PUBLIC SCHOOLS

Now Is the Time for Passage of School Bill

Vote 314 x Yes

Passage of the Compulsory Public School Attendance bill now—this year—will insure that a minimum number of private schools and private school pupils will be affected. Of the 36 counties of Oregon 16 are at present without any private schools whatever. The combined aggregate of pupils in all the private schools in five other counties is fewer than 200. The total attendance at the private schools, of the grammar grades, of Oregon is about 9841. The total attendance at the public schools, of the grammar grades, is about 131,689. Surely if the public schools are good enough for the 131,689, they are also good enough for the other 9841.

At present, while the private schools are few and small, is the time to make the change proposed by the public school bill.

COSTS. No tax will be levied for years to come, as the bill does not take effect until September, 1926, and no tax then if the amendment is in the courts for several years.

When all attend our free public schools the additional cost will be slight, for the overhead will be the same. Most of the children will find a place in existing classes and the added expense to the average taxpayer will be nominal. The great benefit to our nation will be worth many times the small cost.

Now is the time to pass this measure, insuring that in Oregon all of our children will be educated to a common patriotism, common ideals and a unified allegiance to our institutions.

Society

ONE of the great factors for good in our community is the large number of women's societies and clubs, of which we now have over twenty. They range in activity from those purely for pleasure, to those which take up the study of literature and civic affairs and those concerned with welfare work, in which the aid societies of the various churches are the most prominent. The oldest of the study clubs has been in existence for eighteen years and long before that there were a number of aid societies in the town. Because of the great interest shown in club affairs in Tillamook, we will endeavor to print in this column each week a short history of one club.

SHAKESPEARE CLUB

This fall the Shakespeare Club began its nineteenth year of activity. It was started in nineteen hundred four with twelve members, four of whom are still in the club: Mrs. B. C. Lamb, Mrs. John Groat, Mrs. C. I. Clough and Mrs. H. C. Crenshaw. Other members who have been added since that time are: Mrs. C. J. Edwards, Mrs. W. J. Reichers, Mrs. David Robinson, Mrs. E. E. Koch, Mrs. E. T. Halton, Mrs. F. C. Baker, Mrs. Oscar Schultz and Mrs. Webster Holmes. The purpose of the club, as indicated by the name, is the study of Shakespeare's works. Among other things they have accomplished was the donation of a silver cup to the debating societies of the local high school several years ago.

CLUB CALENDAR

Swastika Club meets Oct. 27, at the home of Mrs. W. J. Hill.
Priscilla Club will meet Nov. 3 at the home of Mrs. Albert Plank.
The Sunshine Club will meet Oct. 31 at the Woodman hall.
Kensington Club will meet Nov. 1, at the Masonic hall.
The Friday Bridge Club meets Oct. 27 at the home of Mrs. D. O. Spitzmesser.

The Women's Club met at Mrs. R. N. Henkle's home Wednesday, Oct. 25, with fifteen members and two guests, Mrs. J. H. Rosenberg and Mrs. J. E. Reedy, present. The club is now taking up a study of the history of Oregon. Mrs. J. B. Grider read a paper on the early explorers of the mouth of the Columbia and Mrs. Frank Hunter took up the discoveries of the source of the Columbia. Mrs. Albert Keese discussed the naming of the Columbia. Following these papers there was a general discussion of the county unit plan of schools. The new members taken in at this meeting were Mrs. E. E. Koch, Mrs. John Mathers and Mrs. C. S. Winneck. Refreshments were served by the hostess and all present enjoyed a most pleasant and profitable afternoon. The club will meet Nov. 15 at the home of Mrs. Alfred Anderson.

The Pythian Sister's card party last Tuesday night was well attended considering the stormy weather, ten tables being used. Mrs. Orpha Eastman won high score for the women and Mrs. A. K. Stanley, consolation. Samuel Roley had high score for the men. Refreshments were served and everyone had a good time.

The regular meeting of the Kill Kare Klub was held last Thursday at the home of Mrs. J. H. Rosenberg. After the regular business of the meeting was disposed of two very interesting papers on birth control were read by Mrs. E. T. Boals and Mrs. H. A. Franklin, one negative, the other affirmative. The guests of the afternoon were Mrs. Case, Mrs. Turnbull and Mrs. Marc Bays of Cloverdale. A very dainty lunch was served. The club meets in November with Mrs. Alderman and Mrs. Poorman.

Mrs. Ira Smith entertained the Shakespeare Club at her home on Tuesday afternoon. The afternoon was spent with fancy work and the exchange of new ideas and thoughts. The color scheme for the decorations was orange and black, large marigolds and brilliant nasturtiums being the flowers used, with black cats, jack-o-lanterns, etc., pertaining to Hallowe'en. The long table was especially attractive with its centerpiece of nasturtiums in a large glass basket, black cats wandering around and over it. The place cards and favors were small pumpkins. The favors each included a fortune in the form of a quotation from Shakespeare. These were held over the candles to bring out the letters so they could be read. Much fun was had as each burned out her fortune and read it aloud. The lunch was dainty and appropriate and very much appreciated by all. Those present were just the members of the Shakespeare Club.

On Friday afternoon of last week the L. D. Club was entertained at the home of Mrs. J. H. Rosenberg, with Mrs. Henry White assisting hostess. The members present were Mrs. Armentrout, Mrs. Boone, Mrs. Gabriel, Mrs. Hays, Mrs. Hoy, Mrs. Harris, Mrs. Hosley, Mrs. Bert Leach, Mrs. Mathers, Mrs. Odell, Mrs. H. J. Rosenberg, Mrs. J. H. Rosenberg, Mrs. Styles and Mrs. White. Mrs. Drew was the invited guest. The following officers were elected for the coming year: Mrs. Henry White, president; Mrs. Will Hosley, vice president; Mrs. Hubert Odell, secretary. After the business meeting was closed, a delicious uncheon was served and the club adjourned to meet at Mrs. R. N. Henkle's on November 3, with Mrs. Moulton as assistant hostess.

Mrs. W. C. Brumbach entertained delightfully Friday afternoon at her home on Lake street, Ilwaco, Wash., honoring the seventy-fifth birthday anniversary of her mother, Mrs. M. Page, of Tillamook, Oregon. This charming affair was a complete surprise to the honor guest. Lovely fall flowers decorated the Brumbach home, with Hallowe'en novelties for favors. Novel guessing contests were among the diversions of the afternoon with Mrs. Wilson Graham and Mrs. W. C. Morden winning prizes. Mrs. Brumbach, assisted by Mrs. L. E. Stone, served delicious refreshments to the following guests, all of whom were old friends of Mrs. Page: Mrs. James Graham, Mrs. Wilson Graham, Mrs. L. A. Myers, Mrs. M. M. Hawkins, Mrs. Eva Rogers, Mrs. N. Spencer, Mrs. W. B. Hawkins, Mrs. W. C. Morden, Mrs. M. E. Sprague, Mrs. J. W. Howerton, Mrs. Priscilla Harrold and Mrs. Page, the honor guest. Mrs. Page has resided in Tillamook for the past thirty three years, and frequently visits here, the guest of her son-in-law and daughter, Major and Mrs. W. C. Brumbach.

The friends and neighbors of Mrs. H. C. Speare honored her with a surprise party at her home on the afternoon of Thursday, Oct. 26, the occasion being the eighty-first anniversary of her birth. The guests brought with them a birthday cake, with candles, and other refreshments. A most pleasant afternoon was enjoyed by all present. Beside Mrs. Speare, those present were Mrs. Lelia Doty, Mrs. May Drew, Mrs. Henry White, Mrs. H. E. Styles, Mrs. L. W. Turnbull, Mrs. Clara Turnbull, Mrs. Sarah Hayward and Mrs. A. M. Ginn.
