SAVE FLAPPERS' SOULS

Mrs. Mattie Crawford, woman evangelist, sometimes called the Female Billy Sunday, has launched a campaign designed to bring salvation to the flapper. "The little flappers are flapping their souls away," she says. "They must send them to the laundry of the Lord, and let their hair grow. The tiny modern Deliahs are having the tables turned. The flapper has lost her moral strength with the loss of her locks."

GENERAL SHERIDAN WOULD PLAY POKER

In speaking of the early days of McMinnville, J. C. Coburn tells the Telephone Herald that the town site of McMinnville was bought for a squirrel rifle about 1824, because the owner of the site got tired of his donation land claim and thought he could have more sport with a squirrel gun.

There was no bridge across Cosine creek and the only means of crossing was by the ford, situated between where the college foot-bridge and the concrete bridge now are. The story is told of General Bill Sheridan, then Lieutenant Sheridan, who was living at Grand Ronde and who often rode down to Lafayette, then the county seat, to play poker with "the boys". He would ride his cayuse down in the early evening, play poker all night, and be back for roll call in the morning. One cold, rainy night when he came to the ford, where the concrete bridge is now, it was so swollen he would not cross. His friends advised him to go back or go around, but he exclaimed, "I never turn back," swam his horse across and went on to his poker game.

County Club News

The Tillamook Jersey Calf Club will be represented at the Jersey Jubilee if it is possible to arrange it. The County Club leader will take out a car full of Jersey Calf Club members, providing that many can make arrangements to go. The only cost would be the board and room for the three days the Jubilee lasts. In this trip five world record cows of the Jersey breed will be visited besides large number of class leaders. The Jubilee will start from Albany and go down one side of the valley and up the other side.

The Tillamook Guernsey Calf Club met at the home of Mrs. Busiach Wednesday afternoon. Club yells and songs were practiced and some judging studied.

LOCAL HAPPENINGS

Mr and Mrs. Geo. Lamm of Camp 4 were recently presented with a little girl baby who weighed two and one-half pounds at birth. The little midget was born on Easter Sunday and is making good progress, reports a local doctor.

The wild geese are winging northward, a sign that we shall have spring before summer is entirely past. Even the geese are late this year.

Mrs. Ybla Mills is an expert troller. One day last week she landed a 43 pound salmon in the Trask river, one of the advance horde of the Chinook run. Several catches are reported by fishermen of the spring run of Chinook.

E. M. Condit of the Tillamook garage went to Portland Saturday morning and drove back a brand new Ford coupe, getting home Sunday morning at one o'clock.

Clarence Dunn of Meda was in town the other day and bought a new Fordson tractor, of the Tillamook garage, which will be taken down to him sometime this week. The tractor will be used in logging, and will make the trip under its own power, a distance of 30 miles to the south of Tillamook.

Frank Hunter caught a 36 pound Chinook salmon last Sunday on a spinner.

M. R. Terry of the Willard station, went down to Portland last Friday returning Sunday. He drove up to Eagle creek, while out, and states that huge walls of snow and ice still remain on the Columbia highway along the road, in the above section.

Rev. Dark of the M. E. church was called to Sheridan Wednesday of last week to officiate at the funeral of Jos. Brown, an old and well known citizen of the Sheridan section.

Belding was represented in the city one day last week, when J. B. Robertson of that place visited here. Mr. Robertson is connected with the timber industry at Belding.

Mrs. E. L. Parsons and Miss Priscilla Pinkley, both of Wheeler, were in Tillamook recently. Miss Pinkley teaches in the high school at the Nehalem bay town.

County Treasurer Kathleen Mills made a business trip to Portland the first of last week.

HULA-HULA DOLL IN PARADE

The Hula-hula doll has broken into society, at least into flapper society, as proved by this photograph from the Atlantic City parade.
