In a bold daylight robbery in which a band of eight thugs held up the entire household of A. R. SALVATION ARMY
DRIVE ON IN MAY

The campaign for funds for the Salvation Army will begin on May 18th and last to and inclusive of the 20th of the month. It is said that about twenty business men will engage here in the work of securing funds for the Army, and fraternal societies, schools and clubs are asked to co-operate in the drive. The county will be divided into districts, and committees appointed in each district, all under management and supervision of a central committee. The following endorsement is by Governor Olcott is reprinted: January 23rd, 1922.

"It gives me pleasure to write a word of endorsement of the subjects, purposes and work of the Salvation Army Rescue and Maternity Home of Portland, Oregon, formerly known as the White Shield Home. This is one of the many worthy institutions in Oregon of a semi-private nature that receives aid from the state and comes under state inspection and supervision to a certain extent.

Its field of labor is to assist the erring girl, the forsaken mother, and the children of both. I have heard nothing but words of praise for the management of this Home and its accomplishments.

For the Salvation Army is accomplishing nobly and whole-heartedly a branch of that great work which has blazoned the name of the Army into the hearts of the men and women. Truly Christian in its nature is work of this kind. The Salvation Army is to be heartily commended for what it is doing.

This Home receives the heart-broken, the afflicted and the deserted, shields and protects them and gives them new hope, new courage and an added lease of life. May it ever receive the support it so deservedly merits."

Respectfully,
(Signed) BEN OLCOTT,
Governor of Oregon.

NETARTS SAWMILL HAS BEEN STARTED AGAIN

The Netarts sawmill which was bought by a Portland company some time since, and which has been idle for many months, began operations recently, with Connie Dye as manager, and with a full crew of men. The mill is on the old Leland place on the Netarts road, about four miles from Tillamook, in the midst of a large tract of spruce timber. It is understood that this mill will saw out a lot of timber for the new Netarts-Maxwell-Bayocan road which is now under construction under county supervision. The mill may also saw out a lot of spruce timber suitable for spruce boxes for the Garibaldi box factory, as the factory has a good demand for the box product. A number of men will be employed at the mill.

MIAMI VALLEY CALF CLUB
ORGANIZED LAST WEEK

L. J. Allen, state live stock leader of Corvallis, was recently in this county, and during his stay here assisted to organize, in company of D. H. Kennedy, county leader, a calf club at Miami, to be known as the Miami Valley Calf Club. Mr. Peterson is the leader, and has offered a pure-blooded Jersey calf to the member of the club, who during the year, files the best report of his or her activities. Mr. Allen expressed himself as being much pleased with the work in this county, and regards Tillamook as one of the foremost counties of the state in club work. While here he visited several of the many clubs of the county, outside of stock clubs, and found them to be in a flourishing condition.

County Club

Miss Helen Cowgill, assistant State Club leader, met with the local cooking and sewing club leaders of Tillamook, and went over the work outlined for the year. Miss Cowgill had a number of articles made by sewing club girls all over the state. These included all the work required in Divisions 1 and 2.

She also took up demonstration work and told what other clubs are doing in other places. Local leaders present were: Mrs. Blanche Hogan, Mrs. Porter, Mrs. Lelia Doty, Mrs. M. W. Earl, Mrs. Langtree, Mrs. Ozella Schimming, Mrs. Irma Embum, Miss Gertrude Brooks, Miss Flora Schild and Miss Lily Schild.

Miss Cowgill visited the Cloverdale sewing and cooking clubs, the Meda sewing club, the Hebo sewing and canning clubs and the Blaine sewing club, in the south of the county. She also visited a number of local leaders including Miss Echo Thomas; Pleasant Valley, Mrs. Hopkins, Mrs. Bell and Mrs. Perry at Beaver, and Miss Reusser at Hebo.

Going north Miss Cowgill visited Balm, Mohler, Nehalem and Wheeler clubs.

At Wheeler the Cookery Club served a lunch to Miss Cowgill, Dr. and Mrs. H. E. Rinehart, Mrs. Halladay, Mrs. Wells, Miss Mattley, Miss Daniels and Miss Damon and the sewing club.

The Jean Du Luth Guernsey Farms of Minnesota are giving away a pure bred heifer according to Mr. G. I. Grout, managing owner. Mr. Grout says: "We are considering the world's champion Guernsey, Jean Duluth Coronet 52816 and her half brother, May Rose Searchlight 33074 to the National Guernsey sale to be held at Wheaton, Illinois on May 11th, or the closest guess made as to the price these animals will bring priced individually we are offering a pure bred heifer sire by Searchlight and out of a half sister to Golden Coronet. This calf was born March 15th 1922. The contest will close May 5th." Club members desiring to send in guesses should turn them into the County Club Agent at once, so they can be forwarded before the contest closes.

"In 1920," according to the Northwest Poultry Journal, "club members in the poultry work in the U. S. managed 189,595 fowls and marketed 243,786 dozen eggs. This speaks for itself. If a boy or girl," it goes on to say, "wants to buy setting eggs, give them the best you have at a reasonable price. If they are club members, make a special price, and then keep a record of the results. It's a good investment. A. J. Raney, the R. I. Red specialist of Corbett, Oregon, believes the best none too good for a club member, and has found it a paying investment to offer some of his finest eggs for prizes."

Mr. and Mrs. Fred C. Baker, who have been viting in Eugene, returned home Friday, and the morning they left there it was snowing. Mr. Baker went there to attend a meeting of the Roosevelt Memorial Coast Highway Association, there being several matters of importance to be discussed of interest to the coast counties. He is of the opinion that through the activities of the association the Roosevelt highway will be designated a road of primary importance, notwithstanding the fact that the State Highway Commission, in submitting a tentative map to the Secretary of Agriculture, designated it a road of secondary importance. If the association wins out in the fight it will be a splendid thing for the coast counties, as a primary road takes 60 per cent of the federal road money. From information from several sources, and of a reliable character, Mr. Baker feels somewhat confident that the Association will win out. Mr. Baker said that the Roosevelt Highway Association had accepted an invitation from North of the Bay Counties Association to hold a conference at Crescent City some time in June, as the seven northern counties of California are anxious to co-operate with the seven coast counties of Oregon.

J. B. Wilkes of Orenco, is here for a few days visiting with his brother, Orville Wilkes of this city.

Orval Bodle of Bay City was in the city Friday. Mr. Bodle was recently a student of O. A. C. but is now employed at the Nelson store in his home town.

Mrs. F. D. Ingraham of Silverton, who spent several days here visiting with R. S. Coleman and other Tillamook friends, returned to her home the latter part of last week. She formerly lived in this city.
