

THE DUNNING SCHOOL OF MUSIC

for teachers and pupils. The system of Improved Music Study.

Carry L. Dunning's

method seems to me most practical and I recommend it for the first musical instruction of children or beginners. It ought to meet with favor and success wherever the beginning of a musical education is contemplated. (Signed) Theo. Leschetitzky.

VICTORIES OF PEACE EQUAL THOSE OF WAR

Whether the task is the construction of a colossal harbor improvement project, or the administration of a newly acquired insular possession, the Department of War is always prepared to bring to the task a high degree of skill and masterful judgment. How "peace hath her victories no less renowned than war" for the military department of the nation is interestingly described and illustrated in one of an instructive series of articles on Our Government now being distributed exclusively by this Institution.

We shall be pleased to see that you receive the complete series, if you will send us your name and address.

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE STATE OF OREGON FOR THE COUNTY OF TILLAMOOK SUMMONS

L. SALDEN, Plaintiff

vs. Charles E. Fields and Alice C. Fields, his wife, and H. J. Luse and same J. Luse, her husband, Defendants

TO H. J. LUSE AND SAME J. LUSE her husband, two of the above named defendants:

IN THE NAME OF THE STATE OF OREGON: You are hereby required to appear and answer the complaint filed against you in the above entitled suit on or before the expiration of six weeks from the date of the first publication hereof, and if you fail so to answer, for want thereof, plaintiff will apply to the Court for the relief demanded in the complaint, which is that a conveyance made by Charles E. Fields and wife, defendants above named, to H. J. Luse of the following described real property, situate in Tillamook County, Oregon; Lots One (1), Two (2) and Three (3) of Block Twenty-three (23) of Tillamook Beach, and which conveyance was made on or about June 19, 1916, and which conveyance is of record at Page 173 of Book 33 of the Records of Deeds of Tillamook County, Oregon, be decreed to be null and void, as against plaintiff herein, and cancelled, and that said property be decreed to be subject to the lien and claim of plaintiff for balance owing him from the defendants, Charles E. Fields and wife, it being sought to have said conveyance cancelled as made in fraud of the rights of plaintiff and said complaint praying for general relief. The claim of plaintiff is for the balance due on a judgment rendered by the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for Hood River County, on which there is owing $1,000.00 with interest at the rate of eight per cent per annum from March 17th, 1915, the further sum of $100.00 as attorneys fees and $23.00, costs and disbursements, with accruing interest from date of said judgment, less a credit of $250.00 from property sold on execution from which is to be deducted the expense of the execution sale. Said judgment was rendered in favor of plaintiff and against the defendants Field and wife.

This summons is served upon you by publication in the Tillamook Headlight, a weekly newspaper of general circulation published in Tillamook City, Tillamook County, Oregon, and is so published by virtue of an order made by the Honorable Homer Mason, County Judge of Tillamook County, Oregon, dated August 31st, 1921, requiring publication to be made hereof once a week for six successive weeks and the first publication hereof is made September 1st, 1921.

FISH STEW EXCELLENT DISH

Home Demonstration Agents of the Department of Agriculture Recommend it Highly.

The "pine bark fish stew," which is being marketed by the canning clubs in the southern states along the Atlantic and gulf coasts, should be of interest to housewives, says the New York Times. The development of combination foods peculiar to certain localities has been particularly fostered by extension agents of the United States Department of Agriculture and the state agricultural colleges which carry on boys' and girls' club work. Almost every country in the world and practically every district in the United States, has a special "one-piece" dish made of the products in that region. The gumbo of the far South, the New England hotted dinner, the bouillabaisse of Marseilles reproduced in New Orleans, Hungarian goulash, Chinese chop suey, Indian curry, Irish stew, French ragout, are instances of this tendency to blend flavors in one dish.

Pine bark fish stew is a characteristic dish in South Carolina. Very probably it was introduced by settlers from the southern part of France and from Italy. Italians living in southern California serve a similar fish stew. The home demonstration agents, seeking a popular and somewhat novel product which would not be in competition with commercial canned goods, decided to have the clubs make a specialty of canning pine bark fish stew.

Onion, tomatoes, celery, pimento and fish are the ingredients, which are cooked slowly in vegetable oil and poured over "southern style" rice. At large out-of-doors gatherings and community lunches this is served on pieces of pine bark, giving the dish its name. In Florida, Georgia and all the gulf states various local fish are adapted to the combination.

CAN ONLY SEE DARK SIDE

Unfortunate Individuals Are Those Who Essay to Make Conversation About the Weather.

The weather is a singularly unfortunate institution. When it is bad it is freely abused; when it is good it becomes an object for profound suspicion. A wet day is an abomination; a fine one is an incipient drought. Three fine days in succession are enough to bring into blossom little paragraphs announcing that somebody's water supply will shortly have to be curtailed, and a week of them sees the farmers of Blankshire eloquently face to face with approaching ruin. A bad summer will not bear thinking about; a good one is proof that the climate of Europe is rapidly changing, that the North pole will soon enjoy the temperature of the equator, and that a few more thousand years will see mankind finally frizzled off the surface of a thoroughly inhospitable planet. This grateful and comforting game of looking a gift horse in the mouth is now being applied to the only good result of the coal stoppage—our cleaner atmosphere. Having survived the first shock of ill-considered gratitude at being able to see their own city, many Londoners, an evening paper announces, are now discovering that a feeling of lassitude and an overpowering inclination to yawn are the result of living in an unusually pure atmosphere.—Manchester Guardian.

Prompt Delivery.

George L. Loft, son of the candy magnate and former congressman, created a sensation on the stock exchange recently, when he sold a suit of clothes off his back for $30 and made spot delivery. The young broker breezed onto the floor of the exchange early in the session, wearing a brand-new Palm Beach suit. It was so conspicuous some of his colleagues reached him a bit and in the fracas the coat was torn slightly. Thereupon Loft yelled out for a bid for the outfit, just as if he were selling 100 shares of Loft, Inc. A broker in the crowd snapped back a bid of $30 and demanded instantaneous delivery. Loft was game. He peeled off his coat and then shed his trousers and departed for the Luncheon club attired in his B. V. Ds. He was able to resume business later through the discovery of an old suit of clothes in a locker.—New York Tribune.

Doubles Shooting Popular.

Doubles shooting is gaining great popularity among trapshooters of this country. By doubles shooting is meant the release of two targets at the same time, one to the left and the other to the right. The shooter then tries to break both of them before they fall to the ground, firing one load at each target. This is a real test of shooting ability, and for this reason it is gaining in popularity. No one seeks a real test of his ability more than a trapshot. Because of the increased interest in this phase of the sport it is apparent that the doubles championship tournament at the Grand American handicap this year will be a much better event than in the past. The shooters have had greater practice at this style of shooting than ever before.

Florida's Entry into Union.

One hundred years ago the Stars and Stripes supplanted the flag of Spain in Florida, which became a part of the United States. The sum paid Spain, including the payments to claimants for damages, was $5,000,000 for a territory that included 50,288 square miles.—Miami Herald.

HERB FARMS TO BE COMMON

Comparatively New Branch of Horticulture is Becoming Popular in England.

Without doubt herb culture is the coming science. One of the most arresting facts in the domain of medicines today is the progress made in pharmacy, London Tit-Bits states.

Herbs, from having been used as lib. in medieval times, fell into disrepute, and in modern times herbal remedies, apart from drugs which could be numbered on the fingers of one hand, were tabooed, save by the enlightened few.

Herb farming is a new branch of horticulture, writes A. R. Horwood, F. L. S., in the Homeopathic World. It is an interesting and intellectual pursuit specially suited for women.

Before the war there were numerous herb farms run on commercial lines by firms of manufacturing chemists. But there were no schools for the training of amateurs. Since the war, however, a school and herb farm has been started at Chalfont St. Peter, Buckinghamshire, by Mrs. M. Grieve, F. R. H. S.

One of the main objects of herb farming is to cultivate plants of medicinal value. Besides the drug plants in general use, such as belladonna, henbane, fox-glove, aconite, datura and so on, a vast number of herbs whose real value is known are used in medicine, including such common plants as dandelion, couch grass, red poppy, colchicum, barberry, chamomile, dill, fennel, blessed thistle, valerian and male fern.

TO PROTECT SACRED SNUFF

Reason Given for the High Bench Behind Which Supreme Court Judges Have Their Seats.

The Federal Supreme court is celebrating its centenary of "the high bench." Originally the justices sat behind a long bench on the floor of the court—on a level with the lawyers who tried their cases before them. This straight desk had set into it a snuff box opposite each justice's seat. Henry Clay was arguing a case before the court. During a pause in his argument one of the justices reached forward, took a pinch of snuff and settled back to weigh the more carefully the reasoning presented. In his next pause Mr. Clay reached over and with a "Thank you" took a pinch himself. The court was indignant. That afternoon they met to decide what could be done to preclude the possibility of a second breach of the "etiquette of the court" and decided to have a bench made of such height that no mere practitioner could reach their pet snuff. Since then they have sat behind the high bench that is in use today.—New York Tribune.

What He Wanted.

A little Washington boy was dining at a friend's house with his mother not so very long ago when charlotte ruses in paper collars were one of the features of the dessert. The fluffy delicacies tasted very much like "more" to the hungry little chap.

Is there anything else you'll have, dear?" asked the hostess, solicitously. "Yes, ma'am," eagerly assented the child. "I want another of them pretty little Charlie Rosses."

One of the nouveau riche women with which Washington abounds said at a tea the other afternoon, with a consequential air, that really her neuritis was getting so bad she was at her wits' end; she'd tried everything except a chiropractor! Did any of us have any faith in the ministrations of chiropractors?

It is not at all infrequent to hear the Hotel Raleigh in Washington spoken of seriously as the "Hotel Ralledge," or Hugler's candy place as "Hugler's."

An innocent local dame boasts of the "bed of scarlet salvia" that bloomed in her garden all through the autumn.—Washington Star.

Forgers Use New Method.

An original touch in forgery is reported by the Paris correspondent of the London Daily Mail. Making forged notes dirty in order that they might look real is said to have been the method adopted by four men who have just been arrested at Limoges on a charge of counterfeiting the small brown one-franc notes (nominally 104) which are in circulation in Paris owing to the shortage of silver ones.

After printing off bundles of notes of a face value of £7,000, the men, it is stated, buried them in the ground for a fortnight. The notes then had a crumpled and dirty appearance as if they had been a long time in use, and were readily accepted. In some cases the forged notes were accepted in bundles of 50 at local banks.

Whistle Easy to Play.

"So simple that even a child can use it" is a phrase commonly seen and heard these days, and which is applied with ease to a new whistle instrument, described with illustration in Popular Mechanics Magazine. By pulling and pushing a lever attached on the inside of its barrel to a snuff piston, the tones of the whistle are caused to change. This lever terminates on the outside in a triangular-shaped finger-piece running through a slotted plate. Markings representative of musical tones appear on the plate, and as the triangular lever moves left or right before the markings correspondingly pitched musical tones issue from the whistle.
