BUICK

TRUE to the Buick tradition of twenty years, the one feature Buick engineers have particularly sought to develop in the new Nineteen Twenty One Buick Series is high utility value. You will find, in fact, when you investigate these new models, that Buick capacity for hard, fast, sure transportation is even greater than ever before. The high-powered, sure-working Buick Valve-in-Head Motor is a feature of each of the new models.

Added to their great service value are a beauty of contour and appointment and a comfort of movement and seating arrangement that appeal to the most particular.

Buick primarily, however, is a car of action. Built for business—built to stand up—is a well known Buick feature. Business men will find the new five passenger touring car a happy selection.

Back of it, reinforcing its high serviceability, in sureing the uninterrupted use of your investment is Authorized Buick Service rendered by a nationwide organization.

The Seattle Post Standard wonders how Governor Cox's head contains all he knows, but the greater wonder is how it contains all the things he says but doesn't know.

Why should Senator Harding make a campaign tour as long as Governor Cox continues to accomplish the same result? Democrats are being converted to Republicanism every time Jimmy opens his mouth.

Whether Cox and weather cocks are similar somewhat depends. Whatever way the wind blows, both turn, but, on the other hand, the one is a cause, while the other is merely an effect. Diagrams of this paradox furnished on request.

At Milwaukee Governor Cox drove a trotting horse on the race track while the band played "Turkey in the Straw." The trouble is, though, that in the presidential race Jockey Cox is driving a flea-bitten mule to the four-year-old refrain of "He Kept Us Out of War."

The reason Governor Cox is sure that "the interests" are trying to "buy the Presidency" for the Republicans in order that they may "use federal bayonets" on the wage earners of the country, is that there has been more use of federal troops in labor disturbances by President Wilson, with whom Governor Cox is "at one," than during all the combined previous Presidencies in the history of the republic.

county issued for the building of permanent roads therein in the sum of $30,000, same being in denominations of $1000, each, dated January 1st, 1920 and maturing January 1, 1930; said bonds to bear interest at five and one half per cent (5 1/2 per cent) per annum, payable semi-annually on January and July 1st, principal and interest payable in United States gold coin at the office of the County Treasurer or at the Fiscal Agency of the State of Oregon in New York City, at the option of the bidder.

Said bids must be accompanied by a certified check for 5 per cent of the amount bid and must be unconditional.

The approving legal opinion of Messrs. Teal, Minor & Winfree, of Portland, Oregon, will be furnished the successful bidder.

The Court reserves the right to reject any or all bids.

HOMER MASON Clerk.

HUNTERS!

WHAT APPEALS TO you more than the feel of a good Winchester shotgun you know can be depended on for accuracy and sure action the instant the covey lifts.

When you are following your pointer through the fields on a crisp October morning, alert for the sight and sound of wary birds, you like to feel that both your gun and ammunition are going to do their part.

WINCHESTER REPEATING SHOTGUNS

—are made to answer this call. They are designed with just the right drop and shoulder fit and are manufactured of the finest nickel steel, every part properly tempered and hardened and beautifully finished.

Winchester shotguns are made in four models, in both hammer and hammerless, including the latest 410 shotgun, the ideal gun for family shooting, practice and small field game.

We carry a full line of these shotguns and cordially invite you to come in any time, look them over, get their feel and make your selection.

All Cows Are Alike to the EMPIRE

HAD milkers or easy milkers—nervous or calm cows—large or small teats—even or uneven udders—they are all alike to the Empire. It milks them all. And Empire teat cups stay on without surcingle or harness.

are now equipped with our new Super-Simple Pistonless Pulsator. No wearing pistons to leak vacuum. It operates teat cups with absolute regularity. Cows like it. It soothes and quiets them. Results in greater milk flow and also increases period of lactation.

Come in and see this different, better milking machine or, if you wish, phone us and we'll bring the machine to your farm; no obligation.

J. BURCHARD.

Suggested as a slogan for Jazz Muffin Cox: "He'll run us out of gas."

"We have not started in the revaluations which will be made to the public," Governor Cox said in his New York speech. The quotation will stand for the remainder of the campaign.

The New York Times, Wilson organ, says: "Fled is the once rosy Republican vision of an easy little stationary and static campaign on the front porch." It said this before the Maine election was held. If the Maine result could be brought about from the front porch, what does the Times think is going to happen when General Harding takes the field?

Can American people be a candidate at the election you believe the maudlin of the aspirants for the highest in the land, your answer must be yes.

Governor Cox's idea of a clean campaign fund is one raised by sand-bagging girl stenographers forty dollars apiece, and taking their pre-dated checks where they weren't able to immediately produce the money.

Governor Cox says he didn't go to San Francisco to attend the Democratic national convention because he didn't want any first or second mortgages attached to the Presidency. His visit to the White House, after the convention, then, must have been for the purpose of executing a trust deed.
