he Tillamook High Basket ball team defeated the Banks and West Lynn quintets by the respective scores of 36-7 and 20-12. At Banks Friday night our boys played under great difficulties, these being two gas lights and a poor referee and a dance floor. This may be the reason our score was not higher. The team played great ball even under the difficulties, Shingles making 19 points, Harris 11, Anderson 4, Camp-

The plaintiff alleges that the defendant failed to support her and that he deserted her in September, 1920. She also charges that he refused to take a bath when he needed one.

Nehalem Valley Bank versus Wheeler Box and Manufacturing Company, now the Jensen Shingle Manufacturing Company, is a suit filed in the circuit court to recover $4000 on a promissory note given February 3, 1919. The plaintiff asks for a foreclosure of mortgage against certain property given as security on the note.

Anna Harris is suing the Harris-Ammer Furniture Company for $3140, money alleged to be due her for services rendered while in the employ of the defendant from Sep-tember 1, 1917, until August 2, 1920.

Chas. F. Pankow versus the Southern Pacific Company is a suit filed in the circuit court in which the plaintiff wishes to recover damages for some freight he is said to have shipped from Marshfield in January 1919. The plaintiff alleges that the articles were ruined by being allowed to get wet while in transportation. $348.11 is the amount damages mentioned in the suit.
