SOCIAL EVENTS TAKE PLACE

Sunshine Club Holds Meeting

Mrs. Feldshaw assisted by Mrs. Stark entertained the members of the Sunshine club at the Feldschau home on West Third street Tuesday afternoon of this week. A pleasing program of quotations and recitations had been arranged and was very entertaining. Fancy work followed and at 4 o'clock the hostesses served a delightful one course lunch eon. Twenty three members were present. The next meeting, which has been postponed until the last Tuesday in January because of the Christmas season next month, will be held with Mrs. H. Boone, with Mesdames Oathout and Barry assisting.

Recital at Christian Church

A very pleasing recital was given by Mrs. J. C. Holden's pupils at the Christian church Saturday evening.

The pupils had issued invitations to friends and took charge of the program, also giving interesting events in the lives of dicerent composers.

The history of the violin and description of the string orchestra was well given by Dorothy Haberlach.

The program rendered covered music from the beginning and into the advanced grades.

Rev. H. D. Chambers, who has been archdeacon of the Episcopal church of Oregon for 18 years, will relinquish that position the first of the year, to become the rector of the Salem Episcopal church. Mr. Chambers has been conducting a mission in Tillamook and his friends here regret that the pleasant relations that have existed here will be severed, as Rev. Mr. Black, of Marshfield will take his place. Mr. Chambers will hold his last meeting here next Sunday, the services to be held at the Masonic building at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. to which all are invited to attend.

ONE QUART OF MILK PER DAY

An eminent authority on dietetics declares that every growing child should consume at least one quart of milk each day, but it is very probable that only a few get that amount.

Milk is the primary food for the human body and is able to supply tissues as no other food possibly can. Therefore it would profit grown-ups to add this wonderful body builder to their meals. To get your quart of milk each day call the
