SEA EAGLE SWAMPED OFF THE TOWN OF NEWPORT

Much speculation among persons interested in the fate of the tug Sea Eagle, which has been missing for some days past, somewhere off the Oregon coast, was brought to an end when news reached Portland on the 5th inst., that the fate of that craft was no longer a matter of doubt.

The finding of wreckage from the Sea Eagle along the Seaside beach, led former sea-faring men of Tillamook to speculate taking the wreckage east shore at Seaside as a basis as to where the missing tug might have found her last resting place.

The Sea Eagle on Nov. 19th, picked up the Ecola, a schooner bound for Marshfield, and 43 days out from Honolulu, off Cape Blanco, and when a storm came up, made for the Coos Bay harbor, but the bar being too rough, the two boats started for the Columbia river. When abreast of Newport, the Sea Eagle was swamped by a big comber and sank with all on board. The Ecola cut the cable and after drifting about until Dec. 5th, made the Coos bay port at North Bend.

NOTICE

There are a considerable number of families in this city and county who are in need of assistance. The recent storms and cold weather have greatly emphasized their need for clothing. Many more fortunate families have clothing they are not using and make a practice of giving it to families themselves and the result is they have more than they need and others do not have enough because their attention has not been called to these other families who need help. The local Red Cross is in constant touch with the needy all over the county and want to be able to give help where most needed. We need clothing for men, women and children from babyhood up, from stockings to hats. I have both phones and will call but if you will bring store it will help. Please leave at them to room 200 over Haltom's door if I am not in.—Mrs. O. A. East man, executive Sec. Red Cross.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Roland Heusser, Tillamook, Nov. 28, an 11 pound boy.

OTIS SETTLERS HARD HIT.

FLOOD CREATES SUFFERING

Reports from Otis, a little town just south of the Tillamook-Lincoln county line, in the latter county, and situated at the mouth of the Salmon river, was hart hit by the late flood, and according to a party just in from that section, the settlers are in many cases destitute. Many people escaped from the flood waters in the night, clad only in scanty attire. The damage to stock and buildings was considerable. The Salmon river overflowed the whole adjacent country.

Harry H. Johnson of Wheeler was in the city Monday. He is a business man of that section, and says there is a scarcity of silver in the city with which to make change. It is understood that the banks here relieved the scarcity. Mr. Johnson states that people up there are anxious to know when the bank will open.

Michel Werner, who owns all of the block in which the Hudson garage is located, expects to put up two or more new residences on his tract the coming year, or will build to suit purchasers and sell in small payments and easy terms.

Steelheads are now running and many are being brought to the fish buying concerns of the city. The steelhead is considered by some as the best salmon in the market, and is said to be the most edible smoked fish of its species. The Franklin market is shipping steelheads to San Francisco boxed in ice. They are also shipping salted salmon eggs to Portland.

It is learned that real estate loans have lately been negotiated in Tillamook to the amount of $5,800 for improvements. The capital came from the outside and was loaned by local agents.

W. B. Willis was in Portland this week where he purchased a new 1922 model Overland.

All Trimmed and Untrimmed

NOW AT ONE-FOURTH OFF

To itemize the hats in this sale would be to inventory all our millinery stocks. Women and misses will want to see their hats before choosing so this is an invitation to them to come in and have their will of any of the hats in this sale—at one-fourth the origin marked prices.

That there are hats in every fashionable material, shape, style and color and with ever modish trimming for all occasions to moderate and later winter wear is obvious. Mail orders taken for Nu-bone corsets.
