The Alter Society of the Catholic church will hold a sale of cooked foods and fancy articles at Zachman's Oct. 22nd and 23rd.

F. F. Baker, of Burns, returned to his home this week, leaving Tuesday, after having spent several weeks here visiting in this city and at Garibaldi.

Nehalem Valley Bank, a corp., vs. Butner Mill Co. and E. W. Barnes, is a suit filed in the circuit court to recover $1125.00 on a promissory note.

The Presbyterian Guild will meet Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 at the home of Mrs. Chas. L. Clough and any ladies interested in the work are cordially invited.

Frank A. Bergman, of Portland, a special agent employed to investigate the case where a number of furs were stolen, left for Portland this morning.

Carl Dawson, who has been stopping at the home of W. F. Baker, during a bad attack of rheumatism left with his wife and family on Wednesday for their home at Garibaldi.

Mrs. Lucinda Ford, of Corvallis, left for her home, where she lives during the winter with her daughter. She has been spending the summer here with Mrs. Royal Stillwell, also her daughter.

E. A. Morganti, of Rupert, Idaho, who has been here for some time as superintendent of the Warren Construction Co.'s work here in town, left for Portland Tuesday morning. He will later return to Idaho, his wife having gone there about a month ago.

The Tillamook County Sunday School convention will meet in this city on the 23rd and 24th of October. Mr. Norman Johnson, the new secretary, who has been a member of the Pennsylvania Sunday School Association for the past few years, will be the chief speaker.

Lee Grimes vs. Lavona Grimes is a divorce suit filed in the circuit court these parties having been married at Astoria, Or., on the 21st of March, 1917, one son having been born to the union. Plaintiff alleges that defendant abandoned him on the 1st of November, 1919.

Returning last week to Portland was Vida Lamb, daughter of Francis M. Lamb, where she will take up branch work in that city writing for the Feature Magazine of Chicago. Miss Lamb spent three weeks at the Lamb camp and visiting Mrs. Henry Heisel, a former Eugene girl.

C. I. Winnek left Tuesday for Portland, where he will spend a few days on business. He and his wife are here about ten days ago, and, as they liked the place so well they decided to stay here, so bought the Boss Turner ranch six miles south of here.

Mrs. Bailey left Saturday morning for Los Angeles, where she will spend the winter with her daughter, Belle. She was accompanied by her small grand daughter, Frances Long, whom she is taking there on account of the little girl's health, as she has been ill for some time with asthma and pleurisy.

M. L. Gilbert, of Portland, who is the special state agent of the Cleveland National Fire Insurance Co., was in Tillamook this week. He was very favorably impressed with Tillamook, especially with the splendid fire fighting facilities of the city. He also said our fire engine was the best one in the state, but we already thot that ourselves.

Tillamook merchants have agreed to close their stores from 2:30 to 4:30 Friday afternoon so that their employees can attend the football game at the fairgrounds between the Oregon City H. S. and the local H. S. boys. This is the first interscholastic game which citizens of Tillamook have had an opportunity to see and interest is high.

You are vitally interested in Oregon having a part equal to any port on the Pacific Coast. Initiative measure No. 310 on the ballot to be voted in November will provide Oregon with such a port. The cost will be born by the people of the port of Oregon but all of the state must vote on it. Vote 310 Yes on the ballot on November 2nd.

After having spent the summer here with old friends of his boyhood days, D. J. Hadley left Saturday for Homney Okla. where he will visit for a few months. From there he will go to Cape town, South Africa where he has mining interests. Mr. Hadley has been there for a number of years, this having been his first trip home for some time.

David Kuratli left Saturday for Bend, for about a week, to attend to business. He had just returned from a two weeks trip to California, he and his wife and Dr. and Mrs. Grider having driven down in their car. They report having a delightful trip and a wonderful outing in the hills down there, camping in the Klamath Verdi Indian Reservation.

Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Pickett started Tuesday noon in their car, for their new home in Valijo, Cal., staying in Cloverdale that night with Mrs. Pickett's son Albert Wade, he accompanying them as far as McMinnville. They visited a day with her daughter, Mrs. W. E. Anderson, at Grand Ronde, and then to Portland and on down to California.

W. G. Gilbert, of Chicago, who is doing field work for the House of Kuppenheimer, was in Tillamook a few days last week leaving Saturday He says they are going to establish a line here in Tillamook and that a representative will be in every six or eight weeks. While here Mr. Eberhart met Mr. Reichers, an old friend of his whom he had not seen for over seven years. They were both from the same town in Wisconsin.

The Chamber of Commerce wrote to the State Highway Commission in regard to the bad condition of a piece of road near Willamina which was torn up by the railroad contracts, and on Saturday a telegram was received from Engineer Nunn stating that the road had been planked and completed by Monday afternoon. Persons who came through on Tuesday stated that the work was completed the previous evening.

The weather the past week has been quite wet, with very few intermissions. This appears to be the most moist fall this part of Oregon has experienced for many years. The first rains came late in the August, and all through September, with the exception of a few days, it rained, and the first two weeks of October the same kind of weather prevailed. This weather condition this morning looked more favorable the wind being in the northwest but how long it will remain there is hard to tell.

An incident occurred Friday morning which shows the dire necessity of a little more speed in the construction of the Kilchis river bridge. As a large Standard Oil truck was passing over the bridge on its way to Brighton the wheels broke through the rotten flooring. If it had not been for the floor beam, on which the truck suspended, it is very doubtful the whole thing would have plunged downward into the river. No one was hurt and no damage was done though, thanks to the fact that it did suspend on the beam.

C. H. Hoskins and wife, of Gold Beach, Or., arrived in Tillamook late Tuesday evening by automobile to visit with their parents Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hoskins. They see a great change for the better since their departure 9 years ago. Before coming here they visited with Mrs. Hoskin's parents in Oakland Cal., they were out marketing one day and asked for cheese—the proprietor in charge said we have several kinds of cheese, but the best is "Tillamook", needless to say Chester knew that already and the sale was made.

Bob Richards, of Beaver, who was the manager of the County fair this year, and who went to the State Fair with the Tillamook exhibit, had some bad luck the last night of the fair at Salem. While he was helping some of the men tear down the booth decorations he stepped on a nail which was sticking straight up in a board. The nail went almost through the ball of his foot, making quite a hole in it. Mr. Richards is obliged to walk on crutches, when he does get about, but he will feel pretty lucky if he does not have a case of blood poisoning.

Another one of our Tillamook men has gone East and returned with a bride, Floyd Gardner, of the Standard Oil Co., and Mrs. Gardner, nee Miss Myrtle Grimsey, of East Orange, New Jersey, returned to Tillamook last week. The wedding occurred at the home of the bride's parents, in New York, on the 22nd of September. They came back via Washington, D. C., New Orleans, Texas, San Francisco, having had a delightful trip. Mr. Gardner has been in Tillamook for some time and has made a great many friends who greatly admire and respect him, and their best wishes are extended to him and his wife, who it is hoped will be pleased with her new home.

Helene C. Walters vs. Harold G. Walters is a divorce case filed in the circuit court. These parties were married at Jacksonville, Ore., on the 29th of May, 1914. Plaintiff alleges that soon after the marriage defendant began a course of cruel and inhuman treatment and personal indignities which has been almost continuous, except during the periods when the parties were not living together. Plaintiff bore this treatment for a long time up to the 25th of May, 1919, when the defendant drove the plaintiff from home. In March, 1920, the plaintiff agreed to live with the defendant on account of the children and make an effort to build a home, but after living together for a few days, defendant commenced abusing his wife, which again forced her to leave him. There are three children born to this union.

Married at the Christian Church parsonage Wednesday, W. M. Pitman of Portland and Mrs. M. Jones. Only close friends attended.

L. S. Dalton, of the Loyal Legion of Loggers and Lumberman headquarters at Portland was in Tillamook Monday. He had been on a tour of inspection as well as visit to all the mills and camps in the county, having spent over a week here. Mr. Dalton said that even though the mill here was closed a great deal of the time, and the work going on slow in the other parts of the county, the general lumber conditions in this county were a great deal better than in other parts of the state. The market is closed, all the eastern people buying eastern lumber, as it is cheaper, and at the prices here are so high, consequently there is no sale. That, along with the car shortage brings the lumber industry almost to a standstill.

The Lung motor which was ordered from Boston some time ago, was received by the Fire Department last night, and tried out. This motor is about the same as a pull motor, only that the pull motor is an automatic contrivance, while this is not. It is on the order of a bicycle pump, and is used to restore persons suffocated by smoke, drowning persons, those struck by electricity and a hundred other different accidents, as well as pneumonia patients and others who have not the strength to breathe, as it practically forces breathing. A deluge set was also received, which is put on the pump, causing the force from all three streams to be concentrated to the one stream, which would be forceful enough to knock down a building. The department is getting a life net and other apparatus, which is expected in the near future.

Constance Talmadge seen in "The Veiled Adventure"

"The Veiled Adventure," Constance Talmadge's newest Select Picture, which can be seen on Sunday, Oct. 17, at the Gem Theatre, is a romantic comedy plus drama which holds you to the end. It is a story of Geraldine Barker, a young and beautiful society girl, whose marriage to Reginald Crocker, a society "top" is averted, when she, in trying to teach a young man from Texas a lesson as to the influence of woman over a man, is herself enlighten regarding men and unconsciously teaches herself a vital lesson of life. She is presented in this picture by Lewis J. Selznick.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE HAD INTERESTING MEETING

Takes Up Matter of Interest to the County

The October meeting of the Chamber of Commerce was held last Thursday with a large attendance. Several important matters requiring immediate attention were taken up and discussed. Among others was the car shortage. C. J. Edwards and F. A. Beltz reported their findings on this subject after which the manager was instructed to take up the matter of transportation with boat companies with a view of procuring water transportation for Tillamook. It is believed that enough out-going freight would be obtained to make this plan feasible. J. A. Carroll, County Road Master, was present and stated that it was the intention of the County Court to begin work on the Bayocean road about the first of the year. The Chamber passed a resolution urging the County Court to hurry the work along as much as possible.

H. T. Botts brought up the question of school buildings for District No. 9, stating that the School Board would like the opinion of the Chamber regarding their building program. The belief was generally expressed that it would be money wasted to attempt to repair and alter the old school building in place of putting up a new structure.

Considerable discussion was aroused over the Tourists Park, some in favor of establishing it on the new fair grounds to be bought by the county. It was decided, however, that the present site be used and improved for the next season.

The Chamber went on record as strongly opposed to the 4 and 5 per cent Interest Measure and a committee composed of C. J. Edwards, H. T. Botts and L. W. Turnbull was appointed to put the matter before the people at a meeting to be held in the city hall next Wednesday evening.

R. W. Watson read a communication from the County agent of Coville county, Wash., stating that a delegation of dairymen from that section were going to visit Tillamook some time this month to get an insight as to Tillamook dairy methods and to establish closer relations between the dairymen of the Northwest.

The Chamber is a live, growing institution and is going ahead to make Tillamook prosperous, better known, and a better place to live in. A Chamber is a factor in any community that has generally been given it. A few progressive people carry it along, nursing it through its growing stage, work with it and boost for it, and finally send it on to a complete success, while the less enthusiastic ones look on and wonder whether it will go or not. After the hard work of the doubtful ones are glad to jump in and share the credit. That is human nature. But our Chamber is going ahead. It has gained strength and size and is now about to don long pants and take its place with its elders.

Anyone wishing to take out a membership and help this cause along will please communicate with the manager at the office of the Chamber on the second floor of the City hall, or call 31-J. We want every business man, retired or not, who feels that our community needs the help of this organization, to become a member.

Christian Endeavor Party.

About fifty young folks, most all members of the Christian Endeavor of the Christian church, met at the home of Mr and Mrs. Lee Doty, and proceeded to have one of the best times of their lives. Each guest was requested to wear costumes which were not familiar to the rest of the party and as they were ushered into the hall they were given domino masks with which to hide their features from curious ones. It was great fun guessing who was who, and although it was rather early for Hall-oween, the spirit of witches and black cats prevailed the rooms, as crepe paper figures of black and yellow, also African daises were used for decorations.

Refreshments consisting of ice cream and wafers were served by the hostess. All manners of games were played and music and singing were the entertainments of the evening, after which the guests departed, very tired but happy.

Tillamook Fish and Game Club Meets.

A meeting of the Tillamook Fish and Game Club was held at the City hall last Tuesday night. The Constitution and By-laws, which had been drawn up some time ago had submitted, were accepted and adopted. Also a resolution was passed by the assembly to get our Representative, C. J. Edwards, to have the State game laws conform with those of the Federal laws. At present there is a difference in the duck laws, the Federal law allowing fifteen days more on the open season than the state law governing the shooting of the wild ducks.

The matter which was taken up by the Multnomah Fish and Game Club, in respect to the Fish Hatchery on the Trask river, was brought before the meeting and discussed. The Multnomah Fish and Game Club wants the fish hatchery to cease hatching salmon and hatch only trout. These trout they want shipped to the valley and planted in the streams there, which would be a benefit to themselves, as they are interested in angling more than anything else. The members of the meeting disapproved of this movement, as they wish to keep on hatching salmon for commercial purposes instead of for sports.

The membership of the Tillamook Fish and Game Club numbers about 170. At present, and the prospects are good for a great many more. Every man should join this club, as it is doing a great deal for the good of the county. The above resolutions are good examples of what these men who are members are doing. The initiation fees of the club are one dollar, but now that dollar goes to pay for the membership fees, which is a dollar a year.

Mr. Chamberlain explained how the War had dislocated the social industrial and commercial life of the country, and that a paralysis of the industrial life would come to pass unless a change was made. The people realize that it is absolutely necessary something should be done in the immediate future to remedy these conditions and that everyone should help in solving these problems. The benefits as well as the liabilities derived from the war are not only for the present generation, according to Mr. Chamberlain, but for several generations to come. He said that all of the problems arising from the war could not be settled at once, for all the questions arising from the Civil war, even, are not yet settled. It is to be hoped, however, that changed as far as possible will be made in the near future.

Plans are being completed for an auto tour of farmers of Coville county, Wn., to Tillamook dairy, where a number of prosperous dairy farms will be inspected. The trip, which will combine education and pleasure for those taking it, has been under discussion by a group of Kelso business men for some time, and definite plans were made last week to make the tour as soon as possible after the harvest is completed.

The party expects to leave Kelso Friday morning, the 15th, making the trip to Tillamook that day, spending Saturday here in the county at different points and returning home on Sunday. It is planned to make the trip through the Willamette valley to Tillamook, returning via Nehalem, Seaside, Astoria and the Columbia Highway, if possible.

Farewell Party

As Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Cardiff are to leave Tillamook soon a number of Mrs. Cardiff's friends met at her home last Thursday and held a farewell party for her. The refreshments, which were brought by the guests, were exceedingly delicious and were very much enjoyed by all. After having spent the afternoon chatting and visiting, the guests departed, leaving a gift with Mrs. Cardiff, as a token of their esteem. Those present were, Mesdames Feldshau, Geo. Chaffee, Vernon Blanchard, Aschman, Harry Thomas, of Coquille, Lewis Wilson, Frankie Berry, Smith, Ahpaly, Keith Carter, H. Brooks, Hoffman, Houston, Mahan and Will Oathout and mother. The Cardiffs are well known in Tillamook and are esteemed by all, and it is with real regret on the part of their friends that they see them leave.

Senator Chamberlain Speaks in Tillamook

A number of people were present at the City Hall on Monday night to hear the address by Senator Chamberlain, who is on his political campaign for re-election. He was advertised to speak on the political issues of the day and the important questions which were to be voted upon by the people at the coming election. Strange to say, however, he did not touch upon the vital issues such as the League of Nations, which disappointed the people, who were expecting to find the stand taken by the Senator. Instead, he spoke of the fact that his party had accomplished during the present administration, advising the people, who are supposed to be getting a good thing out of it not to change the policy of the government, in other words, to re-elect democrats and have the same things for the next few years.

In regard to the present commercial conditions he spoke of the advantages of shipping by truck and by water, stating that when the waterways were improved the railroads would be compelled to reduce the rates on transportation of freight. The Roosevelt Highway will greatly aid in the transportation by truck and as it now is not under the control of the War Department, as formerly, it will be put thru more quickly.

In reviewing the work of the Senate in the past few years Mr. Chamberlain spoke of the numerous bar and harbor improvement along the coast, the benefits derived upon the farmers by the Rural Credit Act, also the Federal Reserve Act which stands back of the people in any financial emergency, and he thinks that as all these acts are very beneficial to the people they should be kept and more acts like them should be passed.

In his discussion about the present conditions of the State and Nation

Mr. Chamberlain explained how the War had dislocated the social industrial and commercial life of the country, and that a paralysis of the industrial life would come to pass unless a change was made. The people realize that it is absolutely necessary something should be done in the immediate future to remedy these conditions and that everyone should help in solving these problems. Ladies Entertain.

Mrs. J. H. Rosenberg, Mrs. A. A. Pennington and Mrs. H. H. Rosenberg were the delightful hostesses at a charming at home party at the home of the latter Wednesday afternoon. The rooms were made beautiful with bowls of yellow dahlias, and the Hallowe'en scheme of yellow and black cats and witches were also used for decorations and favors.

Games were played and Mrs. Tucker rendered a number of beautiful selections on the piano, which were very much appreciated by the guests. The refreshments served by the hostesses were very delicious and daintily served.

Among those present were the Mesdames, Drew, Veirick, J. S. Lamar, Grider, Kuratli, Alex Watt, Turnbull and Mr. Turnbull's mother, B. C. Lamb, Faueknor, Reedy, O. A. Schultz, Groat, Mason, Lewis, Smith, Alva Williams, Glaisyer, Baker, Clough, O. M. Cook, Haberlach, Plank, Esch, Craven, Tucker, McRea, Henkle, Conover, Lee Doty and Steinbach.

Shakespeare Club Meets.

The monthly meeting of the Shakespeare Club was held at the home of Mrs. David Robinson, on last Friday, the 8th. An election of officers was held, the following being chosen: Mrs. Reichers, president; Mrs. Robinson, vice-president; Mrs. O. A. Schultz, secretary. Instead of reading from a play as usual, minutes of the meetings held sixteen years ago were read by the secretary, which were very much enjoyed by the members. The club is now starting on its seventeenth year, which is quite a long time for a club to exist.

The ladies drew the names of the months to ascertain when each was to entertain the club. The months were drawn as follows: November, Mrs. John Groat; December, Mrs. Campbell; January, Mrs. Baker; February, Mrs. Reichers; March, Mrs. Crenshaw; March, second meeting, Mrs. Robinson; April, Mrs. C. J. Edwards; May, Mrs. Clough; June, Mrs. B. C. Lamb; July, Mrs. Holmes; August, the annual picnic to be held, September, Mrs. O. A. Schultz.

The hostess had decorated the rooms in a very charming manner with fall flowers, and served a daintily appetizing luncheon. The invited guests were Mrs. Halton and Mrs. I. C. Smith.

Gladys Brockwell in "The Mother of His Children"

"The Mother of His Children," described as a powerfully dramatic photodrama, will be presented by William Fox, starring Gladys Brockwell, at the Gem Theatre on Thursday, Oct. 21.

This is a story of high life in Paris picturing the alluring scenes in which the artist's life centers. The romance of a captivating princess and a famous statue, of love and revenge, is set forth with telling effect.

Vulcanizing Department of the Sunset Garage

We recently visited the Vulcanizing Department of the Sunset Garage and while there Mr. Coleman explained to us the method of repairing damaged tires.

Mr. Coleman has recently made up an
