

Tillamook Headlight

VOL. XXXII, NO. 47

TILLAMOOK, OREGON, THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 22, 1921

PRICE $2.00 A YEAR

LIST OF AWARDS PARTIALLY GIVEN

COMPLETE LIST OF PREMIUMS TO BE GIVEN OUT FOR PUBLICATION LATER

RECEIPTS ARE OVER $3000 IN 4 DAYS

These Figures Considered Good For Fair This Year

The county fair is now but a memory in the minds of those who attended that splendid show last week, and so soon as the premium lists are completed they will be published in the Headlight. This week we are enabled to give part of the awards to cattle exhibitors.

In the matter of gate receipts, stall fees, concessions and grand stand, the following figures were obtained: Gate receipts for the entire time of the fair, $2249.28. Concessions, $566. Grand stand, $42.48. Stall fees $88. From a financial standpoint, as well as from all other angles, the fair was a greater success than any like session ever held in this county. Following are some of the cattle awards:

The senior champion Jersey bull ribbon was awarded to L. C. Daniels' Belle's St. Mawes' Lad; junior champion, Daniels' Sophie's Rinda Lad; senior champion cow, C. H. Graves' Novema's Sunrise Bell; junior champion cow, Mildred Glad's Chief's May's Fogbell. The grand champion bull was Daniels' Belle's St. Mawes' Lad and the grand champion...

SURVEY OF WILSON RIVER CUTOFF NEXT SPRING

Judge Mason stated to the Headlight this week that owing to the early fall rains and the necessity for the removal of the surveyors' camp over to this side of the mountains, the surveyors—Coates of Tillamook and Bell of Washington—had decided after ten days spent on preliminary survey of the Wilson river cut-off, they would better wait for settled weather in the spring for the conclusion of the survey. So there the matter will rest until early spring, when more can be accomplished in a given time than now, when rain may be expected and consequent slow work made in surveying.

The Judge stated that the survey would begin at an early period next year, and that was about as far as the two counties had gone in the matter of the tentative road improvements, but that definite action probably would be decided by the two counties early in the coming year, provided times improve.

ONLY WAR VETERANS ELIGIBLE

A man was recently heard to say that a pioneer of Oregon was eligible to receive a hunting and fishing license without paying a fee. Where upon County Clerk Brimhall was interviewed, and it developed upon reading the law, that only veterans of the Civil war and the Indian wars and pioneers of the state of Oregon who was a resident of the state prior to 1860, are eligible to receive a free hunting or fishing license.

READING DIVORCE SUIT IS FILED

M. D. Reading of this county has filed suit in the circuit court for a divorce from his wife, Florence Reading. The complaint alleges that the defendant has gone to Portland to reside, and has treated plaintiff in a cruel and inhuman manner.

Prize Chickens Lay Prize Eggs

There were displayed at the Headlight office this week three eggs from the Hollywood strain of White Leghorns owned by Miss Leona Rupp which show up very well for that particular breed of poultry. The three eggs together weighed 3 ounces and the largest was five and seven-eighths inches in diameter the small way.

YOUNG PEOPLE APPREHENDED

A party of young people, both sexes, were arrested in this city one night during the forepart of the week by the police, charged with using obscene language on the streets and being disorderly. They were brought before the police judge and fined and after a promise on their part to refrain from future acts of the kind, the fines were remitted pending good behavior. The Headlight will not in this instance give the names of the parties, but gives warning that hereafter when such matters will become of public record, it will use its prerogative of printing the names of the offenders. The Recorder is commended for her action, and the police for their timely interference.

MORE BOOTLEG ROUNDED UP

Miami Scene of Illegal Whiskey Making This Time

Early last Thursday morning Sheriff Aschim and Deputy Perkins put a new film on the bootleg photograph screen, shifting the scene from Mohler to the vicinity of Miami, when they caught Clifford Illingsworth and Billy Zuercher operating a hooch factory with three stills up that part of the river in a tent, conveniently located in the brush. The duet had about 3 gallons of moonshine ready for stout stomachs, and a lot of mash for distilling. One of the stills was an old copper boiler, and the other two were made of copper cans. All were rather crude affairs but quite capable of turning out a passably fair article of liquid stuff for thirsty hombies, who long for the kick that kills.

The outfit and hooch and the prisoners were brought to the court house and disposed of—the whisky and stills in the art museum and the offenders in the basement skookum house.

The men were arraigned before Justice Stanley and plead guilty to the charges preferred, each receiving a sentence of 90 days in jail and a fine of $300 together with the costs.

RACING EVENTS AT FAIR HOLDS INTEREST FOR MANY

The free for all running race on the 14th at the fair grounds was won by William's Grey Eagle. The second race, free for all, best two in three, was won by the Johnson horse Thomas Large won the high school foot race of 100 yards in 11 1/2 seconds; Wm. Lucas, 2nd, and Driscoll 3rd.

The Shetland pony race was won by Donald Crenshaw's Lucky; Lewis Waymire's Pinto, 2nd.

The 50 yard foot race for high school boys was won by Thomas Large; Wm. Lucas 2nd; Driscoll 3rd.

The prize for the best fancy saddle horse was won by Mrs. Campbell of Wheeler; 2nd best, Gulstrom's sorrel gelding; 3rd, Johnson's bay mare. In the footrace contest between the high school juniors and seniors the juniors won the race.

The mother's race by ten little girls, was won by Barbara Carver. The father's race by 10 small boys was won by Adolph Krake.

CALF CLUBS WILL COMPETE AT THE STATE FAIR, SALEM

Tillamook county will be represented at the state fair by the Jersey calf club in a state-wide calf judging contest next week. Also the canning and cooking clubs under the leadership of Miss Elizabeth Burr, county club leader.

Canned fruits and vegetables will be exhibited by the Harmony and Skookum clubs, who will enter the state canning and cooking contest. Representing the last named clubs will be Mrs. Steinbach, Mrs. Erwin Harrison and Miss Marie Glenger. The Jersey calf club will be represented by Harold Proctor, Laverne Ackley and Thelma Hoover. The Skookum canning club members will be Muriel Wiley, Marjorie Tucker and Mabel Harrison. The teams will leave for Salem next Sunday morning.

FIRE WARDEN COATES IS PRESENTED WITH BADGE

Some time ago Marsh Burdick, one of the fire engineers of this city, ordered a gold-plated fireman's badge in Portland, and the other day he received it, and went over to Fire Marshal Coates' office and pinned the emblem on his vest, with his compliments. The badge is a beauty and Mr. Coates values the gift more for the spirit of appreciation behind it than for any intrinsic value it may represent. Few men take more interest in the important matter of fire protection than Fire Marshal Coates, and it is a fact, though it may not be generally known that Mr. Coates does not receive one cent of remuneration for his work as fire chief. Moreover he is President of the Oregon Firemen's association, and takes a live interest in all matters pertaining to fire protection, state and national.

CHURCH BUILDING TORN DOWN

The building used by the church of the Nazarene is being torn down, preparatory to the erection of a new edifice at the corner of Third avenue and Fourth street. The excavation and concrete contracts have been let and the building is to be constructed as fast as the weather permits. The new church is to be 4x50 feet with tower in corner and alcove at back, bungalow style. They will finish the outside this fall and install the furnace, but the inside will be left tabernacle style until spring.

Mrs. Bruce Ross and two children of Portland, visited at the Donaldson home east of town the latter part of last week.

LAST COUNTY EXPOSITION PRAISED AS GREAT SUCCESS IN EVERY WAY

SUCCESS OF COUNTY FAIR WAS COMPLETE AS SHOWN BY ATTENDANCE AND THE MANY AND VARIED EXHIBITS THAT WERE ON DISPLAY

NUMBER OF ENTRIES, GATE RECEIPTS AND ATTENDANCE EXCEED ALL EXPECTATIONS

Livestock Display Gives Evidence Of Tillamook's Possibilities In That Particular Line

COURT IS CRAZY, SAYS NUTTY ONE

Wanderer Taken Into Custody Near Town And Committed

For some time past word has been coming to the sheriff's office concerning a stranger who has been wandering about the Beaver country evidently insane.

Last Thursday deputy sheriff Perkins went to the Beaver section and made an investigation but failed to find the queer acting man. Monday, however, he got on the stranger's trail and captured him about two miles south of town and brought him to the court house, where he was locked up. The man was examined the same day by County Judge Mason and Dr. R. T. Boals. At one stage of the proceedings the man, who gave his name as Frank Smith, voiced his opinion that he was the only sane man in the court. This clinched matters and Smith was formally committed to the asylum for the insane at Salem and that institution told to come and get him.

The man did not appear to have any pronounced or violent tendencies, but was considered unsafe to be at large and was evidently in need of such attention as the asylum can give. The stranger said his home was in New York and gave his age as 33 years.

TOO MUCH 'DAYS OF '49' DOES NOT SUIT SHERIFF

Last Saturday there were arraigned before Justice Stanley three women who performed in the "49" show at the fair grounds. They are said to have been poor actresses in the show and "bad actors" to the extent of getting drunk. Their names were given as Mrs. O. S. Moeckel, Mrs. Frank Davey and Frankie Lavaughn. The Judge assessed each a five spot and V. La Selle, who belonged to the same outfit, was fined a like sum. LaSelle, at the time of his arrest, was found with some pocket artillery on him and was fined an extra $15 for carrying concealed weapons.

All paid their fines and left town, and 'tis said they went away uttering cuss-words too horrible to print, and vowed they'd never honor the Tillamook fair with their presence again—"no, never again." Thus endeth the chapter.

With results that startled even the most optimistic the eighth annual Tillamook county fair went over with a Whiz bang.

Ideal weather prevailed during all four days and it is suspected that Jule Pluvius was bribed by the management to store up his little drops of moisture until the big show was over. Anyway that is what happened, for the rain commenced soon after everything was cleared away.

The assortment of displays was enough to open the eyes of the most hardened county fair hound, for there were cows 'n pigs 'n chickens 'n everything. Even the women came in strong for their side of the battle, judging from the fancy work flowers, birds and what not. An unusually large number of booths were entered by the business men of the city and some very interesting displays made. Even the florists woke up; H. W. Gooch and R. L. Scott showing Tillamook people that hot house flowers can be grown outdoors in this climate.

The stock judging resulted in quite a number of the local entries being taken to the state fair at Salem, where it is predicted they will give the cattle from other sections a run for their money.

The fair management reports that the receipts exceeded their wildest expectations and everyone seems to think that there was nothing left that could be desired in the shape of entertainment. The newly-awakened K. P. band performed every evening and made a very creditable showing—possibly we should say sounding. The out-door moving picture show entertained the crowd until the spectators' feet got cold. One fine thing about that show was the fact that there was plenty of fresh air and the tobacco fends could smoke all they wanted to.

Anyway, it doesn't look as though county fairs were a thing of the past in Tillamook county.

D. Anderson of the Wheeler United Lumber company is in the city for a few days taking medical treatment. Mr. Anderson is a member of a co-operative firm which numbers 25 members, who operate a mill near Wheeler, Hawk Brothers furnish the logs for this mill which Mr. Anderson says, is doing well. The men pool their labor and divide the profits. It is one of the very few like companies on the coast operating on the co-operative plan.

E. R. Stuller, manager of the Mutual Creamery at Astoria and wife and Dr. Albert Kinney and wife of that city, were over Sunday guests of C. W. Stuller and wife at this place.

C. H. Larison of Cloverdale visited the county seat Tuesday.

AWNINGS HIGHER, ORDER OF COUNCIL

Band Committee Calls On City Dads For Financial Assistance

At its meeting last Tuesday night the city council passed an ordinance regulating the height of street awnings and signs, which are now required to be 7 feet above the surface of the sidewalks.

A committee from the K. P. band waited upon the council and asked that a committee be appointed to solicit funds for the purchase of three additional instruments for the bands use. The band proposes to give 10 concerts at one of the following designated places during the season: the high school gymnasium, city hall auditorium, or in the court house square, the latter conditional upon the weather. The mayor appointed the following citizens to act as a soliciting committee: J. Merrill Smith, C. S. Barnes and M. R. Terry. The bus line franchise matter came up again but no action was taken at the meeting.

JURORS ARE APPOINTED FOR OCTOBER TERM

The County Court recently appointed the jurors to serve during the next term of the Circuit Court which is to be held in October. The following names were drawn: Hiner, Lin, Tillamook, machinist; Hunter, Frank, Tillamook, laborer; Lamson, J. H., Cloverdale, carpenter; Affolter, Fred, Neskowin, farmer; Olson, O. W., Tillamook, farmer; Whalin, John, Sandiake, farmer; Wooley, Chas. Hemlock, farmer; Imah, A. A., Cloverdale, farmer; Kinnaman, H. A., Tillamook, farmer; Davidson, Fred, Tillamook, clerk; Naegele, John, Tillamook, farmer; Parraso, Joseph, Netarts, farmer; Tittle, Lee, Hemlock, farmer; Bodfelt, Oscar, W., Hebo, farmer; Schultson, Antone, Hemlock, farmer; Percy, T. C., Tillamook, bicycle man; Erickson, Adolph, Tillamook, farmer; Elstrom, Oscar, Tillamook, farmer; Davies, A. N., Netarts, farmer; Broughton, Willard E., Beaver, farmer; Desmond, Charles, Hemlock, farmer; Penner, W. A., Oretown, farmer; Bester, Frank, Tillamook, merchant; Beals, B. L. Jr., Tillamook, clerk; Zachman, R. F., Tillamook, plumber; Rosenberg, J. H., Tillamook, merchant; Stewart, John L., Tillamook, farmer; Amacher, Peter, Hemlock, farmer; Price, Joe, Hebo, farmer; Austin, A. M., Tillamook, jitney; Weston, Edward, Tillamook, farmer.

Rev. C. L. Dark, pastor of the M. E. church at this place, is a gardener as well as a preacher. Recently he exhibited a tray of Burbank potatoes at this office that contained 17 tubers, the largest of which weighed one pound and three quarters. The potatoes were all from one hill and collectively weighed 13 pounds. Tillamook beats the world for potatoes and potato yields.

Fire Marshal Coates got busy and put in some wood at the home one day last week, and perspired pretty freely. Later his face began swelling and broke out with some sort of rash, which the doctor said came from handling the wood while he was too warm. He was able to come up to the office Tuesday and hereafter will let "George do it."

LOCAL EXHIBITS AT STATE FAIR

TWO SPECIAL TRAINS LEAVE FOR SALEM WITH LIVE-STOCK AND OWNERS

GOOD POSITION PROCURED ON GROUNDS

Local People Take Pride in Exhibit Of Cattle

In addition to the special train which bore a large number of Tillamook people to the state fair at Salem last Tuesday evening at 5 p. m., there followed another train of five cars containing the Tillamook county exhibit, consisting of stock and agricultural and other products of this county, which will take a prominent place in the big show at the state capital. The cattle will consist of the prize winners and the second place winners, and will be at home in barn No. 1 on the grounds, which is considered a good position. Among those who will be at the fair are Homer Mason, T. B. Hyder, Howard Edmunds, F. R. Beals, Albert Krake, Ira G. Lance, C. H. Graves of Bay City, J. M. Smith, H. A. Brant, Mike Abplanalp, F. A. Blackadar, R. W. Watson, L. Ferguson, Jno. Zweofel, Jim Palin, Eric Glad, W. D. Pine, Dolph Tinerstett, E. L. Gletscher and others.

With the splendid showing made by this county in all departments at the late fair, it is expected that the Tillamook exhibit at the state fair will attract much and favorable attention, and that this county will still retain its laurels for being the best dairy county in the state. Tillamookers take a pardonable pride in their exhibit, and it is believed that the exhibitors will bring home some well deserved prizes, especially on the live stock exhibits.

GIRL 17 WRITES BIRD STORIES FOR OREGONIAN

W. S. Raker of Portland was in the city this week meeting with old friends, made when he mapped and logged the mileage for the big highway loop of 300 miles from Portland via Tillamook to Astoria, thence down the Columbia to the point of beginning. It was through his initial efforts that the route was taken up and made an actuality. He is still proud of the route, and every improvement in Tillamook pleases him. Mr. Raker is greatly interested in the work of his 17 year old daughter Miss Mary, who writes the bird stories for the Sunday Oregonian each week. Her work is phenomenal for one so young, and evidently she has a bright future in her chosen line. The study of Oregon bird life is interesting to most people who have the inclination and the time, but Miss Raker has specialized in the work and back of it all is enthusiasm and an inborn love for "the birds of the air."

APPLICATIONS FOR CITIZENSHIP TO COME BEFORE CIRCUIT COURT

The following named persons have initiated steps to become American citizens in fact, and will appear before Judge Bagley at the next term of the circuit court to be examined as to their qualifications: Frank Von Ew, Cloverdale, L. E. W. Ludtke, Nehalem, Napoleon Legault, Wheeler, A. L. Ratkij, Wheeler, Jno. L. Kidder, Garibaldi, Alfred Berg, Bay City, V. P. Werner, Emille Bauman, Jens P. Jepsen, Karl M. Blaser, Leo Hedezyneke, Nels Erickson, Chris Nyss, Aug. Vogler, H. W. Thussen, G. Nyss and Peter Rusk, all of Tillamook.

John Nelson, a Bay City merchant transacted business in this city Tuesday.

Funeral Notice Later

COUNTIES AGREE ON ROAD COSTS

Washington and Tillamook counties have agreed upon the costs of the Wilson river preliminary road survey by which the distance between Forest Grove and Tillamook via that route will be considerably cut down by the elimination of grades and long loops.

The Wilson river road, when the contemplated changes are made, will be one of the finest routes from the Willamette valley to the Tillamook beaches, and of special value as a scenic route. It is understood that engineers believe that about ten miles of new road will make the Wilson route one of the finest mountain roads in the state. It is believed by Portland motorists, who have canvassed the matter locally, that 50 per cent more travel would be added to the Tillamook beaches than at present.
