Virgil, Verale and Orin Kellow were brought before Justice Stanley charged with having killed a deer out of season. Virgil and Verale have each pleaded guilty and been fined $25 each, but Orin has not yet been apprehended, as he is in Montana at the present time.

Have you noticed the cute little dolls in Pennington's windows? They were drawn by Lucia Wiley, a twelve year old school girl of this city. She also designed and made the costumes which they wear. Miss Wiley is to be complimented on her excellent work, as it is commended very highly by all passers by.

Mrs. C. Hergeshelmer and B. Mc Bride, who are spending the summer at Garibaldi spent Monday in Tillamook. They are from Philadelphia, this being their first trip out here. Mr. McBride said he thought this was a splendid place and that the climate was excellent, although they were rather cold.

Mrs. Thore Haugen has just returned from an eight weeks trip to Gasley, Alberta, where she has been visiting with her daughter, Mrs. Oscar Tratner. She says it was exceedingly hot when she left there, but that she liked the place fine. Almost all of the grain crops are excellent this season.

Mrs. Olisse Lillis has just received word from her son, Theodore, who is the naval training station at San Francisco, that he was permitted to take an examination fitting him for a machinist's mate. He passed successfully and is now making ready to sail, which he will do in six weeks time. Ordinarily the boys are required to await their turn until they are experienced before taking such an examination.

There will be a meeting of the Chamber of Commerce in the City Hall Thursday, August 19th. This is the second meeting of the Chamber of Commerce and officers will be elected, also a set of By-laws presented and acted upon. The Chamber of Commerce has a room in the City Hall for its office, and will have a secretary who will be present at all times to look after the interests of the people. It also has use of the auditorium for all its meetings.

The amount of paint that is being used around town is certainly improving its appearance. A number of the business places are receiving new coats, as well as a great many dwelling houses. Tillamook's reputation is being made and maintained in more than one way. Not content with having one of the cleanest towns along the coast, its citizens are going to have one of the prettiest also.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Miller and small daughter, Jewell, of Portland, were in Monday and Tuesday. They are making a tour of the coast, as Mr. Miller is in the barber supply business and does his own traveling. They were lavish in their praise of Tillamook county, especially of its roads. Mrs. Miller said, "We think there surely must be some live timber in the road commission of this county from the way the roads are kept up."

Some time last Tuesday night a valuable bull belonging to Wm. Hare was fatally injured in a fight with another bull. It was kept at the George Williams ranch, where a Guernsey bull was also kept. The two were tied, one on the inside of the barn and one out of doors, but some time during the night they managed to get loose and engage in a furious fight, which resulted in the fatal injury of the Hare bull. Mr. Hare valued the bull at $2,500, and feels that it will be hard to replace him as he was St. Maws 2nd, only son of the celebrated Jersey bull, St. Maws.

A party consisting of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Fronk and two children, who started from Seaside Monday morning at about 8 o'clock, on their way to Portland have not arrived there yet, and no one has heard of them since that time. Grave doubts are held by the friends of the missing ones, for they are probably lost or have met with an accident. Wednesday the Telegram, of Portland, called this office asking that an attempt be made to ascertain whether they had come through Tillamook or not, but if such was the case, they left no trace of having been here.

Mrs. E. T. Haltom was the charming hostess at an informal afternoon party held at her home last Wednesday in honor of her mother, Mrs. J. C. Monroe, of Spokane, who is visiting here with her. A very pleasant afternoon was spent with fancy work and a delicious luncheon was served by the hostess. The decorations used were gladioli and sweet peas. The invited guests were, the Mesdames B. C. Lamb, J. C. Holden, S. Bordhead, H. Crenshaw, F. C. Baker, W. J. Richers, E. E. Kook, David Robinson and John Groat, and the out of town guests were Mrs. Botwick and Miss Robinson, both of Portland.

A great many people are camped at Netarts this season, owing to the improvements that are taking place and the accommodations being rendered. Those who wish a place to camp in the open and have rest and quiet, with the mountains near as well as the beach, go to Netarts. Some days there are as many as eight or nine hundred persons camped there and almost every morning twenty five or thirty camps are broken up, which are filled again by night. Many of the eastern states have been represented this year already, for instance Mr. Effing, who is from Orlando, Fla., who was there for some time. He was formerly a Portland man, but now lives in Florida and goes to Netarts each summer for his vacation. H. B. Kennedy and family, of Pittsburg, were also camped here several families from Kansas, including W. A. Nicholson and M. B. Band.

Sunday afternoon as Rollie Watson and a party of folks, nine in all, were on their way to the beach, an accident occurred on this side of Bay City just as they were passing the Thore Haugen place. A car driven by one of the conductors on the train was just ahead of Mr. Watson, and as he tried to pass, after having honked his horn, which the other driver failed to hear, he saw that the car in front was turning out to avoid a hole in the road. As there was nothing for Mr. Watson to do but to hit the other man's car or to drive in the ditch, which latter course he preferred. As the driver of the road he turned out to a culvert which was improvised by putting limbs across a small ditch and filling in with planks, the culvert broke through with car, which was then thrown on its side. Two fenders were badly bent and the top of the windshield broken, no other damages being done, and none of the occupants of the car were injured.

A letter from A. C. Barber, the State Fire Marshal, was received last week by Chief Coates. Mr. Barber says that he is extremely well pleased with the results of the educational campaign with Mr. Stevens, and that the city of Tillamook certainly came across with the right kind of co-operation, which is needed to make a thing successful. He says he feels a great deal of thanks is due to the fire chief of that city, and we think he is right on that point, for Mr. Coates is a live wire, and most of the work would be sadly lacking in punch if it were not for him. Mr. Barber is glad to know that the city is well pleased with the Stutz pumper, and that it had put on two paid men. He thinks they are necessary to make the department a first class one. About the best thing about his letter was that he is able to hold Tillamook as a model city in regard to fire protection and prevention which sounds mighty good.

A large number of campers are at the camp grounds this week. They are registered from several different states, some of them are: R. E. Shaughnessy and family, Sellwood, Or.; John Glenn and Ralph Marquis, Albany, Or.; Wm. Waterman and family, Sultan, Wa.; A. F. Peterson and wife, Portland, Or.; L. D. Litchfield and family, Orchard, Wn.; M. Jensen and family, Dr. Pickett, E. A. Rhoten and family, all of Salem, Or.; Mr. and Mrs. E. Gabel and Hansel Confer, Maupin, Or.; I. C. Black and family, W. A. Belridge and wife all of Fullerton, Neb.; R. H. Hughes, Hillsboro, Or.; Gordon Black and family, Forrest Grove, Or.; Don W. Young, Detroit, Mich.; Tillman and Paul Glover, Bayfield, Colo.; R. W. All of the newly elected teachers are graduates of standard normals or universities where they have specialized in the branches which they are to teach. With one or two exceptions they have had several years' successful experience. Miss Snyder is a graduate of the Minnesota State Normal at Winona, Miss Heffley and Miss Beckman, of Monmouth State Normal, Miss Hanselman, of Oberlin, Mrs. Heyd, of Missouri University, Miss Barry, University of Washington; Miss Stutz, of O. A. C. and Mr. Dimmick, Willamette University.

The superintendent and the high school principal will be in the office Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, September 2-5, to enroll high school students, from 9 to 12 and from 1 to 4. All young people planning to attend high school this semester should select the studies which they wish to carry at this time, when they can enter the first week of school or not. By enrolling at this time more attention can be given the needs of individual students. Those who are planning to enter some particular college or university later on, can have their high school course selected to meet the entrance requirements of that institution, so that they will have no difficulty in gaining admission upon graduation from high school.

Grade pupils who plan to enter the Tillamook schools from other school systems are requested to call at the office on the same dates as those of the high school, so that they may be assigned to grade, without loss of time. Report cards from their last school should be brought to the office.

Beginning first grade pupils will go to Mrs. Burge's room in the grade building, Monday morning. No beginners can be admitted to the first 8 after Monday, September 13. No children under six years can be admitted. A new beginning class will be formed in the second semester, the latter part of January.

All other grade pupils will go directly to the rooms indicated by their report cards.

Only short sessions will be held Monday. Teachers will assign seats and lessons, and give out lists of books and supplies required. It is suggested that parents do not purchase books, etc., until lists have been given out. School books and supplies will be handled at the local drug stores.

A number of the new teachers will wish to secure lists of rooms and boarding places when they reach Tillamook. It will be appreciated if anyone wishing to board or room teachers would telephone name and address to Supt. Turnbull, either at the School house, 150, or his residence, 155-R.

With An Efficient Staff of Teachers

The road however, will be benefited, as the sunlight will dry it out in the winter and make it last a great deal longer.

Nothing definite was decided upon by the court, but Judge Hare said that he knew the road had to be repaired and he knew what ought to be done, but that no action would be taken just yet. In a week or ten days he will have the plans of the court in regard to the improvements ready for publication.

Obituary Notice.

Oliver L. Thompson was born in Kilekitt county, Wash., on December 27th, 1885, and was married to W. J. Wilson on December 17, 1905. They moved to the Willamette valley in 1906, where they resided until 1917, when they came to Tillamook and located at Heahook. She leaves to mourn their loss, her husband, one son, Lloyd, 10 years, and Pione, 6 days, also her mother, four brothers and two sisters. The remains were taken to McMinnville, Or., for burial her relatives residing there, the funeral services being on Aug. 11th.

A Pleasant Gathering.

The home of Paul Hanson was the scene of a pleasant gathering, when the friends, neighbors and members of the U. B. church, assembled to tender Mr. and Mrs. Nels Hanson a farewell party. A few hours were spent in pleasant visitation and singing, when prayer was offered and an address made setting forth the sorrow and regret felt and loss realized, in their going away. And the desire of those present that God might bless them wherever their lot was cast.

For thirty two years the Hanson's have been residents of the community and in the going away of both Nels and Paul Hanson and their families the community will lose honorable and highly respected citizens. The church will miss their attendance. While their leaving will be our loss, it will be another's gain, for they will be a splendid gain to that community in which they choose to make their home. We wish them success in their new enterprise.

Second Annual Tillamook County Dairy Festival.

The officers of the Tillamook Cow Testing Association are making arrangements for the second Annual Tillamook County Dairy Festival at the farm of L. A. McCormack south of Tillamook, on Saturday, Aug. 28th. Every dairyman and others interested in the dairy development of the county are invited to come. Bring your basket of lunch and we will have a roasting feed at the noon hour. There will be speakers of State wide reputation who will talk on subjects bearing on the betterment of your herds, or farm conditions, etc. You will have a chance to see the cow Pennie who made 1896 lbs. milk and 115.7 lbs. butter fat during the month of June.

Mr. McCormack has had his herd in the Testing Association since it started in 1911 and has built it up until he has a fine average production.

Sports will be arranged for the children and young people and a general good time for all.

The first Dairy Festival was held last year at Cloverdale, under the auspices of the Nestucca Association. Unfortunately, it rained and the meeting had to be held in the Grange Hall. The crowd was not so large as the preparations warranted but all who went enjoyed a good time and spent a profitable day.

This meeting will be held, rain or shine, at McCormack's farm as there is ample room in the barn to shelter the crowd in case of inclement weather.

Mark this date on your calendar and make it a point to attend. Everyone invited.

Base Ball.

In the first game of the double header on the Nehalem ground last Sunday, Camp No. 4 won from Tillamook by a wide margin. Tillamook was forced to use several north end players to fill in. Their own players failing to show up—Donoval among them. The most exciting part of the game was the rooting of a man from Tillamook. He was fat and jolly, and feeling just happy enough to be funny.

In the second game Wheeler won from Beaver 9 to 4. The game was close up to the seventh inning, Beaver leading 4 to 1, then their infield blew up. With only one scratch hit Wheeler scored five runs. Errors and wild throws helped them along.

King did the pitching up to the eighth and showed some of his old time form, holding Wheeler to a few scattered hits. Johnson who pitched in the eighth was not effective and three more runs crossed the plate.

Scott, pitching for Wheeler, did good work and deserved to be funny.

The game that was advertised for Sunday the 15th at Tillamook was cancelled by Wheeler after the posters were all out. This makes it bad for the Beaver boys, who have had a hard time arranging games all summer, and hurts their chances of good crowds at future games.

"If Mr. Wilson had been willing to accept the reservations which Lord Grey stated that Great Britain was perfectly willing to accept, we would have been in the league now."

Mrs. Munro Heard From

Mrs. J. B. Munro, of Crazy, North Dakota, who was a former resident of Tillamook county, writes as follows: "Inclosed you will find check for $2.00 for the paper, which we are looking for regularly. We are having a beautiful summer here, although I have missed all of July, as I had a bad attack of heart trouble and was in Devil's Lake hospital most of July, and just got home. Am very weak and the doctor says it will take months for me to get myself again. Our crops are fine. We have over 600 acres of choicest wheat, comes up to a horse's back. Every blade is full of wheat. Also 280 acres of flax, which will soon be ready to cut, besides acres of oats, corn and potatoes, which are all good. We have seven men cutting and shocking and are running four binders. They make three rounds in the forenoon and three in the afternoon, two and a half miles to the round. Will be all through in about ten days. Great place for one to get a start in life. It's land of a plenty, but I would like to have just one more salmon from grand old Tillamook. Wishing you a good year. Give my best regards to all my old friends."

"Glad to hear from you, and wish you all the good things going."

"Last year those intending to go on the trip at the reduced rate had to obtain Identification Certificates through this office which entitle the holder to purchase tickets at the reduced rate; we have not received the certificates yet. As soon as we get the details from the Railroad offices we will publish the whole business."
