The Heyds Were Surprised

Last Tuesday night, twenty-two friends gave Mr. and Mrs. Frank Heyd a genuine surprise in their new home. The games and program for the evening proved interesting, and were enjoyed by all. At the close of a very pleasant evening, the ladies displayed the "good wats" which had been prepared for the occasion, to which ample justice was done. Those present were:

Mr. and Mrs. Newton Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Bales, Mr. and Mrs. Alderman, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Hill, Mr. and Mrs. Mathers, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Feldschau, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Heyd, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Pyle, Rev. and Mrs. McRae, and Mesdames J. S. Lamar, Orpha Eastman, M. E. Gruber, Everson.

The Steinbachs Entertain

On Wednesday afternoon last, John Steinbach, of this city entertained the officers of Silver Wave Chapter, O. E. S., which was given as a surprise to Mrs. Steinbach, who retires from office on the 27th inst., and her official friends.

The ladies were entertained with guessing contests, and fancy work was also a diversion, during the afternoon. Hot rolls, salad and coffee were served to the guests. The officers present were: Mesdames Plank, Joe Franklin, Frank Heyd, Leslie Harris, Will Lewis, Orpha Eastman, David Kuratli, Emmett Bales, Will Foster, H. A. Williams, Sam Vierick, Robt. Miller, Clarence Stanley, Stanley Coates, Roy Henkle Blaine Hays, John Steinbach.

Surprise Birthday Party

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Haberlach were agreeably surprised Monday night last, by the unlooked for arrival at their residence in this city of a number of their friends, who came prepared to spend the evening, as evidenced by the way they took possession.

The occasion was the recurrence of Mrs. Haberlach's natal day, and the self-invited guests merrily proceeded to take charge of the evening's entertainment, which mainly was devoted to "500". A very enjoyable evening ensued, at the close of which the visiting ladies prepared refreshments consisting of sandwiches, salads, coffee, and chocolate which were served at the proper time.

Mrs. David Kuratli won the high prize at "500" and Mrs. Will Christenson the consolation offering.

Mrs. Haberlach was the recipient of many hearty congratulations on her birthday, at the close of the party.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Bales, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Christenson, Mr. and Mrs. Will Christenson of Oretown, Mr. and Mrs. David Kuratli, Miss Alma Spieker, Miss Marie Tinnerstet, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Burge and Mr. and Mrs. Haberlach.

L. V. Eberhardt has some Chinese lilies in the window of the Watson abstract office. They opened up about two weeks ago, and three out of four of the blooms are double. The Chinese lily is a species of the Narcissus, and years ago, when the American laundries were not so numerous, and when the Chinese laundries were common, the Chinese proprietors used to present their patrons with the above named lilies on New Year's day, as a present. The flowers are quite pretty and usually bloom during the winter season.
