Jasper, Ind.—Judge John L. Bretz, who while on the bench had a set of rules which barred discourtesy, is dead. His rules read as follows: "Witnesses and parties will be required to treat attorneys with proper respect and likewise attorneys will be required to treat witnesses and parties with decency and respect, both in examination and argument. Use of words 'liar, perjurer, scoundrel,' etc., in argument is forbidden."

THE BOOSTER COLUMN

(By Fred C. Baker)

"If I were to disassociate myself from the newspaper business I would be attracted to a Chamber of Commerce, because business is the life blood of material existence, and no community is worth while unless it is every alert to business progress and greater commercial development.

"I like to think that the thing which boosts the community is certain to make progress for the nation, and I should like our great republic to head the list of the great commercial nations of the earth."

Warren G. Harding

The slogan for the semi-monthly News Letter of the State Chamber of Commerce is "Keep Oregon Going Ahead." That means "Keep Tillamook Going Ahead." Every section of Oregon must do its part in the upbuilding of the state.

The West Coast Lumbermen's Association sent this letter to the Tillamook Chamber of Commerce:

"This will acknowledge receipt of your favor of recent date, transmitting copy of telegrams sent to the traffic executives of the western railroads.

We much appreciate your prompt response and assistance in our problem, which we feel is of such vital importance to the Pacific Northwest. We are doing everything in our power to bring about an adjustment in these rates which we feel will move the tonnage, and want to again thank you for your hearty cooperation."

It is owing to the unfair rates on lumber that is the cause of the saw mills being closed and so many men out of work, and the Tillamook Chamber of Commerce urged the rates that were in vogue upto August 20, 1920. They were raised after that date, and since then there has been stagnation in the lumber industry and on the railroads.

The House, declared in an address in Portland recently that the Roosevelt Highway when completed will rank well up among the scenic highways of the whole country. And Mr. Bennett has added with a good deal of truth that the people of Portland will enjoy and appreciate the Roosevelt Highway more than people from any section of the state.

Wanted, a name for the Portland, Astoria, Tillamook, Sheridan and McMinville loop. As this loop will be a most interesting drive for the people of Portland and the visitors to the 1925 fair in that city, it might not be out of place to call it the "Pacific Ocean Loop."

There was a fairly good attendance of business men at the city hall on Friday evening, but when any thing comes up for consideration that means a pay roll for the city, every business man should take a lively interest in matters of that importance, for every business man will admit that if Tillamook City is to have a population of 20,000 people, some united effort must be devised to obtain industry is not only important to the development of the city, but it is far reaching, extending to other parts of the county that is looking to this city to solve the problem of building a fruit cannery. As soon as this matter is settled there will be a large acreage of loganberries planted. Most every phase of the loganberry industry was discussed on Friday evening, but that of most importance was the proposition of the Graves Bros., to erect a cannery costing 25,000 dollars provided that the business men would take a small amount of stock. This looks to be a perfectly proper proposition and a mistake not to be made if the conditions are complied with. The Graves Brothers have made a success in other places, and every town that they have located in have wonderfully increased in business. The outcome of the meeting on Friday evening resulted in this: The Graves Brothers were requested to put their proposition in writing and submit it to a committee composed of Fred C. Baker and E. M. Condit, of this city, and Clarence Provost, of Bay City. The question of site for the cannery was also discussed, the city offering to give what is known as the gravel pit for the purpose.

The Palmolive Company, of Portland, is in the market for a considerable quantity of tallow, and any person or firm in this county having tallow for sale should communicate with the company.

High School Notes

Next Friday night the operetta "Miss Cherry Blossom" will be presented by the Glee Club of T. H. S. This play has for its principals Alma Furrer as "Miss Cherry Blossom," James Sharp, "Koko," Lee Stephens as "Jack Smith," Art Harris as "Henry Jones," Errol Halton as "Horse," Worthington, Henry Boehler, as "James Young," Jessie Vandpool, "La Verna Holden," Glen Anderson, "Togo." This play promises to be a success as much time has been spent in preparation by the Glee club and by Miss Hanselman, director. The operetta will be given in the High School gymnasium. Seats have been purchased and the patrons will be made as comfortable as possible. The scenery has arrived and the stage is being arranged and the scene of much commotion due to the efforts of managers Mrs. L. A. Harvey, Mr. and Mrs. R.

Harris and Anderson. Also the curtain has arrived which was purchased by the glee club for the gym. This is certainly a fine curtain and the students of T. H. S. are grateful to the glee club for it.

Last Thursday Miss Case of Ellison-White Lyceum bureau spoke to the assembly about a Lyceum course for the coming winter season. Three programs will be tendered the people of Tillamook and vicinity at various times this coming season. The students voted to encumber themselves with this project and he cooperation of the towns people is desired.

Rodney Farley student body vice-president gave a short talk on the "Benefits of a Lyceum Course to Students." This talk was very much enjoyed by the students and evidence of this was shown in the applause that followed.

The "convicts" of T. H. S. held a meeting Tuesday and decided to change their name and policy in order to be given a space in "The Mer-Maid" the 1922 annual of T. H. S. This was done in accordance with a decree issued by Prof. Bennett, Tuesday.

"The Mer-Maid" the annual compiled by the 1922 class will be ready for distribution April 1st. The price will be $1.25.

Last Thursday a student body meeting was held and resolutions presented by Art Harris, to support track were adopted unanimously. As far as is known at present the last basketball game of the season will be played next Sat. night at the High School gymnasium. Our opponents will be Wilson River Athletic club and our purpose is to win the county championship. The support of the students and town people in general is desired to make the close of the season a grand success. We departed Wilson River in the first game of the series and hope to win the second, otherwise a post season championship game will be necessary. Come and support your high school teams.

Barview Activities

Barview, Ore. Mar. 16—(Special)—S. L. Nelson is back again helping the guards at the Life Saving station pass away the time. Mrs. Nelson remained with her mother in Portland, who is in poor health. Quite a number of society people in Barview took in the hop at Bay City last Saturday evening given for the benefit of the new Masonic building. Among those who went from here were Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Bigelow, Mr. and Mrs. Woodcock, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Harvey, Mr. and Mrs. R.

improvement to the Highway Commission, and thereby secure uniform road building where most needed. From the scope of the bill I should judge that any kind of road which the Commission will approve can be constructed, whether it be paved roads or post roads, and it will undoubtedly result in the communities which undertake to operate under a measure securing help either from the Highway Commission out of post road funds, or from market road funds, or from both.

Let those who are interested in obtaining better roads take their pen and do a little figuring as to what can be done under this measure and how little it will cost to do it.

LOYAL M. GRAHAM

Mr. Graham is a member of the Roads and Highway Committee of the 14th Legislative Assembly and is well informed on the above subject. Any one wishing further information on Senate Bill No. 354 will doubtless receive it by writing to Mr. Graham, crossing him at Forrest Grove.

Commission in carrying out the provisions of the law. The Trustees must be residents of the district. The kind of road, letting of contracts, completion of construction, grades, surveys and all the details of road construction are in the hands of the highway Commission working with the Trustees. The amount and kind of bonds, and the length of their run, are left to the Commission and Trustees, but no more than ten per cent of the assessed property valuation can be issued in bonds. The issuance of the bonds is left to the Trustees, and they determine the time and interest, and provide for a tax each year not to exceed one per cent to retire the bonds.

The measure has the "ear marks" of having been carefully worked out and safeguarded against wild schemes by its having to submit the proposed
