POVERTY SPURS GENIUS OF POOR

Viennese Invent New Jobs for Earning Living When Old Methods Fail.

GENTEEL DANCERS FOR HIRE

Rich Man's Son and Wife Dance in Public for Pay—Sifters of Refuse Find So Much Profit Capitalists Crowd Them Out.

Vienna.—The Viennese of the poorer classes have always been noted for inventing queer jobs to get a living by.

The "carriage-door-opener" waited for the close of theater performances to open and shut carriage-doors for those that drove away, who willingly gave a tip for this voluntary service. The "waterman" at cabstands washed the spokes of the wheels and the hoods of the horses when the cab came back from a drive, and this useful work was paid for by the fare, not by the coachman, who was too proud to do it.

Ald for the Lottery Shy.
 Outside the government lottery office an old woman would offer to play the numbers or even to advise what numbers to play if any person lingering near looked too shy to enter the shop.

These and a great many other jobs of the same kind no longer exist, since Vienna has been struck down by misfortune and her citizens have no money for anything but the bare necessities of life.

On the outskirts of the city, where big factories are surrounded by high chimneys, there is still much building ground waiting for future enterprise. Here enormous mounds of refuse have accumulated, consisting chiefly of ashes and cinders. Some poor woman who could not bear the sight of her children shivering around the cold stove, may have been the first to visit the refuse heaps with a hook and basket in search of bits of unconsumed coal. Her example was soon followed, and in the course of bitter winters the number of people grabbing for coke increased to a small army.

The next to appear on the stage of this new profession was the capitalist, who took over the product of the coke-grabbers' efforts and distributed it to the channels of underhand traffic. Some of these have already become millionaires—of course, Austrian crown millionaires.

A very short time ago students of the highest class in the best grammar school of Vienna (the Schottengymnasium) were caught in the act of selling an enormous quantity of firewood (which did not exist) to a syndicate of bankers. The students had formed a stock company and were buying and selling on speculation to the amount of millions.

Genteel Dancers for Hire.

In one of the most popular night restaurants an elegant couple appears every evening at the same hour and is welcomed enthusiastically by the owner and his regular guests. These two open the dance with a fox trot around the room. They are generally considered the most faithful guests of the place. Only a small number are in the secret of their real character. The woman is his wife, whom he married against the will of a purse-proud father. The 10,000 crowns a month paid by the father to the prodigal are not sufficient to keep this lively young pair in clothing and food, so they resolved to earn their bread. But the only thing in the world that they could do well was to fox trot. The exquisite way in which they danced together in their counting days made them generally admired. Now the owner of the night restaurant pays them 40,000 crowns a month, treats them with the greatest respect as the most honored guests of the place and gives them an excellent champagne supper every night. Why should boys learn Greek and Latin, mathematics and history when fox trotting promises so much more brilliant a career? Business ethics and morals certainly have gone astray, but only a Pharisee could blame this people on that account.

CUTS FUSE OF BURNING BOMB

Plotters Fire on Watchman in Brooklyn Building Who Prevents Explosion.

New York.—A sputtering fuse, attached to a large square bomb in the basement of a house in process of reconstruction in Brooklyn, was cut just in the nick of time by the night watchman, Tony Franko.

The fuse was severed two inches from the bomb. Franko was so badly burned while hacking at the fuse with a pocket knife that he had to be taken to a hospital. His condition is serious.

He told physicians that as he went into the cellar he saw two men, one of whom had just lighted a match. They ran away after firing shots at him.

Dentist Sent Airplane After Patient.

Little Sioux, Ia.—Insisting that William Peterson, farmer, should have dental work done immediately, a dentist of Omaha, Neb., sent an airplane after him to save time for the busy farmer.

William Duncan has a strong role in "God's Country and the Woman." He is plunged into mystery from the moment he meets Josephine until the final close out. He is forced to fight his way every inch of the film. It is a spectacular production of the country north of 53. One of James Oliver Curwood's best stories. At the Rex Saturday, March 12th.

TAYLOR'S HOUN' DAWG

Governor of Tennessee Will Keep Famous Animal at Home.

Would Veto Proposition for Appropriation to Build Home for "Old Limber" on Mansion Grounds.

Nashville.—Old Limber the only dog whose yelp was ever heard in a political campaign in Tennessee, has not been tempted from his familiar haunts in the Happy valley vicinity by the bright lights of the capital, at which his master, Gov. Alf Taylor, is presiding.

Reports that the Democratic legislature contemplated making an appropriation on the mansion grounds for a house for Old Limber, have led his master to announce that he will promptly veto such a proposition, and keep Old Limber at home.

Old Limber furnished much material for Governor Taylor's speeches during his campaign. The governor always gave a graphic recital of Old Limber's prowess as a fox hunter. "Old Limber is being well cared for in a good home in east Tennessee and gets three square meals a day," is the last word from the governor on the subject. "He would not be contented in the city. He wants to be where he can occasionally survey the lofty mountains over whose heights he has many times chased the fox with the rest of the pack making music at his heels. Old Limber is nine years old, and is too old to run now, but he remembers and often dreams of his past achievements."

"If you have never heard Old Limber in full cry," the governor continues, growing more eloquent, "you have never heard music. He is gifted in every note, and in a chase, at one time or another, he will let you have all of them. You could distinguish Old Limber's voice from the rest of the pack right miles away. Honest! "That dog never led to me in his life. He has never been known to yelp on a cold trail. Whenever the voice of Old Limber is heard, everybody knows that there is a fox around."

The governor's east Tennessee home place boasts not only "Old Limber," the most famous bound dog in Tennessee, but also a son, who has taken his place as pack leader, and a grandson as well.

LIZARDS MAKE AUTOS SKID

Plague Afflicting Towns and Villages Which Border on Prairie Lakes of Canada.

Winnipeg, Man.—A plague of lizards is afflicting the towns and villages which border on the prairie lakes and sluces of Canada. At Ninette 2,000 lizards were shoveled out of the basement window shaft at the government sanatorium. In the doctor's quarters 60 were counted.

Motorcar drivers have to keep still chains on their cars, as the roads are made slippery by a surface of living lizards. Many of the people keep indoors rather than venture out because of the disagreeable sensation of crunching a lizard underfoot. The lizard is more treacherous than banana peel.

The little reptiles, which vary from four inches to eighteen inches in length, travel by night only, and are now on their annual trek from the lakes to find suitable crevices in which to hibernate.

Father Sells Girl for 10 Cents a Pound, She Says

Lexington, Ky.—A report from Stanford, Lincoln county, says that George Isaaman, a farmer of the mountain section, has been placed in jail at Stanford on a charge made by his daughter, Annie, eighteen, that her father had attempted to shoot her. The girl charges her father sold her at 10 cents a pound, a total of $15, to Joseph Zubra. When he came to the home some weeks later to claim his purchase, the father was greatly displeased at the girl's refusal to carry out the terms of the sale and tried to shoot her. Isaaman and his family are highly respected in their rural community, it is said. The girl is pretty and well educated.

NEW WARSHIP IN JAP FLEET

"Nagato" Takes Place Among Largest Fighting Vessels Afloat in the World Today.

Tokyo.—Japan's latest battleship Nagato, has a dead-weight tonnage of 23,800 and can develop a speed of 23 knots per hour.

Its length is 900 feet. The armament of the new addition to the Japanese fleet includes eight 15-inch guns and twenty 6-inch guns. It is fitted with four turbine engines. The Nagato takes a place among the largest battle ships afloat today, its 23,800 tons comparing with the British Hood, 41,000 tons, and the American Tennessee, 32,000 tons.

Two insane Women Farm Death Pact.
 Middleboro, N. Y.—Chiffie in white, roach powder, brushed up from the door, had been placed, was drunk with fatal results by Charlotte Wheeler, thirty-two years old, and Maria H. Miller, forty-five, inmates of the state insane asylum in fulfillment of a suicide pact.

An authentic reproduction of what actually happens back of the curtain blue on the opening night of a new Broadway show, is most truthfully presented on the screen in Katherine MacDonald's latest photoplay, "Curtain!" This picture of theatrical life is technically correct in every detail. "Curtain!" will be shown at the Rex Theater Wed. March 16th. It is a First National attraction.

TOXIC CANDLES AS WAR WEAPON

Diphénylchlorarsine Develops Vapor Which Penetrates Gas Masks, Says Expert.

SMOKE CANDLES ARE USEFUL

Conceal Movements of Small Groups of Men Close at Hand—British Developed Candles Which Were Used by All the Allies.

Philadelphia.—Toxic smoke candles, recently developed, will have an extensive use in future wars, in the opinion of L. I. Shaw of the Internal Bureau of Mines, who recently spoke on "Smoke and Incendiary Material" before the Franklin Institute.

"Smoke candles, so called," he said, "are small cylindrical boxes which are ignited by some sort of friction device, and which contains smoke producing mixtures. Their use is in setting up a smoke screen close at hand, for after ignition they are simply set on the ground, not being thrown or projected in any way. The need is very apparent to make the movements of small groups of men close at hand possible."

Tried by British.
 "The British, early in the war, developed very satisfactory smoke candles which were used by all the allies. The Americans also developed a candle which was satisfactory, but which did not get into production and use in France before the armistice. The smoke is normally white, must have maximum capacity and be cool enough to prevent the setting up of air currents and thus rise from the ground. It must be heavy so as to be displaced by the minimum amount of wind at low velocity. These requirements are admirably met by candles which produce a smoke consisting of zinc chloride."

"As regards the future of incendiary material, my own opinion, which opinion, however, is substantiated by at least some of the military critics, is that incendiary material, except for small arms and long range shell and drop bombs, will have at least a limited and, perhaps, no use. The flame projectors will probably never be used in a future war. Smoke material, on the other hand, will have a very extensive and ever-increasing use. By the use of the smoke screen during an attack the casualties can be largely reduced."

CATS DO NOT RECOGNIZE MILK

Refuse to Drink Strange Liquid in Hungary—Pet Dogs Turn Vagrants.

Budapest.—Even the cats and dogs of Central Europe have degenerated as a result of the war, says Professor Balkanyi, director of the veterinary schools here, who is investigating how the habits of domestic animals have been influenced by that cause.

"Most of the town-bred cats in this part of the world refuse to drink milk, because it is unknown to them, due to the lack of milk during the war, the professor asserts.

"Both cats and dogs are relapsing to the savage ways of their untamed ancestors," he says. "The vagrancy of dogs is startling. Pet dogs elope from heart-broken mistresses, joining packs of mangy village dogs, where they live in communist equality."

The same authority stated that, besides hydrophobia, nervous diseases are very frequent among animals, and that stock must be replenished from overseas.

Man's Gold Tooth Stolen by Expert Pickpocket
 New Orleans.—There is in New Orleans a pickpocket who is expert enough to fulfill the time-honored specification test of being "able to steal a man's gold teeth." He demonstrated this when he stole a gold tooth which had previously been the property of Adrien A. Chazille, 1030 St. Philip street. However, the tooth happened to be in Mr. Chazille's purse at the time, and it was the purse which the pickpocket took while its owner was a passenger in the Louisiana avenue street car.
