PERSONAL NOTES

G. M. Kostic, who lives down in the south end of the county, near the Big Nestucca river, had a private bridge washed away by the high water that prevailed the latter part of November. The bridge cost $1000, and connected his place, over the Nestucca, with the county road. He has begun work on a new bridge, and his neighbors have kindly volunteered to assist in its construction, so that he may have an outlet from his place to the outside world.

J. F. Stranahan, left Wednesday for Pittsburg, California, where he is interested in the J. F. & S. M. Tire Co. The plant at the above place may be moved to Los Angeles, where good inducements are offered the company. Mr. Stranahan is the inventor of a new tire, which is said to be one of the best on the market. His company will manufacture it.

R. F. Hall and N. A. Peters of the Tillamook Cow Testing Association, left Tuesday morning for Napavine, Wash., where they will remain for about three weeks, when they will return to their duties here. The boys have purchased a tract of land up there, which they are having cleared up. Napavine is close to Chehalis, and is a good farming section.

Mrs. Isaac Wells of South Prairie is reported as being quite sick.

W. G. Byers, a Hebo merchant was in the city Wednesday. He reports that farmers are drawing heavily on their haystacks this cold weather, and that the backs of some of the cows are humped like the north half of a rainbow, sans its tints.

G. N. Taggart, a Hillsboro real estate man and wife, were in the city Monday, on their way to Netarts, where they have a summer home. Mr. Taggart owns other property in Netarts, and thinks there is nothing that equals Tillamook beaches in summer or winter.

D. Burford of this city went to Portland Tuesday, called away by news of the death of his father in that city. Mr. Burford's father spent some time over here last Fall visiting the son.

Farmers are busy burning old stumps, clearing up flood debris, and doing other farm work between milking spells, along the road from Tillamook to Bay City.

GEM THEATRE

SUNDAY-MONDAY, JANUARY 22-23

FINE FEATHERS

by Eugene Walters re-produced from his great stage play; truly powerful and powerfully true. A significant drama; that of a young wife with a bungalow husband and Long Island country place ideas. The question is—IS THE GAIN WORTH THE GAME? See "FINE FEATHERS" and answer for yourself. Sunday and Monday nights only.

"THE BOOK AGENT" a two reel William Fox comedy.

TUESDAY-WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 24-25

THE IRON TRAIL

by REX BEACH. A story of the mighty achievements and thrilling adventures of brave men and devoted women in the building of the pioneer railroad through the Alaskan wilderness. Terrific fights—wholesome adventure—heroic achievements—and thrilling suspense are but a few of the amazing incidents to be found in "THE IRON TRAIL." It's just as big and just as good as "Holly O" or "The Silent Call" or any one of several others that we might call your attention to. Don't miss "THE IRON TRAIL"—it's one of the greatest pictures you'll ever see! Come early.

FOX NEWS

THURSDAY, JANUARY 26

THE LADY FROM LONGACRE
