Unemployment and Prices
According to a report issued by the Department of Labor the peak of unemployment has been reached and passed with the movement gradually working its way westward.

Oregon is one of the two states of the west in which the labor situation is bad, says the report, while Washington is in a still worse condition. If Oregon has been in a bad condition regarding unemployed labor during the past few months the people of our state may look with the greatest optimism to the future. For at no time has the extreme suffering usually associated with bad labor conditions been apparent. True, the mild season during the last few months might account for some of this, while again it is quite probable that the laboring classes have not been as prodigal of their means as has generally been supposed, and many a family has doubtless banked a good share of the high wages received during 1919 for the event of a rainy day.

Local mills, which employ a considerable number of people, expect to begin operation again about the first of April and the local labor situation will be relieved by this and the road building that is to take place during the next summer.

Prices have taken a decline, and while still much above their former level, they will continue to drop until an equilibrium is reached between living and wages.

This is the beginning of the condition that we have hoped for since the advent of abnormal conditions during war times. What are the people of Tillamook county going to do with the period of "normalcy" when it is reached. Are they going to grasp the opportunity and work harder than ever for a greater Tillamook? Is the period of great building activity, enlargement of established industries and general improvement of our county actually at hand? Let us hope that the much discussed bar improvements, improved roads and other rebuilding gets farther than talk. Don't let it all go up in hot air. Let's have some action.

We believe that the people of this county have been sorely touched by the uncertain conditions that have taken place during the last few months. The reason for this being that the old cow never strikes for higher wages or for a "closed shop". Her head is never turned because the price of Tillamook cheese soars far above all other brands or because she is the principal support of this county. Dairymen has kept hard times from coming to this community. Tillamookers are lucky.

Early Road Contracts
Now is the time when contracts for road work in this county should be made. It takes almost sixty days after the awarding of the contract for the contractor to be in shape to commence the work. Sixty days from this time will bring the date to the first of May and the rainy season will doubtless be over by that time.

In the past much time has been wasted in the spring and work has been held up before it is finished on account of the fall rains. The work should be started just as soon as it is possible to do so. If this system is followed much more will be accomplished. Let us not be like the man the Arkansas Traveler met who said that when it rained he couldn't patch his roof and when the weather was good he didn't have to patch it.

Roosevelt Highway Again
When their first Roosevelt highway bill was killed in the legislature the coast county senators introduced another, providing that the counties affected by the proposed measure could form a separate road district and finance the work themselves. The bill passed the legislature, but will not stay "put." Though they took enough from the highway commission and other hostile interests to be properly squelched, they came back for more with another bill on their favorite subject. It must be the refreshing sea breeze that makes them like that. But if some of those inland-county people would move to a real country they would get the bad taste out of their mouths and boost for the Roosevelt highway.

Where Are Our Skyscrapers?
It will be remembered that when the high prices of everything held up building the conservative ones liked to talk of the building they were going to do when the cost of building material dropped. That time is here.

It is hardly possible that prices will go much lower, and they may take a rise instead. Don't put off your building program until such a time that all you will be able to do is to talk about it again. Let's go.

Local News

The members of the Occidental club report that they had a most enjoyable time at their dance last Saturday evening. Besides dancing they had arranged a program and prepared a lunch. They expect to hold another such entertainment in about two weeks.

A number of articles were found after the fireman's dance Tuesday evening. The management had asked that anyone having lost articles at that time will please see Chief Coates, A. C. Everson or the men at the fire house.

Dr. Wise will be at his Nehalem office on Thursday, Feb. 24th and at Wheeler on Friday, Feb. 25th.

A. A. Pennington has installed a measuregraph, an instrument which measures cloth up to the fractions of a yard. Besides registering the exact measure it computes the cost of the piece measured.

Charles Van Patten is building a five room house on Miller avenue between 6th and 7th streets which he intends to sell or rent after completion.

Carl adWson was a Tillamook visitor from Garibaldi Cove this week.

The fire department has made arrangements to have chimney sweeping done. Those needing such work done may apply to the engine house, leaving their names and addresses.

Tuesday "Treasure Island," Paramount-Artcraft super special at the Gem.

At a meeting of the Creamery Association recently William Maxwell was chosen president and F. W. Christensen and Carl Haberlach were re-elected inspector and secretary respectively.

Dr. Lebow, who has been associated with Dr. Wise in the dental practice here, left Monday seeking a drier climate. Mrs. Lebow accompanied him and they will probably locate in Southern Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Billings, who left some time ago for a trip through California, have returned. They do not express themselves as being particularly pleased with our neighboring state, preferring the damp and mists of Oregon.

"His Official Finances," a rippling comedy drama, Gem, Friday night.

Music on the "Warlitzer" at the Gem every program.

M. W. Harrison, of Portland, spent several days in Tillamook this week looking over business interests. The Presbyterian Guild met last meeting at the home of Mrs. Anderson with Mrs. Eastman assisting hostess. The home was decorated with cupids and the program prepared by Mrs. Bales was a test of skill-shooting cupid's darts. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. McNair next Tuesday at 2:30 P. M. March is the closing month of the year's work and annual reports will be made up more easily if all members in arrears will not put off settlement until the closing meeting. Mrs. Sam Greene was hostess Wednesday.

Monday, February 16, at a charming Martha Washington thimble tea in compliment to her mother, Mrs. Mattie Jeffries. The house was decorated in valentine and Martha Washington colors, each guest being provided with a cup and saucer to wear at the table, where the refreshments were carried out in the same color scheme. Those invited to enjoy the afternoon were: Mrs. Jeffries, Pansburn, Lucas, Hubbard, Merrett, Knutson, Dye, Woods, Oubout, E. G. and A. L. Jeffries and the hostess, J. E. Reedy has sold his residence property on 2nd avenue and Seventh street to M. D. Pine, new county agriculturalist.

Tillamook Ore., Jan. 24, 1921 To the stockholders of Holstein Creamery Co.:

Following is my report as secretary-salesman for the year 1920: Factory received 5,029,827 pounds of milk during the year. There were 191,445.52 actual lbs. of butterfat in this milk, an average test of 3.86 per cent. Because of the 6 plus method, the butterfat was figured as 221,642.48 lbs. and the test as 4.46 per cent.

543,212 lbs. of cheese were manufactured during the year, making 7,839 boxes. The yield for the year was 10.50 lbs. per 100 lbs. of milk. An average of 2.83 lbs. of cheese made for each lb. of butterfat. Cheese sold for $161,465.81. The average price was 29.72 cents, Tillamook.

2,430.12 lbs. of butterfat was recovered from whey cream and sold for $5,644.97.

Making charges during the year amounted to $24,479.44.

Expenses during the year were $21,596.43.

$3,983.11 was added to the value of the buildings and equipment by the construction of the cheese-maker's residence, and $1,124.14 was deducted for depreciation.

SHELTER COVE HOMESTEAD TO be sold. I, the undersigned, will sell my homestead of 160 acres, part of it cleared and in grass, the other in small brush such as vine maple, bear berry, salmon berry and a few scattered alders, very easily cleared. Fern and logs very few. There is a house, barn, orchard and good meadow. Accommodate 12 or 15 head of cattle. There is also 10 or 12 tons of Chittum bark on the place. This place lies in a cove, surrounded by high mountains east north and west; facing the south; the warmest and most sheltered place in Tillamook County, so deserves the name of Shelter Cove. The land can't be beat, will grow anything; some of it as good as river bottom. Part of it can be irrigated from the creek that runs through the place, which supplies water all through the summer. If you are looking for a good and cheap place, here is a chance. For further information apply to owner on the place, Manuel Suanes, Beaver, Tillamook County, Oregon. 11-13(1f)

THE BEGINNING OF A BANK-NOTE

Little Marcia's baby dress though made of the finest linen was ultimately worn threadbare. One day it landed in the rag bag and was sold to the junk dealer. When the rag sorter touched the discarded garment he detected in a flash the fine quality of the flax and set it aside for a journey to the Bureau of Engraving and Printing at Washington. Eventually it became legal tender—a bank-note. Just how it is told in one of the beautiful booklets about Our Government which we are sending each month to those interested.

Just send us your name and address and you will receive a copy of every issue of the series without charge.
