LOCAL MAN IS HONORED AT DRUGGISTS MEETING

J. S. Lamar, who has been attending the meeting of the druggists of the state at Roseburg, has been honored by being elected third vice president of that organization.

William "Bill" Moore and family of Baker spent Saturday and Sunday at the Cecil Stuller home. Bill is the owner of a grocery store at Baker and he and his family are on a motor trip in these parts seeing some real country. A crowd of former Bakerites accompanied Bill and his folks over to Netarts Sunday and initiated him to clam digging and crab fishing. The clams were dug but before going out in the boat for the crabs Bill bought some to make sure crabs would be brought back so as to show the ladies how successful the trip had been. Everything would have come off according to schedule but his young offspring happened to near unnoticed and nuff sed.

legion convention in Oregon has been entertained before. The general committee is headed by Francis V. Galloway, district attorney of Wasco county and Pat Foley is commander of the post. The chairman of the various convention committees are Fred H. McNeil, publicity; H. S. Rice, decoration; Simon Cohen entertainment R. M. Weber, parade; J. T. Henry, registration.
Men from the Willamette valley and other western Oregon points who do not drive thru are expected to mobilize at Portland on the 26th and come through to The Dalles on a special train. If this train arrives on the evening the 26th, as anticipated, there will be entertainment features immediately following the arrival of the visitors.
Hanford MacNider, national commander of the Legion, has just accepted an invitation to attend the Oregon convention. He is expected here Friday and Saturday, and special arrangements have been made to entertain him. A number of members of his staff will accompany him on the westward trip.
Local legionnaires are extending special invitations to nearby posts to turn out en-masse for the parade on the 29th, when it is hoped to have 5,000 ex-service men and women in line. A unique feature of the parade will be the Indians from the Warm Springs reservation who are expected to participate. The parade will start at 11 o'clock in the morning, and Commander Lane Clodell of the state department has announced that he will convene the delegates in final session immediately afterwards for the election of officers and selection of the 1923 meeting place.

The convention here will be staged in the spacious new civic auditorium, dedicated this spring. It was constructed from city funds and dedicated to the honor of the men and women of the county who served in the war.
HAS HAY FOR SALE
A letter received by the Chamber of Commerce from H. Laneus, Haines Garage, Haines, Oregon, stating that there are about 3000 tons of choice first crop alfalfa in that valley, and he is wanting to know whether this would interest the dairymen of Tillamook county. The writer does not state what the hay is selling for, but says better quotations can be obtained now than later.
Eugene—Work progressing rapidly on Cloverdale highway.

John H. Perry The Man Behind the Gun

Editor's Note: John H. Perry, who insists that Country America never will get its fair share of the wealth it produces until it is represented through its publishers in the form of a country newspaper bloc, is President of The American Press Association and of The Publishers' Autocaster Service Company. Here is his record in brief:
Born in Kentucky; educated in law in University of Virginia.
As a State's Prosecutor won more than 90 per cent. of cases tried.
Tried more newspaper cases than any other lawyer in America. Won more than five million dollars in suits without losing a case.
Has owned or partly owned several large daily newspapers, the values of each of which increased from a very small amount to as high as three million dollars for one paper.
Made the greatest circulation record in America by increasing the Sunday circulation of one daily from 57,000 to 100,000 in nine months.
Is director and co-controlling owner of several strong, prosperous banks.
He was raised in the tobacco growing country and knows that industry thoroughly.
Has never failed in any enterprise he has undertaken.
Has made a fortune by his own efforts.
