

BETTER SCHOOL FACILITIES PLANNED

Washington, April 20—Important steps in the direction of providing better educational facilities for the entire country will be worked out by the Republican leaders of the House and Senate during the new Congress.

It is the idea of the committee on education of the Congress, that the facts warrant the enactment of remedial legislation. They call attention to the fact that in the United States at the present time are 3,200,000, white illiterates, and 2,180,000 negro illiterates. There are 5,000,000 foreign-born residents of the country who cannot read or write English. Two millions cannot read or write any language. Three and a half millions cannot speak or write English.

The financial loss estimated by the committee was $825,000,000 annually.

The Director of Mines and Mining recently showed that out of a million men employed in the mines, 20,000 were foreigners, and 460,000 could not speak English. He attributed 1,000 deaths and 150,000 injuries in the mines annually to illiteracy.

One-half of the industrial accidents that occur annually are attributed to illiteracy.

The first draft in the recent war disclosed the startling fact that one-fourth of the boys called to the colors were illiterates.

Between 25 and 30 per cent were physically defective, and it is insisted that 90 per cent of the defects could have been removed by intelligent training as to hygiene and simple diseases during childhood.

Of the total draft, 700,000 were illiterates. With our boys called to the colors, the ages being from just below 20 to just above 30, out of 4,000,000, 700,000 were illiterates.

These facts are startling and should shock our national conscience.

Let us turn to the present condition of the teaching body of the United States. The average pay of teachers does not exceed $650 a year.

One hundred thousand are less than 20 years of age; 30,000 have only a grammar school education; 200,000 have less than a high school education.

In the lingo of Black Mike Silva, are no such words as fear and honor. When the king of Frisco's underworld reforms, he disdainfully seizes his place. Respectability annoys Black Mike, and he "frames" his former pal, for a stretch in prison. Then he turns his attention to his pal's daughter.

The man he selected to betray her to the police double crosses Black Mike. The crook who has already played stool pigeon to insure the downfall of the girl, now is a fugitive from the law. For months Black Mike and his spies search for the man and the girl that outwitted them. Not only for revenge is Black Mike thirsting, but for possession of the "haul"—jewels that are worth a fortune. One of Black Mike's rats locates the couple and Black Mike himself calls on them.

The man tells him that the girl is holding out with the jewels—"I've been trying for months to get them." "Well, it'll take me about four minutes," and Black Mike confronts the girl. But she tells a similar story. The crook is puzzled. One or both are lying. That night he steals to the girls room and the man follows him and attacks him. In their struggle the jewels are disclosed and Black Mike seizes them. Then the cops come and he is outwitted.

Later, black Mike gathers his gang and descends upon the man and girl in the bazaar of Chang Lo. A fight rages from roof to cellar. Black Mike is seriously wounded. The old Chinese philosopher drags him to a back room, where medicines and herbs are kept. Is he going to aid him? Uttering not a word, oil is set to boil and the Chinaman prepares many bamboo sticks—twenty of them, for terrible vengeance—justice "Outside the law."

This remarkable characterization of Black Mike, is played by Lon Chaney in "Outside the Law" to be shown at the Rex Tuesday and Wednesday, April 26 & 27.

This pictorial drama of the resurrection of a wonderful film of moving pictures. It is probably the most expensive and carefully planned film in the world. The life of Christ from His birth in a manger at Bethlehem to His crucifixion upon the cross at Mount Calvary is presented in moving form.

This pictorial drama of the redemption of mankind is designed to bring the subject close to the hearts of those who witness it. From the annunciation, with its wonderful suggestion of dawning realization in the eyes of the predestined Virgin Mother, are shown in quick succession, the manger, the shepherds, the wise men and the flight into Egypt. In the last named scene a wonderful effect is produced by the figure of the all-mysterious, solemnly impassive Sphinx, keeping guard, as it were, in the pale moonlight over the group of the divine Child, with Mary and Joseph lying asleep beneath.

This picture will be the attraction at the Rex, Sunday and Monday, April 24th and 25th.

More than nine hundred and ninety nine out of every thousand stories which enjoyed some degree of popularity more than forty years ago have been utterly forgotten. The thousandth, read and remembered by generation after generation, holds a warmer place in the heart of mankind than any newly published book can reach.

For that reason, books which have stood the test of time have been sought eagerly by motion picture concerns. In many cases stories written in past centuries have been modernized in some degree. Occasionally this seems excusable, but in some instances it is highly objectionable.

In visualizing "Black Beauty," Anna Sewall's world famous "Autobiography of a Horse," Vitagraph has adhered absolutely to the work as written, in subject matter, period and all else. The costumes worn by the human characters are those of the early seventies. There are no automobiles, no telephones, that is why John had to ride Black Beauty at killing speed for the doctor when Mrs. Gordon fell dangerously ill.

"Black Beauty," a Vitagraph all star special production with Jean Paige in the leading human role, will be shown at the Gem theater on Wednesday and Thursday, April 27 and 28.

Douglas MacLean laid himself open to a charge of professional jealousy during the filming of the latest Thomas Ince picture starring him and Mrs. May, "Mary's Ankle," which will be shown at the Gem Theater next Saturday, April 23rd.

True to the title of the picture, the pretty ankle of Mrs. May came in for a large share of attention, with Mr. MacLean acting as ministering angel, armed with bandages and liniment. But during the "shooting" of some of the last scenes in the film, Doug fell down and ran an ugly piece of glass into his knee. A physician was called, and worked hard to be stopped on the picture for several days.

When he came back to the "set" Mr. MacLean was annoyed to find several members of the company smiling at him knowingly. Director Lloyd Ingraham capped the climax.

"It's no use," he said to the young star, "this picture is going to be called 'Mary's Ankle,' and your efforts to have it changed to 'Doug's Knee' won't have the slightest effect."

What is declared to be the most elaborate motion picture ballroom scene ever filmed is one of the features of "The Restless Sex", which will be the chief attraction at the Gem Theatre next Sunday, April 21. Marion Davies is the star and the picture was adapted from the popular novel by Robert W. Chambers.

Over six hundred people take part in the scene. Since they are costumed as gods and goddesses of Grecian mythology, most of them come from the choruses of current Broadway attractions. Joseph Urban, well known for the artistic scenery which he has designed for the Follies and other prominent productions, is responsible for the beautiful ballroom sets. Erte, the famous Russian designer whose costumes are used exclusively in the Follies Bergeres, Paris, created the exquisite gowns worn by Miss Davies and the other principals.

"The Restless Sex" portrays the romance of a pretty society girl who has ambitions to become more in the world than an idle wife. Ralph Kellard and Carlisle Blackwell are included in the supporting cast and the picture, which was produced by Cosmopolitan for Paramount release, was directed by Robert Z. Leonard.

There was only one Smith in the world for Annesley Grayle. It was nothing to her that the City Directory was populated and overcrowded with Smiths from whom she might make a reasonable choice. No. She had to marry a Neison Smith and he was a crook of such a violent deviation from "Straight" that he had the police of two continents trying to catch up with him and give him board and lodging for life.

In a world full of gentle Smiths, wealthy Smiths, Smith brothers and kind Smiths, poor innocent carefully guarded Annesley Grayle found herself bound at the matrimonial altar to the naughtiest, crookedest, smoothest, "darinest" and—"darinest" Smith that ever wrote his name on a police blotter.

Annesley Grayle is the role that will be played by Katherine MacDonald in Associated First National release of "My Lady's Latchkey" the story of which is from the cooperating genius of C. N. and A.M. Williamson. This feature will be seen at the Rex on Saturday, April 23rd.

PAIGE

The Most Beautiful Car in America

Master of the Highway

The world's stock car record for speed now belongs to Paige—and Paige alone.

When our "Daytona 6-66" model thundered down the beach at 102.8 miles per hour, it proved itself not only a marvelously fast car, but a superlatively good car.

Only giant strength and endurance could survive such a heroic test.

So these are qualities that you will find in any Paige 6-66.

We invite you to take one thorough demonstration behind the exclusive 6-66 motor and make a record of the tests.

Then ride in any other car—at any price—and compare the results.

A new economy in motor car operation

The manufacturer of your automobile recommends, in the Instruction Book for your car, that the crankcase be drained out and flushed and then refilled with fresh oil at regular intervals.

This is necessary because engine operation causes a steady accumulation of road dust, carbon, fine metal particles and other impurities in the crankcase oil. This gritty oil circulates through your engine, impairs its performance and ultimately leads to rapid depreciation and repairs.

But cleaning the crankcase is a job generally disliked and neglected.

To meet this need, Modern Crankcase Cleaning Service has been established by first-class garages and other dealers co-operating with the Standard Oil Company. These garages and dealers use Calol Flushing Oil,—the scientific agent that cleans out old oil, dirt, grit and other impurities, and does not impair the lubricating efficiency of fresh oil used. The cleaned crankcase is refilled with the correct grade of Zerolene.

Look for the garage or dealer displaying the sign shown below—it means "Better operation and longer engine life."

The Farmer Today Is a Business Man

HE does not run his farm in the haphazard fashion he did ten years ago. It's his business. He figures his costs and profits.

He knows, of course, what he gets out of the productive acres of his farm—and how much he is paying out in taxes on the idle unproductive stump and swamp land that brings in nothing.

That is Why He is Clearing More Land Every Year

It's just good business. Every acre cleared and planted means more profit every year. The clearing cost is usually more than covered by the first crop.

More land is being cleared, too, because of the manufacture of dynamite made for this purpose, which makes the work easier, quicker and more economical.

Take an Inventory of Your Land

How much is productive? How much idle? Then see our local dealer and plan how much dynamite you need for this season. He will help you—and will furnish you with reliable, efficient and economical explosives, now in greatest demand throughout this section—

"To them that hath shall be given"

Was the Biblical promise of our modern world? "Nothing succeeds like success." So it was with Dr. Pierce's Prescription, N. B., who, over 50 years ago, gave to the world a Prescription which has never been equalled as a tonic for the weaknesses of women. Many women in every hamlet, town or city will gladly testify that Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription did them a world of good. Ask your neighbor.

Another of the great physician's successful remedies is known as Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and, like the "Prescription," is now sold by druggists everywhere, in both liquid and tablet form. This medicine was a success from the start, for the list of men and women all over the universe who have successfully used it for halitosis and as a blood tonic and system builder, makes an amazing total of thousands.
