Some Cloverdale people are advocating changing the name of our town from Cloverdale to Nestucca. They think Cloverdale a misnomer, and that even Graysdale would be more appropriate. That as the town is on the bank of the Big Nestucca river, and is the actual metropolis of the Nestucca valley, the name "Nestucca" should be given to the town. The Enterprise columns are open for a discussion of the question, and as a starter we suggest that the change be made when we apply for a charter of incorporation. —Cloverdale Enterprise.
