

Society and Club Events

The gala event of the social season was the formal dinner last evening given for 16 members of the Mystic Shrine and their wives at the home of Noble and Mrs. A. A. Pennington...

The following were guests of the evening: Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Reedy, Mr. and Mrs. Morris Schmid, Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Dawson, Mr. and Mrs. Rollie Watson, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Hall...

A delightful 500 party was given on Tuesday afternoon by Mrs. Homer Mason, Mrs. John Groat, Mrs. C. T. Clough and Mrs. F. C. Baker, at the home of the latter. The spacious rooms were artistically decorated...

Mrs. Geo. Hanselmaier and Mrs. Webb McCracken entertained the J. U. G. club yesterday at the home of Mrs. Hanselmaier. A delightful afternoon was spent at games and needlework after which delicious refreshments were served in a very novel manner. Guests of the afternoon were: Mesdames Riechers, Condit, E. W. Wallace, Conover, and Benninghoff. Next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Henry Heisel.

A successful basket social was given by the Garibaldi school last Saturday. The purpose of the event was to raise funds for basket ball supplies and equipment. There were about 250 persons present and bidding on the baskets was lively. The proceeds netted the school $200.

The Order Eastern Star Kensington Club met at the Masonic temple last week with Mrs. Gruber and Mrs. Gaylord as hostesses. The women served and did some needed work in the Eastern Star, for which the club was organized. There were 25 women present and several new members joined.

On Thursday evening, November 11, at 8 P. M., Silver Wave Chapter, No. 18, Order Eastern Star, will give the Floral degree and Past Worthy Matron's degree. This is the first time these degrees have been given here.

W. R. C. members are going to have a bazaar in the near future. All members are requested to do their bit toward helping out the cause. One member said this week: "Those who were benefited by going on the G. A. R. excursion should get in and help. Some say we pay our dues. Yes, but some of us don't get out once a year to a meeting and help."

The altar society, which was to have met at the home of Mrs. Kuppenbender last week, postponed its meeting for a month.

Mrs. Geo. Hanselmaier and Mrs. Webb McCracken entertained the J. U. G. club yesterday at the home of Mrs. Hanselmaier. A delightful afternoon was spent at games and needlework after which delicious refreshments were served in a very novel manner. Guests of the afternoon were: Mesdames Riechers, Condit, E. W. Wallace, Conover, and Benninghoff. Next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Henry Heisel.

The feature of the evening's entertainment was a lack of lantern parade by the school children. With the lights turned off and carrying through the darkness carved pumpkins with their knife-notched faces lighted by candles, the procession took on the aspect of a ghost walk.

The Kill Kare Klub met October 21. Mrs. H. H. Rosenberg and Mrs. Youngington were hostesses. Roll call found nearly all the members present.

The resignation of Mrs. R. C. Jones was regrettably accepted. Mrs. Case, Mrs. Conover and Mrs. Edwards were appointed as a committee to suggest names to fill the vacancy. The guests for the afternoon were: Mesdames Crenshaw, Hays, Reicher, Hill, Hoesley, Moulton and J. H. Rosenberg.

The program committee, composed of Mrs. Case and Mrs. Conover, entertained for the afternoon with an excellent paper on "From the Old World to the New."

The club adjourned to meet in November with Mrs. Carl Haberlach.

Mill construction at Garibaldi has brought in such an influx of residents that all available living space has been taken and employees of the mill have been forced to seek accommodations at Bar View. As a result, the cottages at Bar View are filling up in summer season style.

Plans for the Oregon W. C. T. U. farm home drive are nearing completion, and nearly every county in the state is now organized for the actual solicitation of the $125,000. The drive will be held during the week of November 15 to 22. According to C. J. Edwards, chairman of Tillamook county, the quota for this county has been fixed at $950. That this amount will be quickly subscribed in the belief of Mr. Edwards and members of the county campaign committee. The organization work is now practically over.

Mrs. Ed Cary of Carlton, came in on the stage Monday for a visit with her daughter.
