CANNERY MEETING TOMORROW NIGHT

Attempt Will Be Made To Insure Coming of New Industry To This City

PROPER SITE WILL BE ONE MATTER DISCUSSED

Large Acreage of Loganberries To Be Planted If Factory Is Located Here

Owing to the fact that the discussion of the loganberry industry was crowded out at the last meeting of the Tillamook Chamber of Commerce another meeting is arranged for tomorrow evening (Friday) at the City Hall, at 8 o'clock, and to insure that the matter be given proper attention, this will be the only thing discussed at that time, or until such time as the matter is disposed of.

This is a matter that is highly important to the business interests of Tillamook City, as it will mean a big pay roll and a permanent industry. It is hoped that every business man and those interested in the loganberry industry from other parts of the county will be present, for the Chamber of Commerce extends a cordial invitation to them.

Quite a number of persons have decided to plant more berries this year, and the interest in the loganberry industry is growing and it is now necessary that provisions be made to can them. The Graves brothers, who have made a success of this industry in other places, will be present to discuss the matter with the business men and other citizens. Be sure to attend and help give the city another pay roll.

G. A. R. ENDORSES STAND TAKEN BY MAYOR MOUTON

Corinth Post No. 35, Department of Oregon, G. A. R., at its regular meeting Saturday, Feb. 26, 1921, passed the following Preamble and Resolutions and ordered copies sent to the city papers:

Whereas, the G. A. R. stands for the best interests and deprecation of nation, state and community—stands for real patriotism, for loyal and impartial enforcement of all laws regardless of the lawlessness or complexity of law-enforcement officers, therefore,

Resolved, that we are pleased and encouraged by the patriotic proclamation of Mayor Moulton appearing in the city papers of February 17, and that we pledge him our personal and community influence to the utmost and in carrying out every laudable and necessary reform not only of the Bolshevistic booze nuisance and disgrace but of any other corrupting practice which may prevail here; also,

Resolved, that we urge every patriotic order to notify the Mayor of their loyalty, and the women of the city that they may make their influence efficient and their ballot stand along these lines; also that we urge the city council and the churches to redeem their good name from the constant taunt that they are weak and inefficient in these matters and to get so evidently behind the Mayor, so plainly helpful to him that no one will dare repeat this slander in the future; and finally we urge everybody to stand by the Mayor and LET HIM KNOW IT.

Library Notes.
The library has been receiving many of their orders of books recently, and there is much of interest besides the fiction.

Sometimes the books in the children's section are very interesting to older readers and it would be hard to justly designate a book as belonging exclusively in either section.

A few of the interesting books are: Ingpen, 100 poems; Holland, Historic poems and ballads; Slusser, Luther Burbank and his plant school; Sharp, Where Rolls the Oregon; Beard, What a Girl Can Do; Adams, When Mother Lets Us Model; Champlin, Young Folks' Encyclopedia of games and sports; White, Book of Games; Claudy, Book of Base Ball; Bordeaux, Guyonmer, Knight of the Air; Rolt-Wheeler, Boy With the U. S. Life-savers.

CONTRIBUTIONS FOR RELIEF FUND

The local Near East Relief committee is asking Tillamook people for contributions for the fund of $4000 which is to be raised here for the relief of the millions of starving Chinese and the sufferers in Syria and Armenia.

It is reported that in some of the devastated areas parents are drowning their children to relieve them of the suffering when a little help from America would save them from all this. The drought in China during the last three years has been so great that the people are starving by millions. In some places it is said that the rivers are clogged with the bodies of the dead. Such conditions could be greatly relieved if each community appealed to would furnish its allotment.

Within the next few weeks everyone will be given a chance to help relieve this suffering and the local committee hopes to get a generous response from Tillamook county.

CLOVERDALE HIGH SCHOOL SHOW GREAT SUCCESS

Cloverdale, March 7—(Special)—The stunt show and frolic given by the Cloverdale High School Friday evening was well attended and enjoyed by all present. Romeo and Juliet were there, and so was Mary Pickford, and some other noted characters. St. Peter and a bunch of trained cats were also present. $103 was taken in to add to the piano fund.

The entertainment was given under the direction of Principal W. E. Buell and Miss Claire Warner. The program was as follows:

Madam Majeska and her marvelous musical Moving Manakins.
Susie Slang; sad story of Susie and how she saw the sin of her sorrowful short comings.

Henry VIII, wedded seven wives; comes back to earth to search for the eighth.

Painful Performance of Pityful Pleasure—Otherwise, Indigestion.
Thomas Chorus, Clownish Cats Continually Calling.

Rambling Romeo and Jazzy Juliet. Romeo committed Moonshinings, and Juliet also.

Frolisome Flowers grow gradually and Scarecrows scamper skittishly.

Boys boldly burlesque girls' physical torture with fantastic forms.

Peppy Program of Freakish Frush, representing ridiculous raving of overperclament.

Doctor's Dope derived from the same big bottle mends all maladies.

The proceeds of the evening's entertainment will be used to pay for a new piano. About three hundred people attended.

WOULD ABOLISH COMMISSIONS

A mass meeting was held in the court house last Wednesday night for the discussion of the problems confronting the taxpayers of Oregon and Tillamook county in particular.

About 200 persons were present and many able speakers performed though there was considerable difference of opinion between them.

Many of those who attended did so because they thought that problems of a more local nature were to be taken up, but the main question for discussion was whether or not to attempt to have all state commissions dissolved. Webster Holmes made a motion, which was carried, that petitions be drawn up and signed showing that the sentiment of the meeting was in favor of abolishing all commissions and repealing all laws creating state commissions. The state highway commission was charged by one speaker with squandering over two millions of dollars in road money since its establishment in 1917. Other bodies came in for similar attacks.

F. A. Beltz stated that the people of this county would make themselves ridiculous by attempting to abolish all commissions in one sweep and suggested a less radical method of going about the matter. He was supported by C. W. Barlick in this. R. W. Watson differed however. Mr. Watson stated that he could see nothing ridiculous in the action they were taking.

Giving the prevailing feeling of sectionalism a body blow, A. A. Hall expressed the opinion that community meetings should be held quite often to enable people to thrash out such problems and get them off their minds.

Senator Edwards took the floor and explained the difficulties of trying to make a strong opposition in the legislature to some of the measures on account of the lobbyist who usually infested the place. He readily admitted that the highways built by the county were put down at less expense and were better than the ones laid by the state highway commission.

Mr. Edwards stated that in case the state industrial accident commission were dissolved it would be absolutely necessary to carry on the work in some way either by the state department or by private companies.

The meeting adjourned about 12 o'clock with no definite course of action.

Ackley & Miller, proprietors of the Sunset Garage, are making great changes in the workshop part of that establishment. They have secured the services of the Letson brothers, formerly of the Martiny garage, and are enlarging their shop.

A separate stock room has been installed presided over by I. W. White and it is intended to check out every bit of material used in repair or construction.

Such modern methods have received scant attention in this city before and when the alterations are completed the Sunset will be one of the most up-to-date organizations in the state.

BISHOP WM. O. SHEPARD TO VISIT OUR CITY

On next Saturday evening, Mar. 12th, Bishop Wm. O. Shepard of the Portland area, will arrive in Tillamook, accompanied by the Dist. Superintendent of the Salem district, Dr. E. E. Gilbert. A committee of Tillamook citizens will meet the train and give these visitors an opportunity to see this city and as much of the adjacent country as time will permit.

At 7 o'clock a dinner will be served at the Methodist Church by the ladies of the church and congregation in honor of these distinguished churchmen.

HIGH SCHOOL PLAY FRIDAY, MAR. 18

A girl of American parents, left an orphan in Japan, the usual villain, trying to make away with her property, the girl's Japanese foster parent trying to marry her to another Japanese for political reasons, and the American who falls in love with her and saves her from her plight, furnishes the plot for the High School operetta, "Miss Cherryblossom," to be given Friday March 18th.

Miss Evelyn Barnes, an American girl born in Japan, and whose parents die of fever, is brought up as a Japanese maiden. Her father's secretary uses her property for his own advancement when Evelyn, who is known as Cherryblossom is about eighteen. Worthington (the secretary) returns to Japan on his yacht with party of American friends. One of them, John Henry Smith, falls in love with Cherry and wishes to marry her but Kokema, who has brought her up as his own daughter, wants her to marry Togo, a rich politician.

The action of the piece centers around Jack's efforts to outwit Togo and Kokema. Eventually, Cherry learns her true identity, comes into her rightful property, marries Jack and all ends happily.

$200 AND COSTS FOR BOOTLEGGER

In the case against James Hiatt charged with boot-legging, the jury was out about three minutes when they returned and brought in a verdict of guilty. Hiatt was fined $200 and costs.

The point of evidence that apparently influenced the verdict of the jury was the fact that a piece of the still that had become worn out was found near Hiatt's house and that the house in which the still was found was locked with a padlock and hasp, the latter made of a strap hinge. Several pairs of strap hinges of this same kind were found in Hiatt's house and one pair was broken. Hiatt disclaims any knowledge of how the hinges came to be in his residence.

The case was tried before the justice court this week.

BAR VIEW NEWS ITEMS

Bar View, Oregon, March 9.—(Special)—Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Nelson left for Portland this week, Mrs. Nelson having been called thither by the sudden death of her sister. The Nelsons are an exceptionally nice couple and the entire community extends its sympathy to them in their time of trouble.

S. H. Brainard and wife, who have been visiting the Sippells for the past week or so have returned to their home in Portland.

If there is such an animal as a hegira it surely has been in Bar View lately. Among those who have made their exodus from the settlement are C. E. Gardner and family, who have moved to their ranch near Tillamook, Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Turnbull, and Mr. and Mrs. Givens.

We are glad to see Mrs. E. D. Severance back on the job again after her more-or less protracted illness.

Any time you Tillamookers want to see the worst piece of road in the county take a ride out to Bar View—fortunately the residents here are just the opposite. We are afraid the powers that preside over the roads have lost what little affection they had for us or they would put in a plank or two just to show their good will.

The Get Together Club under the able presidency of A. J. Cummings scored another bullseye in the dance given under its auspices Saturday evening last. About 60 couples kept the floor in continuous vibration until nearly midnight when lunch was served. The G. T. part of the club name certainly spells Good Time whenever they put anything on the boards.

There is a brand new babe at the Snowdown home—she don't get excited it is only a "babe." Jim says she is kind of such easier to manage for thought specifically has the opinion you don't really have to sit up with it at night.

Dr. Wise has purchased the two vacant corners in the center of town and will improve them with buildings.

Mr. L. M. Alley is improving his lot with a fine new home.

Mr. B. J. Parker left for Portland after a visit here for a few days. But is a good scout and he can't get around too often to suit us. While here he slipped a monkey wrench in the machinery of the gossiping fraternity that will keep them busy for a time.

George P. Winslow, H. T. Botts, W. D. Pine and A. H. Gaylord were business visitors to Cloverdale this week.

The front of Smithy's Variety store has undergone a change this week, more window room being added.

Mrs. Dan Goodspeed has bought the old Larson place as a residence. The family will move about the first of the month.

PROTEST MADE TO RAILROAD HEADS

High Freight Rates Cause Idleness And General Business Depression

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE ASKS LOWERED RATES

Roosevelt Camp Grounds To Be In Readiness For Tourist After This Week

(By Fred C. Baker)

The Chamber of Commerce sent telegrams to the heads of four railroad companies in the Middle West on Saturday relating to the excessive freight rates on lumber, as follows:

"Owing to unjust, prohibitive rates on lumber, saw mills are closed down, eight hundred men out of employment, causing stagnation in all lines of business, also in passenger and freight business on railroad. Imperative that rates prior to last August be restored immediately. Conditions on account of stagnation getting bad.

When the railroad rates were raised on lumber it killed the goose that laid the golden egg, not only injuring the railroads, but caused stagnation in all kinds of business, and Tillamook, like all other places where lumber mills are situated, is now suffering and will continue to suffer until the railroads restore the freight rates that prevailed previous to August 20, 1920.

The Roosevelt Camp Grounds, which the Chamber of Commerce has been putting into park like shape, will be completed this week, with the exception of a little grading to level that part of the grounds that need leveling. Over 400 trees have been planted, and these have been protected from damage by running rows of fences, and the fences all put in good order. The house which the campers use has been painted. All that remains to be done is to put in electric plates for cooking or building a number of dutch ovens to finish up the improvements, with the exception of planting some flowers so as to give the grounds a more park like appearance, which it is hoped the ladies of the ladies of the city will take in hand.

The city needs a clean-up week. It is surprising the amount of dirt and rubbish there is in different part of the city, especially around resident property and the back of business houses. No one should be allowed to dump manure around their property and allow it to rot and stink, and those who persist in doing so should be prosecuted. However, here is need of a general clean up of the city and every person, who rents property, as well as those who own property, should cast their eyes about their own places before casting their optics at the dirt and rubbish about their neighbors places. There is going to be a great influx of visitors into the country this year, and it is highly necessary to clean up and that it be kept cleaned up.

Every business man should be interested in the loganberry industry that is if they are interested in the business development of Tillamook city and county, for that is an industry that will give the city a good pay roll, something that is greatly needed and must have if the city is to have development and prosperity. To help boost the loganberry industry the Chamber of Commerce has arranged a very important meeting for Friday evening, March 11, at the City Hall at 8 P.M. All the Tillamook City boosters will be present, and the entire evening will be given up for the discussion of the loganberry industry. The meeting however, is not confined to the business men, but all those who are interested in the matter are cordially invited to attend from different parts of the country.

The country is saved—there's a level-headed editor at the head of the government.

Card of Thanks

We wish to thank our many friends for their kindness shown at the death of our beloved husband and father.

MRS. P. HANSEN,
ARTHUR HANSEN.

Alfred Anderson has bought the C. J. Edwards place on First street and will move there shortly.
