Resolution of Condolence

WHEAREAS: The Supreme Ruler of the Universe has seen fit to receive from this world of pain and sorrow to that happy home beyond, our beloved Comrade F. Jackson, who has been a loyal member of Corinth Corp No. 54, and that in his departure we are again reminded that our lives are fleeting and transitory, and by his departure we are all called to pause a moment in the busy whirl of life, and bow our heads in humble submission to the will of Him who rules the destinies of all, and whereas his loyalty to his family, and to this corp and his fidelity to the responsibilities of life has gained for him the sincere admiration of all those who were so fortunate as to make his acquaintance.

NOW THEREFORE, Be It Resolved That we as members of Corinth Corp No. 54 extend to the family of deceased Comrade F. Jackson our heart felt sympathy in this, their hour of sorrow.

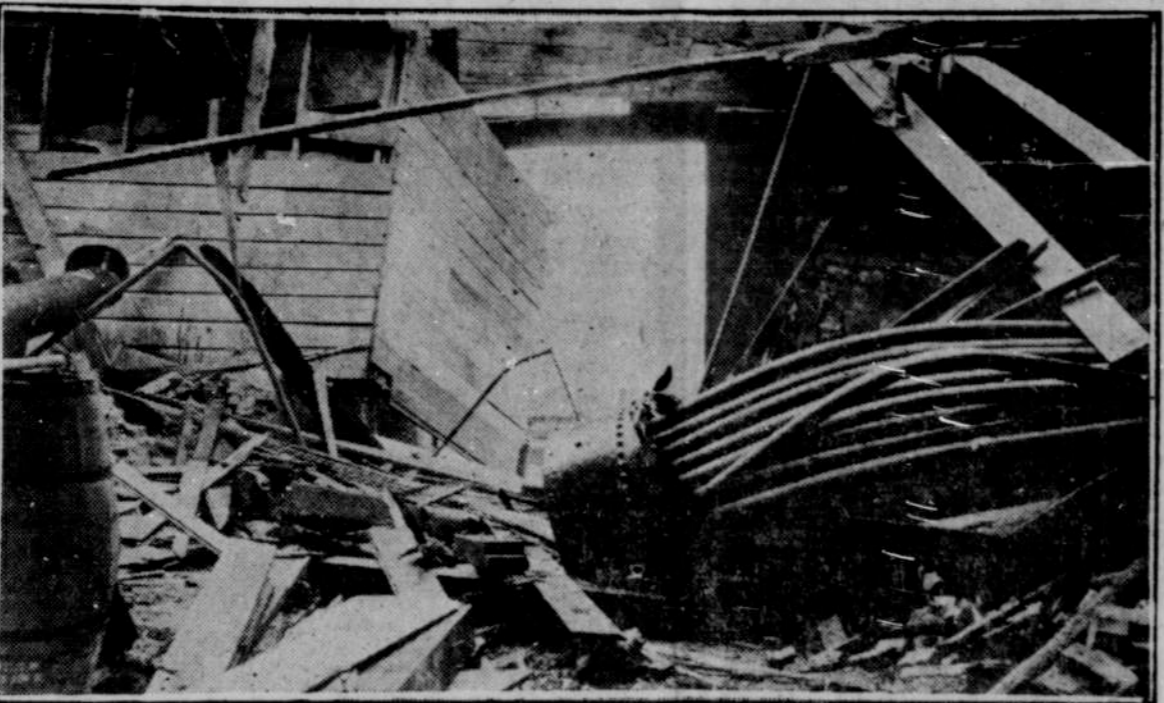

It is Further Resolved, that a copy of this resolution be sent to the bereaved family and a copy be kept on file in this Corps, and same be published in the local papers.

Mrs. Fred Davidson,
Mrs. Frank Heyd,
Mrs. Bertie Dots.

Committee.

Tillamook, Ore. January 23, 1922.

VIEWS OF THREE RIVERS FACTORY, SHOWING DAMAGE CAUSED BY EXPLOSION LAST WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON

The upper view is of the Three Rivers cheese factory, showing the general demolition of the building and the hole in the roof caused by the dome of the boiler crashing through it. The dome was found about one hundred yards up the road from the factory.

The lower views shows what is left of the boiler and the wreckage in the interior of the building. The boiler landed against a double tier of cord wood with such force that the heavy wood was shoved out of its way. The part of the boiler seen to be torn away has never been found, though the vicinity of the explosion has been searched carefully.

The Kill Kare Club held its January meeting at the home of Mrs. Lewis, Mrs. Poorman assisting. Mrs. Pennington reported that the committee on the sale of Xmas seals sold $91.72 worth of seals, and that she sent a check to the Oregon Tuberculosis Association for the same. A letter was received by the club, thanking the committee and members for the generous check sent. Mrs. Edwards had received a letter from the president of the O. F. W. C., saying that the next annual convention would meet in Tillamook in May or June; which was read, and accepted with cheers by the club members. Mrs. Edwards was elected chairman of a committee to reorganize the club to meet the happy emergency of the entertainment of the Federation. This will mean work and more work for the Kill are K Klub, but they have resolved to make it the biggest state convention that has yet been held. The club will meet again on the 2nd of February.

THE CUB'S COLUMN

Greetings Tillamookians! (I think that's proper.)

Anyway I want to say "Hello" and I hope you will get to know me and I to know you. The mason so many people don't get along together is because they don't try to know each other. The better we know one the more good we find in them. Hence, let us know each other better, and pull together in a spirit of cooperation for the common good of all.

Yes, but it would be also if this city had better sidewalks! I have seen a lot of shoes in two days picking the high (not dry) spots in the mud. And the higher the spots the deeper I sunk. I don't know what my poor feet thought about being punished that way. But I DO know what I thought.

The worst of it—I mean the sob stuff in this story is that a cub can't afford to buy very many pairs of shoes.

You're right! I was hustling subscriptions, and judging from the way the circulation manager is snowed under—well, the people want the HEADLIGHT. This old sheet has got some circulation, believe me. But the chief is such a modest guy he don't like to say anything about it. I'd tell you what it is only I am afraid of losing my job.

When it reaches the million mark he will tell everybody. And he promised to give us all a great, big, honest-to-goodness banquet. Such a "blowout" as all of Tillamook County will talk about for twenty years. Don't a promise like that make your mouth water. I say it does. I wonder how much longer this little Cub will have to exist on coffee and—

Oh, say, Spring, glorious Spring is here. Hurrah! No, don't take my word for it—listen: somebody, somewhere told me yesterday that he had spent a half day in the country and saw hundreds upon hundreds of robins and meadow larks. He went on harping upon the sweetness and melody of the meadow lark's song. Kind o' made my feet itchy to hit for the country. No, buddy, I don't know what brand he was smoking; fact is, I believed him.

You poor daddies! I don't blame you for looking worried. I give you all my sympathy, all I have. I know every hubby will have to loosen his purse strings and buy m-lady a new Spring hat; and the kiddies too. Gee, I'm glad I'm single!

Here I can tilt back in this old chair; throw my feet upon the desk, stick a three-for-five between my teeth, blow smoke rings into the air, and go into rhapsodies singing a song of Spring. No Spring hats, nor Spring furs, nor Spring gowns to worry about. Nobody but my selfish old self to provide for. And I guess I am a selfish little Cub at that.

The chief told me last night to murder space. I wonder if I have? I thank you.
