The following bulletin has been issued by the National Judge Advocate of the Legion:

"Attention is directed to members of The American Legion that many men are listed in the deserters' list of the Adjutant General's Office by reason of the fact that subsequent to registration they entered military service and did not advise their local board..."

"The work of clearing this list will be materially assisted if all men who are at all doubtful about their present status will write to the Adjutant General of the Army setting forth their full name, local board, residence at the time of registration and order number, if possible."

"Many other men were inducted in the service during the time of the influenza epidemic and led before reporting. The names of such men probably appear as deserters also."

"Any member of the Legion knowing of such person should so notify the Adjutant General with all possible information."

"Any individual or post of the American Legion suspecting a draft deserter or delinquent should so notify the Adjutant General of the Army, giving the full name of the suspected deserter or delinquent, together with his residence at time of registration and order number if that can be obtained."

Six Thousand Refugee Greeks Reported in Fearful Plight.

People at Batum Lack Clothing and Shelter and Are Dying at Rate of From 35 to 50 a Day.

New York.—Six thousand Greek refugees at Batum, Transcaucasia, their clothing worn to shreds, are "living like wild animals in dens" and dying at the rate of from thirty-five to fifty a day, writes Dr. W. E. Rambo, a Near East Relief worker of West Philadelphia, Pa., in a report from the Black sea port received here.

In what he calls "a tragic exodus that bids to become historic," Dr. Rambo says the Greek government already has repatriated 20,000 who emigrated from the Near East to colonize Thrace and that from 10,000 to 12,000 remain to be transported from Batum back to their homeland.

Most of these, he says, are physically strong, but the 6,000 refugees from other regions who flocked to Batum in the expectation of relief have been in that city five months, waiting in vain for help, their condition daily becoming more desperate on account of the rigors of the present Georgian winter.

The Greek government, Dr. Rambo explains, disclaiming responsibility for the plight of the people, has undertaken, through humane considerations only, to feed and doctor the refugees, but, so far, has declined to transport them to Greece, on the ground that there is insufficient housing there to shelter them.

"Meanwhile," the letter says, "the 6,000 are overcrowded in barnlike unfit for human habitation. The families have no privacy. Some are lying in bed day and night because they have no clothing to protect them from the cold or cover their nakedness. Unless speedy relief comes to these people, most of them will die during the winter. Already the remnants of the original refugees are in despair. One of them said to me: 'We are no longer waiting for ships; we are waiting for death.' Of 5,767 in this party in the beginning, only about 2,400 remain—3,367 are dead. Another party of 6,800 has 2,800 survivors—4,000 are dead. Of the survivors 700 are ill."
