Mrs. Schultz Entertain

Mrs. O. A. Schultz entertained the Shakespeare club of this city at her home near the Tillamook Lumber Company's plant last Friday, April 14th. Readings from "Richard the III" were had with discussions of the play, followed by dainty refreshments with a suggestion of Easter time. In addition to the club members present were: W. A. W. B. Alderman, Mrs. M. M. Eales, Mrs. A. A. Hall, Mrs. C. H. Schultz and Mrs. F. B. Strahan. The club is growing in interest as well as in membership.

Relatives Gather At Easter Dinner

Mrs. George C. Smith was hostess at an Easter dinner at her home, which was attended by a large number of relatives. The rooms were decorated with daffodils and a delicious dinner was served. The guests voted Mrs. Smith an ideal hostess. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Henry Diehl, Eleanor and Eileen Diehl, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Ward, Lucinda and Ariene Ward, Mr. and Mrs. Oren Lucas, Pauline and Oren Lucas, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Lucas, Bruce Lucas, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Lucas, Josephine Jannette and Carl Lucas, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Fogg, Vern Fox and G. G. Lucas.

Sutton-Scherzinger

At the Methodist parsonage on April 14th occurred the marriage of Ralph Sutton to Miss Mildred Scherzinger, Rev. C. L. Dark, pastor of the Methodist church officiating. After the wedding the happy couple returned to their home at Nesko-win, Oregon. The good wishes of a host of friends attend these young people.

Mrs. E. E. Koch will present Mary Lamar, Velma Daniels, Rowena Hanson, Mable Harrison, Leonard Bales, Lucia Wiley, Muriel Wiley, Lunetta Pollock, Helen Kiehm and Ruth Beals, in a piano recital at the studio, April 25th, at 8 o'clock. Invitations may be had by phoning 11W.

CORRECTION

The reporter for the Headlight inadvertently stated in last issue that "Janis of Sequoia," the fine Guernsey cow of this county, which promises to be a world's champion, was owned by Howard Edmunds, when the fact is, she is owned by Fitzpatrick & Edmunds, of which fact the reporter was ignorant. The correction is gladly made, and Mr. Fitzpatrick's pardon is asked.

County Club News

Miss Helen Cowgill, assistant state club leader, will be in the county this week, from Monday to Friday. She plans to meet with local leaders in sewing, cooking and canning, and may have time to meet with a few clubs.

The Tillamook Poultry club, under the leadership of L. N. Bennett, have started their work for this year. The boys and girls call themselves the Kluck-Kluck-Kluck Klub.

An achievement day program was given at Fairview school Friday, April 14th. The Fairview sewing club, with Mrs. Evelyn Stedinger as leader, exhibited some fine needle work. The poultry club gave several appropriate poems and readings and the school sang club songs.

Miss Rupp is leader of the poultry club and has an exceedingly live enrollment. The boys exhibited some dandy manual training work.

A sewing club has been organized at the Red Clover school. The local leader is Miss Jennie Reed, and the members of the club are: President, Anna Nuffer; vice-president, Rosa Nuffer; secretary, Elizabeth Abplanalp; Irene Wyss, Mildred Peterson. The name of the club is "The Bluebirds."

The Harmony Sewing club under the local leadership of Mrs. M. W. Earl, has the following members: President, Esther Earl; vice-president, Florence Krebs, secretary, Freda Rogers, Ruth Earl, Hazel Al-sop.

L. J. Allen, State Livestock Club leader, visited this county for two days last week. While here he met with the Miami Valley Calf Club, and also attended the Guernsey meeting at the home of Paul Fitzpatrick south of Tillamook.

The Skookum Canning Club is planning to go to the O. A. C. boys' and girls' summer school in June.

This is a two weeks session open to club members. Classes are conducted by the college in home economics, animal husbandry, dairying and farm crops. There is a charge of fifteen dollars to each member who attends, for board and room.

A candy sale was held at the high school dramatic club program by the Skookum Canning Club, under the direction of Mrs. Doty. The club took in about twenty dollars which will be used, with the other money the club makes, to send the members to O. A. C. summer school. The club will hold another candy sale at the Operetta to be given by the grade school on Friday the 21st.

NEHALEM ITEMS

Misses Sara Parr and Elizabeth McGillr are spending Easter vacation in Portland.

Mrs. William Norris visited the county seat Wednesday.

W. J. Mead, wife and mother, were business visitors at Tillamook Tuesday.

Vernon Haybarker, electrician for Oregonian, spent a couple of days inspecting the wireless plant here this week.

William Perego received a serious injury to one of his eyes from a piece of cable at Coal Creek Camp last week.

Misses Lynette Svenson and Vivian Tohl visited the county seat last week.

Tom. Keyes and Oren Wilkes of Tillamook were in Nehalem Sunday.

Mrs. Albert Meade, who was operated on by Dr. Boals last week for mastoid disease, is reported as getting along nicely.

Numerous visitors are coming to Nehalem each evening to listen to the Radio concerts. These concerts are given in San Francisco and Seattle and are heard here distinctly and clearly. The wireless plant here is second to none in the state and Mr. Meade may properly feel proud of its success.

R. W. Watson spoke last Friday night at K. P. Hall to a fair sized crowd on tax reduction and what becomes of the money. He handles the subject without gloves, and with enthusiasm. We did not get to hear the conclusion, but from the trend of argument feel certain that the Presbyterian doctrine, "If what is to be, will be, then whatever is, is right," does not apply to taxes in Oregon. Who has the remedy?

Louis E. Bean of Eugene was calling on the voters of this neighborhood last week.

Last Saturday morning when a little grandchild of grandpa Batzner went to call him for breakfast, it was discovered that sometime during the night, the grim reaper had visited him and life on earth had ceased. Mr. Batzner had returned at the usual time the evening before in his usual health and his death was entirely unexpected. He was born in Indiana 85 years ago in Franklin county.

Grew to manhood and served throughout the Civil war in the 3d Indiana cavalry. He was the father of six children four of whom are still living, one daughter living in Kansas and another in Missouri, while two, Mrs. Ed. Smith and Brad Batzner live here. A son was accidentally killed in Missouri about a year ago, and the other died in 1897.

Grandpa Batzner was an ardent sportsman and successful fisherman.

Ladies of Tillamook

Hubby spends, simply for his satisfaction on an acquired habit, from 10c to 50c or more daily for his smokes. You should have the privilege of spending as much for real cream for your cereal dish and coffee or tea, and not only have the satisfaction that the use of cream on your table will give you but also you will get real food value. Cream contains a rich supply of the vitamins so essential to bodily health.

From 7c to 25c daily will furnish you an ample supply.
