Mr. and Mrs. John J. Weber.

Develop Your Home State by Patronizing Your Railroads

The development of Oregon Railroad Transportation service is matter of importance to you. A factor in the development of Western Oregon is the Southern Pacific Company.

Did You Know

Southern Pacific payrolls in Oregon for 1920 amounted to $11,083,754.93
 Southern Pacific purchased in Oregon for 1920 amounted to 4,519,888.00
 Southern Pacific taxes paid in Oregon for 1920 amounted to 1,110,038.86
 Southern Pacific total distribution in Oregon for 1920 amounted to $16,713,681.79

Southern Pacific is the largest payer of taxes in Western and Southern Oregon. Southern Pacific taxes average 7 per cent of all taxes paid in every county through which it operates.

To continue these payrolls, purchases, taxes and provide better facilities, and convenient, safe, rapid and frequent service is the aim of that Company.

Why not travel on Southern Pacific trains and do your part to enable that Company to keep pace with the further development of Oregon.

Young Lady Wants a Home

I want a good home in Tillamook County. Am 5 years old, hair is brown, a kind disposition, fond of children, and my name is Birdie. Can do small chores and run errands. I require no clothes. All that I ask is a small amount of food and a warm, dry place to sleep, and to be treated kindly. I'll give you no trouble or expense.

I am a Shetland Pony. Have a saddle and bridle. Smithy will give me and my belongings to someone free without cost on the last day of the Tillamook County Fair. An opportunity to own this outfit is given to any and every person with each and every 25c purchase made at Smithy's Variety Store between now and the last day of the Fair. The more 25c purchases you make the greater is your opportunity of becoming the owner.

With each and every 25c purchase between now and the last day of the Fair we will give to you without cost a ticket bearing a number. If you should hold the ticket bearing the correct number the Pony-Saddle-Bridle is yours without cost.
