DAFFYGRAMS

Vision means sight. Tell a woman she is a vision, and she feels flattered; but tell her she is a sight and you are no longer her friend.

Let's change it from Tillamook to Chilly-look. Bachelors take notice: Tillamook boasts of one young lady who would like to elope. What's her name? That would be telling. And then—we are not running a matrimonial bureau.

Tillamook girls more and more are exposing their ears, but there is nothing to indicate they have missed much by keeping them covered.

It's not what we tell about people that interests them. It's what we could tell but won't.

Did you ever notice the husband of the woman who boasts that she has a "mind of her own"?—Ex.

A "society leader" is so called because she leads her husband around by the nose.—Ex.

Clothes may not make the man, but sometimes his wife's clothes break him.—Ex.

The modern woman never denies her age. She paints it out.—Ex.

The sign, "House for rent; no children permitted" is replaced in Walla Walla, Wash., by "House for rent; couples must have children. If child is born in house a month's rent will be given for each child." Let's hear from Tillamook landlord's. What do you say

A man who smoked almost incessantly died at Utica at the age of 105. There it is; the deadly nicotine again.
