It is said that our senators at Washington are hard to see. That sort of thing must be a hangever from the Wilson administration; it doesn't sound like Harding. However election time is coming again and possibly the American people then will be able to find some solens who for hire. Wilbur Davis .- Adv. are not so retiring and coy.

Don't let all this rainy weather get your goat. No true Oregon mossback will kick at a little wetness. It means plenty of sunshine ahead.

What's become of that cleanup campaign which was talked about several weeks ago? Maybe it was intended to take place next spring instead of this one.
