REX CHAT NO. 5
Were you at the orchestra concert last Sunday at 3:45 P. M.? If you were not you missed a treat. Next Sunday at the same time, this success will be repeated with a new program. This time Mr. Brenner will feature a marimbaphone solo, "The Rosary," if you miss the concert, this number will be heard as an opening number to each evening show.
The second big novelty of the week comes Tuesday night, our prize night. This week our first prize is a ladies silk umbrella. Four other prizes of equal value will also be given away. Ladies, bring a man and take a prize home with you.
Several people commented on a short reel we ran last Friday, "Topics of the Day." These are compiled by the Literary Digest and prove to be funnier than many comedies. They will be shown every Friday. We also wish to call your attention to some of the exceptionally good pictures this week. Saturday is the "Life Line," an adventurous sensation. Sunday and Monday is the famous stage comedy "Twin Beds" and said—you'll go. Wednesday we have H. B. Warner in a brand new play and the first of the comedy based on the cartoons in the Journal—"Jiggs and the Social Lion." Larry Semon, and last but not least Friday is "The Cinema Murder," a mystery story with a peculiar twist.
Any suggestions you have to offer will be greatly appreciated.
K. LAUGHLIN.
