DAIRY SECTIONS OF MIDDLE WEST DO NOT COMPARE

ASSOCIATION SECRETARY GIVES REPORT ON EASTERN TRIP

MANY CHEESE FACTORIES IN WISCONSIN

LACK OF COOPERATION HURTS BUSINESS IN MID-WEST SECTION

Upon the return Sunday of Mr and Mrs. Carl Haberlach from Wisconsin, where the secretary of the Tillamook county creamery association had gone in the interest of the organization, Mr. Haberlach issued the following statement:

"We made a two weeks trip to Minnesota and Wisconsin, leaving here the 7th and returning the 22nd. By traveling four days and eight nights we were able to put in nine days in the states mentioned.

"Our first stop was at Minneapolis and St. Paul, where the National Dairy Show was in progress. The National Dairy Show has grown into a real national dairy show. The show was held at the Minnesota State Fair grounds between Minneapolis and St. Paul. These grounds afford ample space for such an exhibit of dairy stock and dairy machinery. All of the large dairy machinery and supply houses were well represented. An unusually large number of dairy stock was also shown in the basement of machinery hall. Wisconsin also showed a lot of dairy grade cows, many of which were sold. Wisconsin was more strongly represented than any state except Minnesota. We met several Portland people there. A western man naturally gets the impression that after all we have almost a national show in the Pacific International, the latter, as far as dairy stock is concerned, being well up with the National, especially in the number of cows and dairy stock shown is concerned.

"I put in quite a little time looking into the grain conditions, and made a number of purchases of oats for corn. Practically all of the oats and all of the corn we will use the coming year, will come out of Minnesota territory. I, e., will be bought through Minneapolis brokers. Grains we bought upon arriving there advanced two dollars per ton before our return. That is the one reason why our local grain prices have not advanced in line with Coast asking prices.

"We found a large part of the oats and wheat unthreshed throughout North Dakota when we went East the 9th inst., but by the 19th a large part had been taken care of. The weather altogether was fine, enabling the farmers to take care of their harvesting.

"Considerable time was spent in the dairy sections of Wisconsin. I was surprised at the extent of the dairy section, the uniformly good grass lands, fine barns and fair houses. Only in the cheese factories were we disappointed. These are not at all like the modern Tillamook factory, in fact we did not see one factory in Wisconsin that would compare with any one of our ten best factories. The factories are generally owned by individual cheese makers, and there is no inducement or encouragement to erect the factories necessary to a successful cheese business. In the first place the cheese makers do not get enough for making cheese to get ahead financially, and if they did, human nature, which is as strong in the farming sections and with farmers generally as anywhere else, would preclude spending the necessary funds, as the farmers would then be getting rich too fast. It has always occurred to me that the only proper manner is for the dairymen who own

LOCAL COMPANY GETS HIGH PLACE

Captain J. E. Shearer, commanding the local unit of the National Guard, received word this week that Company "K" held top place among the thirty or more units of Oregon. This position was given for attendance at drills and Tillamook is listed with a percentage of 82.7 for the month of September. The event was so pleasing to the Captain that he treated the company to a feed after the drill Monday evening.

Word was received Monday afternoon that Adjutant General George A. White, Colonel Creed Hammond and Captain L. A. Milner would be in Tillamook next Monday night to witness the work of Company "K".

The company was divided into two platoons last drill night to facilitate the handling of the men.

TWO FAIL TO APPEAR; BONDS ARE FORFEITED

Louis Smith, who was found guilty on a bootlegging charge and who was released on $500 bonds while he straightened up some of his affairs, failed to appear to put himself in the custody of the sheriff this week and Judge Bagley declared his bonds forfeited. Louis Smith, Sr., and L. A. McCormick were his bondsmen. Smith was sentenced to six months in jail and fined $500.

Victor Franklin failed to appear yesterday, the date set, and his bonds of $250 were declared forfeited. Franklin was fined $400 and sentenced to a year in jail for the unlawful operation of an automobile. His drivers license was also revoked for a year. He was paroled on this however, on condition that he pay $50 of the fine and make settlement with C. H. Graves for two cows injured when he ran into them while driving an automobile without lights.

C. F. Pankov and P. W. Todd were the bondsmen in this case.

BIG COUNTY MEETING OF K. P. LODGE HELD

A large crowd was present at the regular meeting of the K. P. Lodge here Monday night to do honor to C. W. Barriek, who was elected Grand Vice Chancellor of the grand lodge of Oregon. Members from all over the county attended.

Among those present were Millard F. Hardesty of Seaside, present Grand Chancellor, J. O. Bozorth of Bay City, Senior Past Chancellor, and Herman Wise of Astoria, District Deputy Grand Chancellor. The Seaside and Nehalem lodges sent delegations. Refreshments were served at the close of the evening.

FORMER TILLAMOOK SCHOOL TEACHER DIES AT ASHLAND

Winifred Grace Spencer, teacher in the Ashland schools for several years, died there suddenly Monday morning. She had been ill for nearly a week, but was thought to be improving. She was 34 years and 8 months of age. Her father and mother, residents of Ashland, and two brothers, one in Sacramento, Cal., and one in Honolulu, T. H., survive her. Funeral services were held Wednesday, all schools of the city being closed.

Miss Spencer will be remembered by many here, as she taught in the schools of Tillamook county about ten years ago.

QUICKER FREIGHT SERVICE PLANNED BY SOUTHERN PAC.

In order to give the patrons of the Southern Pacific company quicker action on freight, that company has arranged a 7:00 A. M. delivery. In order to do this it was necessary to put on a night force at the local freight warehouse. Freight can now be shipped from Portland, for instance, on Monday and is here and ready for delivery Wednesday morning at 7 o'clock.

Irwin Brujin had his hand and arm hurt Wednesday at the Coates sawmill by a load of lumber sliding into it.

MOLE CONTEST COMING TO CLOSE NOVEMBER FIRST

SCHOOL CHILDREN OF COUNTY MAKE BIG INROADS ON FARM PESTS

OVER 3000 MOLES AND GOPHERS TAKEN

PRIZE MONEY TO BE AWARDED TO THREE IN EACH DISTRICT

The mole contest that has been conducted in this county since last March will be closed on November first and the prize money awarded to the winners of the contest.

When the contest was started last spring under the auspices of the U. S. Biological survey, a number of the school children of the county were interested and cash awards amounting to $200 were posted for the largest catch of moles between the first and November 1. The county was divided into four districts and the prize money was split into four amounts and awarded to the first second and third places. A bounty of five cents is also paid by the state for moles and gophers.

Thirty-eight school children entered the contest and to date have sent in over 3000 mole and gopher skins. These are to be taken to the Pacific International stock show for publicity purposes and later sold and the proceeds divided among the contestants pro rata.

The winners of the contest will be announced at a later date.

TILLAMOOK MEN RETURN FROM TRIP TO IDAHO

C. W. Barriek and R. B. Miller returned Saturday from a trip through eastern Oregon to Payette, Idaho. On the return they came through Ontario and Vale, over the Old Oregon Trail. Mr. Miller stated that from Portland to Ontario, about 435 miles, there are only about twenty-five miles of bad road and that is being rapidly improved.

Dr. Horace Patchen of Iowa, who lived here in former years, is in the city visiting friends. Dr. Patchen was an old school mate of B. E. King.

60,000 trout are to be planted by the state in streams and lakes near Seio.

KEEP OUT OF DANGER; GET THE HEADLIGHT!

A man was arrested and fined in this county last week for running without headlights. Every resident of Tillamook county should learn the moral of this: get the Headlight.

There are a few days left in which to take advantage of the special low offer of $1.50 for one year's subscription to Tillamook county's newest paper and no one can afford to pass it up.

Get your money into this office before November 1st and the Headlight is yours for one year at $1.50. After that it will be $2.00.

This offer is good not only for new subscribers but applies also to renewals. Any subscriber who is not in arrears can also take advantage of this offer to pay for the paper ahead at a reduced rate, as many are now doing.

GOVERNOR OLCOTT SPEAKS WEDSDAY

Governor Ben W. Olcott spoke to a small crowd at the city hall auditorium Wednesday evening on the political issues of the day in Oregon. The Governor was introduced by F. C. Baker, chairman of the County Republican Central Committee. Walter L. Toose of McMinnville also spoke.

The principle subject discussed was the possibilities of cutting down taxes in Oregon. Senator Pierce was charged with being a radicalist and with being unable to lower taxes.

About 250 people attended the meeting.

ALABAMA GALS HERE IN MINSTREL SHOW

What is said to be an old fashioned minstrel show will be given next Friday at the school gymnasium building by the local Odd Fellows and Rebekahs. McGhee's orchestra will furnish the music for the occasion. The play will be in two acts and will require two hours time. Reserved seat tickets will be on sale at Anderson's store.

Mrs. I. H. Moore of Pleasant Valley was in town Thursday.

The Shriners at Ashland are planning a fine new temple.

FEBRUARY COURT TO BE BUSY ONE FROM INDICATIONS

TWO COMMENCE SUIT FOR RELEASE FROM MARRIAGE CONTRACT

SUITS TO RECOVER MONEY NUMEROUS

MANY MATTERS TO BE THRESHED OUT AT NEXT CIRCUIT COURT SESSION

Apparently litigants are anxious for the February term of the circuit court to beat the last one for quite a number of cases have already been filed for the next meeting of the judicial body.

A. Gruenewald is suing Julius Erickson to recover money on a promissory note. The suit is scheduled for next term of court.

The American Railway Express company is suing F. D. Small and D. C. Urie to recover $158.02, said to be charges for transporting several boxes of salmon from Tillamook to San Francisco.

Ed Vogt claims Ed Elliott and Dave Ashmun owe him $293 for milk furnished, labor performed and house rent due, and has entered suit in the circuit court to recover same.

C. H. Graves has entered suit against Victor Franklin to recover $500 as the damages done to two milk cows that the plaintiff claims Franklin ran into and injured for him. It is charged in the complaint that Franklin was driving without headlights and without sufficient brakes, and that he was driving faster than thirty miles per hour.

Leslie W. Travis charges Lillian Travis with cruel and inhuman treatment and asks for a divorce. The couple were married at Tillamook March 8, 1919. One child was born to the union, the custody of whom is asked by the plaintiff.

John Snider accuses his wife, Nora May Snider, of infidelity and asks the court for a divorce. The Sniders were married at Vancouver, Wn., in September, 1918, and have no children. The plaintiff charges that the defendant failed to perform her household duties and did not prepare meals. He also charges that after he has unbraided her for flirting with other men, the defendant left him and went to live with one Fred Chatfield, a brother-in-law of the plaintiff.

WORKMAN HURT IN 40-FOOT FALL

Roy Andrus, who has been employed by Frank Heyd & Company, contractors working on the Goyno building, fell from the top of the hoist tower, about forty feet, yesterday afternoon and sustained a number of painful bruises.

Andrus was working on the tower when a timber on which he had a foothold, gave away and let him fall to the ground. The fall was partly broken by Andrus' contact with the roof of a small shed. This probably was what saved the life of the victim. Andrus was badly hurt about the hips and head, but got to his feet by himself and walked away unaided. It is not known whether or not he was hurt internally.

RUMORS AFLOAT ABOUT INDEPENDENT TICKET

Since the caucus for the city election rumors have been afloat of another ticket to fill the city offices. Street talk has it now that Fred Christensen, who resigned from the council following a tilt with the mayor and city attorney over the Eighth street culvert, was nominated for mayor at a secret caucus held within the last few days. It has also been said that several citizens have been approached to run for councilmen against the ticket nominated September 28, but in at least one case this proposal was turned down.

City Attorney Hall has been searching for authority as to whether it will be necessary to write extra names on the ballot for the city election or whether they can be placed on the printed ballots without petition.

AUTOMOBILE IGNITES BUT FIRE IS QUENCHED

An automobile belonging to Howard Harris caught fire in front of Anderson's grocery store this week and was only saved from being a total casualty by the prompt action of V. L. White with his trusty fire extinguisher. Hubert Odell first saw something besides smoke issuing from the stern of the car and gave the alarm.

ACCUSING WITNESS CAUGHT IN TOILS OF THE LAW

Ray F. Ryckman, who was the prosecuting witness in a case up before the present term of the circuit court where Frank Recob was accused of stealing a sum of money from Ryckman's car, was arrested two weeks ago in Portland and fined for violating the prohibition law. During the course of the trial here it developed that Recob's father was a federal prohibition agent, and it was no doubt he who was instrumental in catching Ryckman with the illegal liquor.

SIGN ON DOOR OF CLERK ANNOUNCES "RECORDER"

A new sign on the office door of County Clerk Brimhall at the court house reads "Recorder." This was put there with the idea of apprising people of the fact that legal instruments are recorded there, for in many counties there is a separate official to record legal instruments.

HISTORICAL LECTURE VERY WELL ATTENDED

The lecture on Oregon's history by Professor J. B. Horner of Corvallis at the city hall auditorium last Saturday night was attended by one of the largest crowds ever assembled here for such an event.

Professor Horner proved himself well versed in the subject. The lecture was illustrated by stereopticon slides.

COUNTY AGENT W. D. PINE AND FAMILY TO RETURN

Word was received from W. D. Pine this week that he expects to be in Tillamook Sunday or Monday with his family. Mr. Pine has been in Berkeley for some weeks past on account of the serious illness of his mother, S. F. Pine.

FINAL COURT WEEK HAS LAST JURY CASE THURSDAY

CALENDAR TO BE CLEARED UP BEFORE SATURDAY NIGHT

ACTIONS BROUGHT AGAINST 2 BANKS

BAY CITY TREASURER BRINGS SUIT AGAINST BANK EXAMINER

According to Judge Bagley, this week will see the finish of the present term of circuit court. The last jury case was tried yesterday afternoon and the jurymen discharged from further duty until the next term of court.

Friday morning the case of the State versus Jay Houser was tried. Houser was found guilty of larceny in stealing an overcoat and was sentenced to four months in the county jail and ordered to pay the costs of the action. Houser was also indicted on a grand larceny charge by the grand jury and the case was set for the February term of court.

B. C. Mapes, charged with unlawful fishing, was found guilty and fined $50 and costs.

On Monday the suit of the Merchants' Credit Bureau against M. C. Kellow was tried and a verdict was brought in for the plaintiff. This suit arose over the sale of some seed wheat to the Fisher mill at Corvallis and the amount involved was $335.

William Tohl was awarded a verdict in his suit against the defunct Nehalem Valley Bank over a note that had been sold by him to the bank and which was in the possession of that institution when it closed its doors last winter.

The Tillamook County Bank was successful in its suit against H. A. Brandt to recover money on a promissory note.

George P. Winslow versus Agnes Burge and George Burge was a suit to settle a property line. A verdict was awarded for the plaintiff.

Minta Smith entered suit against Walter Lundberg to recover money said to have been loaned the defendant when they were husband and wife. A verdict was rendered for the plaintiff.

C. P. Sutfin versus John Aschim was a suit to recover property held by an attachment. This case was settled without going to a jury.

The town of Bay City by the treasurer, J. O. Bozorth, asked for judgment against Frank Braumwell, state superintendent of banks, to recover $2500 that had been deposited in the First Bank of Bay City when it closed. The money was to have been used to pay bonds. Judge Bagley ordered that the case be submitted to him on briefs at Hillsboro.

Leo Sebastino was accused of stealing a gasoline engine from Jack Anderson but was found not guilty by a jury.

The last jury case was that of the state versus Fred Biggs, charged with unlawful fishing. The defendant was found not guilty.

Today the court will be occupied with several equity cases.

YOUNG MAN BADLY INJURED WHEN LOG STRIKES HIM

Harold Withrow was badly injured at the Coates logging camp on Tuesday by a piece of a log hitting him in the chest, breaking his collar bone, and bruising him badly. He is at the Boals hospital and at latest reports is mending rapidly. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Withrow of Independence, parents, were called here because of the seriousness of the injuries to their son.

Construction work on the Newport-Corvallis road is nearing completion.
