TWO MONTHS MORE
 Two months, and 1921 will be a thing of the past. How about your bank account—is it a thing of the past, too?
 Summer vacations are hard on savings, and many of us have found it necessary to draw on our deposits recently.
 But now, with new energy, let's make those 'Nationalized' accounts climb to the point where they'll mean enough capital for big investments.

"The Big Cheese."
 He is the big cheese in the Tillamook industry, is Carl Haberlach, registered at the Imperial. He is the president of the Tillamook County Creamery association, which includes 16 factories, and this association has brought about a standardization of the dairy business in that county. Mr. Haberlach is in charge of an exhibit of Tillamook cheeses, every one edible, in the industrial section of the livestock exhibit.— Oregonian.

Mrs. Gay Klein and Laura Bernard of Nehalem were in the city Saturday.

According to hunters who claim to know, the English jack snipe, which have been so plentiful here for some time past, are about to move south to a warmer clime. It has been noticed of late that these toothsome birds are gathering in large flocks, which incident is said to presage a long flight. Hundreds of these excellent game birds have been killed by local sportsmen during the past two months.
