BACK FROM ALBERTA
 Carl Wagner and wife, who some time ago, went up to Alberta, Canada, and took up crown lands, arrived here last week, where Mr. Wagner will have one of his legs amputated by a local surgeon, as a result of an old ailment. After this operation, and when able to travel, the Wagners will return to their Canadian homestead to remain indefinitely.

No Place for Measuring Worms
 It is claimed by Capt. Wicklund, of the life saving station at Coos Bay, that the recent wind storm, which did so much damage along the coast, attained a velocity of 80 miles an hour. It certainly rambled "some along the coast section and it was hardly safe for measuring worms to attempt to check up on it here.
 Born to Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Ma-kinster, Dec. 4, a son.

HEMLOCK P. O. NO MORE Henry Weiss of Hemlock was in the city Wednesday. Mr. Weiss says the people of his neighborhood will miss the post office at Hemlock, which has been ordered discontinued by the "steenth" assistant postmaster general, but it has been arranged so that each person may hang a mail bag at convenient points along the highway and thus receive his mail daily from the mail carrier which will help some.

Announcement

We are pleased to announce that we have completely rebuilt and enlarged the photographic department of our store and been fortunate to secure the services of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Wood, professional photographer, of many years experience and standing ability to take entire charge. The rear of our Mezzanine floor has been remodeled and a genuine Studio installed. In addition to the Amateur Finishing Work, to which we will now give even better and quicker service than heretofore, we will solicit all such Professional work as Post Cards, Cabinets, Folders, Groups and enlargements. We guarantee satisfaction and hope to please you with such prices that anyone can afford.

As an introductory offer before the holidays we will make ONE DOZEN POST CARD PHOTOGRAPHS for $1.50.

It would please us if you would come in and look over this department and the work we are doing.

Remember there are only 18 days before Xmas.
