All but two of the dogs were killed on the spot, or died very shortly. It was with the greatest difficulty that the Indians saved their horses from getting punctured by those terrible little horns. "It is on record that a full-grown grizzly bear was killed by a full-grown billy goat while the bear was killing him. The dead bodies of the two were found only a few yards apart. "So you see, although the goat is deliberate in thought and in action, and wise in self-preservation, when the time comes to fight he is right on the job."

Chautauqua Saturday.

Got your ticket?
Tillamook's finest Chautauqua opens Saturday afternoon at 2:30 with the strongest male quartet ever presented by the E-W circuit. As an opening number it sets a high standard for the whole week and with Evelyn Bargelt, the famous Chicago Art Institute reader and artist, furnishes one of the most pleasing days in our Chautauqua history. Saturday is not just an opening day. It is one of the big days of the whole course.

Sunday, second day—the New York Artists Trio—every one a real artist. Ruth Beverly Cumming, operatic soprano; May Elizabeth Rees, violinist, known thruout the Chautauqua world and overseas in three great armies; Lowell Pattan, pianist and pipeorganist of Portland, Salt Lake city and New York, one of the pipe organists at the San Francisco Exposition. A wonderful program of music both afternoon and evening. Then Sam Grathwell, the peptimist, rapid-fire, straight-chitting, fearless lecturer in "Getting By your Hoodoo." Sam did it. Let him tell you how. In the evening that strange strong striking character, "Burns of the Mountains," who single-handedly faced the feudists and stopped feudings, banded built a monumental school, and open-handed gave twenty years income to finance it. A gripping thrilling story of one of America's great men.

Monday—The Morrison Girls in costume songs and readings of the old south, and in the evening Dr. Ng Poon Chew, the father of Chinese journalism in America, philosopher, statesman, financier and humorist. A brilliant, witty, international lecturer, authoritative, commanding, the man who knows China and America; invaluable to every thinking American.

Tuesday, Band Day. A splendid band of real Americans, not foreigners, who sing as well as play. An organization unique and capable giving two great programs and with the band the inimitable Corvine, polyphonic imitator, funster and entertainer. There is only one Corvine—nature did not repeat. The man with three throats who imitates all sounds naturally and realistically.

Wednesday, Fifth day—The great Dramatic day. J. Walter Wilson Co., interpreter, impersonator, Pauline Lucile Mayo, head of the Mayo School of Expression, monologist, reader of plays, in "Pollyanna," the "Glad Girl." Capt. T. Dinsmore Upton, of national fame as the superintendent of America's greatest system of Municipal Recreation Grounds, government advisor and superintendent of soldiers recreation and physical training. A real man and one of America's real orators with a real message.

6th Day. The Royal Philippine Sextette. Thirteen years in all parts of the world without change of personnel, famous in vaudeville, chautauqua, hotels, and roof gardens. A wonderful orchestra in the world's best and its newest music. Not Hawaiians. Infinitely superior. The finest great program by the Philippines will be remembered for years. They prelude for Kate Upon Clarke's "Mother of the Future" in the afternoon and give an hour and a half program at night.

Season tickets, $2.50 and war tax, $2.75 in all. Same as last year. Average 22c each program. Get your tickets today. High school $1.65. Child $1.10.

A large crowd of Nehalem people attended the celebration at Rockaway Monday.

Cloverdale News.

Everybody getting busy in the hay field.
Work on the new high school building is moving along rapidly, and will be ready for occupancy in time for the fall term of school.

We visited Pacific City Sunday and found that little town a busy place. We were informed that there were two thousand campers on the grounds.

The National celebration held here was pronounced a success. Various out side points were represented. What might have been a serious accident occurred at the Frank Nelson place when Frank Redburg collided with another car, whom we have been unable to learn who was driving it. Frank's car was badly damaged. The other party promptly handed over one hundred dollars and went on his way. It is to be regretted that there are so many careless drivers.

A. Arstil and wife, formerly of this place, but now residents of Dallas, were shaking hands with old friends in Cloverdale the first of the week. The meeting night of the I.O.O.F. Lodge has been changed from Saturday to Monday night.

Resolution of Condolence.

Whereas: The Supreme Ruler has called our beloved brother Frank Oliver from our midst.

Be it resolved, that the order and Morning Star Rebekah Lodge, No 52, has lost a talented brother.

Be it further resolved, that our charter be draped for a period of thirty days, a copy of these resolutions be sent to the wife of the deceased, one to the county papers and a copy be spread upon the minutes of this lodge.

Submitted in F. L. and T. Committee on Resolutions.

Presbyterian Church.

Sunday school at 10 a. m. Morning worship at 11 a. m. Subject, "Sunday: Holiday or Holy day, Which?"

Chautauqua in the evening and afternoon.

There will be no preaching service in the Presbyterian church after next Sunday morning until the first Sunday in August. Mr. McRea is to be the preacher for the community church at Rockaway for the last two Sundays in July.

Everybody always welcome. A. McRea, minister.

Fire Engine Here.

Tillamook's new fire engine arrived last week and the Council, firemen and every one seem to be greatly enthused over it. The engine is an exceptionally fine one, being about the only one in the Northwest. It weighs about five tons, and carries chemical tanks, several hundred feet of hose and is fitted up with a triple pumping combination.

E. R. Campbell, the Pacific Coast Representative for the Stutz Fire Engine Co. came in with it, accompanied by Mr. Smith, who is the engineer.

Mr. Campbell was formerly an assistant of Jay Stephens, and during the war was superintendent of the ship yards and installation plants from San Francisco North, and said that he had made frequent trips to Tillamook.

Mr. Wagner, an engineer sent out by the company arrived Wednesday evening and will stay a few weeks demonstrating the engine and teaching a man here to run it.

The firemen have had the engine out several times and are testing it, before the Council accepts it. Chief Coates is very proud of it and says that he is going to show the people what Tillamook can do.

The Boy Scouts are very industrious and helpful and deserve special mention for their splendid work.

Male Quartet Opens Chautauqua

Two Programs on the First Day of Genuine Music and Real Entertainment

Four young men who not only sing well, but who know the art of stage presentation and "put over" their programs with snap and vim, make up the Williams Male Quartet, the musical attraction on the opening day of Chautauqua. Headed by the versatile musical entertainer, Eddie Williams, these talented young singers present a program of male quartet music thoroughly good. They enter upon their work with enthusiasm and good humor, and audiences soon find themselves in accord with the mood of the singers. The program of quartet numbers is interspersed with individual solos, musical readings, instrumental solos, piano pieces and costumed selections.

Steel Want General.

All around the globe there is a demand for American steel. Portuguese East Africa has extensive railroad plans, and in Siam there is a call for 32,000 tons of rails. A New York firm has contracts for $5,000,000 for office buildings and other structures in Tokyo and other Japanese cities. In Rome there is a building program for housing government employees. South American requirements are extensive.

"Did Mr. Crableigh act as if he thought she would keep her promise?"
"I judge so. The neighbors said he looked greatly depressed."—Birmingham Age-Herald.

Languages of Belgium.

Belgium has two chief languages: Flemish in East Flanders and West Flanders, Antwerp, Limburg and Brant provinces, or the north and east; French in the province of Liege, Namur and Hainaut and in Luxembourg. The French-speaking Belgians claim to descend from the Belgae, being called Walloons. In 1910, of the 7,423,794 people of Belgium, 3,220,662 spoke only Flemish, 2,533,334 spoke only French, 871,278 spoke both Flemish and French, 31,415 spoke German, 74,968 spoke French and German, 3,682 spoke Flemish and German, 5,547 spoke all three languages.

PHILIPPINO ORCHESTRA COMING

Six Native Musicians From the Philippines, a Feature Musical Attraction at Chautauqua

During the past winter the Royal Philippine Sextet has been a feature musical attraction in the great hotels of the East. They have established firmly the claim so often made for them—that they excel any other Filipino orchestra ever presented in this country. These six natives from the Islands far across the Pacific have played together constantly for six years and they play today as one man. Their repertoire seems to be unlimited, playing classical music or popular in endless variety and always in a manner to delight even the most musically critical.
