LOCAL HAPPENINGS

F. P. Humpke of Nehalem spent Sunday and Monday with his daughter, Mrs. Wilkes of this city.

B. Laesser of Nehalem transacted business in the city Tuesday.

G. H. Folsand left Tuesday for a trip to Portland by stage.

Mr. and Mrs. Gratzler of Garibaldi were registered at the Todd Sunday.

Laura Price of Bay City was in the city Saturday for the day.

John G. Jaggi of Brighton was in the city Saturday.

Ross, Gilbert Zaddach and E. H. Craig of Mohler were in the city Saturday and took in the boxing at the city auditorium.

Cliff Overturf of Seaside was registered at the Tillamook Sunday.

A. G. Beals was a stage passenger to Portland last Monday.

Frank Allender was a passenger on the Portland stage Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex Watt of this city went to Cloverdale Monday on the stage.

W. W. Cleery of Belden was in the city last Friday.

Captain Farley of the life saving station at Barview was in the city Friday for a few hours. He reports that matters in his line have been very quiet this winter, and that Barview is booming.

Walter F. Toozie of Salem was here Friday in the interest of a Geo. A. White club for governor. Mr. Toozie has been prominent for many years in the councils of the republican party of the state, and has been a candidate for the appointment of postmaster at Salem, which matter is still unsettled.

Mrs. Orpha Eastman recently exhibited some remarkably large eggs at this office, three of which weighed a pound. Such large eggs usually are only freaks of nature, but as Mrs. Eastman's hen makes a regular business of producing these mammoth eggs, the fowl is believed to be a record breaker.

A. E. Burgdoff, head of the state game commission, was in the city last Friday, with headquarters at the Tillamook. He had business here in connection with his official duties.

Taste is a matter of tobacco quality

We state it as our honest belief that the tobaccos used in Chesterfield are of finer quality (and hence of better taste) than in any other cigarette at the price.
