DANCING DENOUNCED

At a recent meeting of clergymen and laymen of the First Methodist church, in Portland, the pastors and laymen unanimously adopted a long resolution denouncing dancing, particularly in public schools.

The resolution adopted by the pastors reads: "Whereas, Under the auspices of organizations which claim to have the interest of our school children at heart the parent-teacher association has caused dancing to be a part of its programme; and,

"Whereas, Believing that the dance is inimical to the best interests of the children and that the school buildings should not be used for such a purpose:

"Therefore, be it resolved: That we, the Methodist ministers of the city of Portland, in meeting assembled, respectfully urge that the school board prohibit the use of the school buildings of the city for the use of dancing."

The other resolution, adopted by both laymen and ministers, was signed by Guy Fitch Phelps and Mrs. S. F. Miller. It follows: "We, as laymen of the Methodist Episcopal church of Portland and vicinity, desire to present to this respected body our profound convictions on the question of dancing, both public and private.

"We are certain that the Methodist position on all such amusements, namely, that they cannot be practiced in the name of God, is in harmony with the spirit of the Bible and our holy Christianity.

"We are certain that the dance plays a large part in destroying the 100,000 girls who disappear from American homes yearly. This position is supported by all social workers, police matrons, rescue workers, and mission leaders everywhere.

"There is no question in our minds but the dance is responsible for a large portion of the divorces granted each year in this country; that it is a deadly and insidious poison working the certain decay of the American home. The association of married people in the ballroom, under the questionable terms of the modern dance, in the very logic of the case, can only lead to jealousy, tragedy and domestic destruction.

"It is our observation that church members who indulge in dancing cease at once to manifest those evidences of personal spiritual life expected of all who assume the obligations of the cross. That they become worldly, indifferent, given to lightness and the superficial, neglecting their Christian duties, and exerting an influence detrimental to the kingdom of God in the world.

"We regret profoundly the dance infatuation, amounting to a craze, which has taken possession of the public, and feel that the time has come to lay strong hands upon this evil, knowing that it is destroying thousands of our Methodist young people, who have been the members of our Sunday School classes and of our churches.

"We are certain that the public dancehall is the rendezvous of white slavers, and that they take advantage of the mingling of the sexes in such places to secure victims to supply their market. Of this we have certain knowledge.

"We are grieved and alarmed over the situation and feel that, something must be done to check this widespread evil, and we call upon you, our pastors, and all fraternal societies, as well as all agencies working for the uplift of society, to take active measures to check this flood of worldliness which is paralyzing our spiritual agencies and taking our young people from us almost as fast as we can secure them for the church.

"We especially deplore the fact that dancing has become the order of the public school, and we are sure that the same body agency which took the Bible out of the school has helped to put the dance in its place. We feel it to be inconsistent to teach our children morality and Christian philosophy in our homes and churches only to see all we have tried to do destroyed by the public school programme. We are certain that dancing is no proper part of the public school system; that it is working untold harm to the morals of students; that the dancing permitted in the schools violates the rights of our homes and that the state officials who have the care of this institution should give serious heed to our objections.

"In presenting this petition we wish to place ourselves on record as in favor of all healthful, clean and uplifting amusements, and that we have no desire to deprive anyone of such pleasures. But with all facts before us we are convinced that the dance is a deadly menace to public morals, to domestic peace and personal spirituality, and we register our open hostility to it, whether in private or public.

"Having these convictions, we earnestly petition you, our pastors and leaders, to take such action as will give us relief and place our church on record against this destructive amusement."

For Old Pillow Slips
Everybody's pillow cases wear out. What do you do with yours?
Here are some things that can be done to prolong their usefulness in other than the appointed ways. Keep the worn ones for mending sheets and other pillow cases. They will also prove stout reinforcements for coarser underwear that needs mending.

Two together will make an apron for the laundress, or, with a worn Turkish towel, a padded protection for her as she bends over the wash-tub.

Cut them up and make covers for your sofa-pillow before the gay outer covering goes on. Floss and down sift through the thin covering in which you usually buy these pillow foundations.

When the dressmaker comes draw an old pillow case over the leaf of the sewing machine and secure it. Goods will not slip and the seamstress saves time.

Run a drawstring through the wide hem of a not too worn case and hang it in the sewing room to hold a half-finished garment over night; join two together and make of them a cover for the evening frock.

A "doubtful" colored sweater may be successfully washed if the sweater is first soaked in one-third pail of lukewarm water to which has been added three tablespoons of turpentine and a cup of salt.

To remove rust spots from linen wet the material in warm water and rub on the spots a solution of one part oxalic acid to six parts water. Hang in bright sunlight to dry.

Cereal boxes emptied of their contents are the very best thing to put the jars of vegetables and preserves in to exclude the light. When arranged on the shelves label or write the name of the contents on the boxes.

To obviate waste of time and money, have tacked to the inside door of the medicine cabinet a list of all drugs on hand (alphabetically arranged). When a bottle or box is emptied, have it renewed at once, and so be ready for emergency.

When melting chocolate, take the amount of granulated sugar that this recipe calls for and put it in a perfectly dry granite pan and into this shelve the chocolate as usual. Stir into the sugar. Place on the stove (not too hot) and stir for two or three minutes. The sugar and chocolate will blend perfectly and no chocolate will be wasted by sticking to the dish. The reason for this is that chocolate melts at a much lower temperature than sugar.

Dessert Nouveau
A noodle charlotte is a new dessert, and to make home-made noodles should be used. For the noodles beat three eggs very light and sift in enough flour to make it stiff

Hot Potato Salad
Of course you know how to make potato salad, but did you ever eat it hot? This is something new and the family will welcome a change. Use these ingredients: Five medium-sized cold boiled potatoes, one small onion, one-quarter cup finely chopped celery, one tablespoon minced parsley, one egg, one-half cup olive oil, one-quarter cup vinegar, salt pepper. Slice the potatoes into a buttered baking dish, sprinkle with salt and pepper and add onion, celery, minced, then celery and parsley. Beat the egg slightly and add the vinegar and oil slowly. Heat over hot water, then pour the dressing over the potatoes and put the dish in a moderate oven to heat through.

Saucer Cake Will Keep
It is simple to make and may be kept several weeks if put in a covered tin box. Use one cup flour, one cup cornstarch, one-half cup sugar, one-third cup butter, two eggs, two tablespoons shredded candied orange peel, one-eighth teaspoon salt. Mix the flour, cornstarch, candied peel and sugar, add butter beaten to a cream mixture for 10 minutes then pour into a buttered bakeware in moderate oven from 45 to 60 minutes.

Tutti Frutti Ice Cream
Prepare a good vanilla ice cream mixture. Add one cup candied fruits which have been softened in hot water. A little chopped candied ginger may also be added.
Ham Baked in Milk
A thoroughly delicious dish for the really hungry person is made by using a large slice of ham, sprinkling it with pepper, putting it in a skillet and covering it with milk. Bake the ham in a hot oven until brown on the top, then turn it brown on the other side.
Vegetable Combination
Baked tomato and eggplant with spaghetti makes a nice vegetable dish. Pour into a deep earthenware dish one cup of cream; line the dish with thin slices of eggplant sprinkled well with salt; slice two large tomatoes, and place a layer of the on the eggplant; next place a layer of cooked spaghetti sprinkled with grated cheese, salt and pepper cover this with a layer of sliced potatoes; sprinkle over tomatoes and lightly chopped green peppers and per well and bake gently for one and a half hours.
