TIME TO CLEAN UP

Next Tuesday will see the end of the dirtiest political campaign that has taken place in Oregon for years. Mud and whitewash have been used excessively but the average voter has been able to dissociate real white and genuine black and doubtless will show his deductions at the polls next week. If the old proverb that "The Devil can quote scripture for his own purpose" was ever true, it certainly has been for the past few weeks in Oregon. Some of the old guard politicians, have been working night and day to keep the old machine oiled up and in good working order. A subsidized press has entered the field with monstrous misstatements and calumnies. Principle has been thrown to the winds; party and money were the things that counted in getting support. Let us express the hope that by another election the political parties of our state will have such excellent material that it will not be necessary to take recourse in the use of the kind of verbal rot that has been resorted to during the past few weeks to put them into office. It is invariably true that a weak politician must be bolstered up with infamous supports to be able to contend with others of better qualifications.

Practically all voters, must have their minds made up by this time and any last minute attempts to sway public sentiment will be of doubtful value.

RANDOM THOUGHTS

Many a thief has suffered because of his taking ways.

Most mysteries have a Miss connected with them.

A lot of chaps who say they aim to please don't seem to be able to hit the mark.

What has become of the old fashioned tad who used to wear red flannel underwear?

Job was a patient man—but he never squeezed his feet into a pair of pumps and had his corns trod on in a fox trot.

Innocence nowadays seems to be but a word.

It is always well to remember the old saying that success comes in cans and failure in can'ts.

When a fellow indulges in "horse" play we wonder what spurred him to it.

There are many who have all they can do to make a living—and yet they can tell you how the government should be run.

Ever notice that the hand-spangled kid usually arrives somewhere in life?

The homelier the stenographer that Pa hires the more efficient Ma thinks she is.

You can't get much joy out of this life unless you put a lot into it.

A lot of fellows who try to be great merely succeed in grating.

When a dealer tells you that a suit will "wear like iron" don't blame him if it looks rusty soon.

An optimist is a chap who can turn sneers into cheers.

Never jest with the undertaker about his job. It is a very grave subject with him.

It is probably a wise provision of Nature that elephants are not as numerous as ants.

Young Folks Clubs at Exposition

The Pacific International Live Stock Exposition has always been a strong friend of boys' and girls' clubs. Last year there were fifty exhibitors of livestock in this division alone. There were sixteen judging teams from the clubs and over 150 animals shown, by boys and girls. This number will be surpassed this year. These boys and girls are the farmers and breeders of the future, on whom depend the excellence of all breeds of livestock.

Clyde Kinnaman and Jay Honey returned Tuesday from a hunting trip, bringing back some very fine game.

Arthur Raney left Tuesday for Portland expecting to return the last of the week.

EXORBITANT PRICE PAID FOR LAND

R. O. Richards Was One Who Voted To Pay $3400 For Land Worth Only $1000

To the Voters of Tillamook County: The county court being unable to come to an understanding with the owners of the land at the Moore cut off as to the price that was to be paid for same, it was agreed that the matter be referred to an arbitration committee and it was stipulated that each side should agree to abide by the decision.

I was called as a member of that board, by the county court, and the other members were Amos Vaughn, William Maxwell, H. O. Richards, and W. G. Dwight. I considered that the land was worth $1000 but the arbitration board awarded the owner, Mr. I. H. Moore, $3400. Mr. Dwight and myself opposed that exorbitant price to be paid for the land, claiming that the amount allowed was extortion.

I simply call attention to this to show how Mr. Richards voted the taxpayers money on that occasion with a lavish hand, and who is now complaining about high taxation, but has never pointed out where a saving can be made.

All Interested in Horses

Beautiful horses are something that everyone is interested in as has been proven by the interest taken in the Night Horse Show of the Pacific International Live Stock Exposition, which is held in Portland, Oregon, November 4 to 11. The attendance at the Night Horse Show was so large last year that it became necessary to put on three matinees to take care of the crowds. The 1922 Night Horse Show will be greater and more attractive in every way and the matinee feature will be continued. In addition to the regular Horse Show premiums, are seven $1,000.00 stakes sponsored by prominent business houses of Portland.

State Monopoly of Schools would cost— In taxes— Over $1,000,000 a year for operation Over $3,000,000 for buildings and grounds THE first cost of state monopoly of schools would be something over three million dollars for new buildings and grounds. We would have to pay a yearly tax of over one million dollars for operation in addition to what we are paying now. They propose that Oregonians pay this bill for "Real Americanism." But it is not Americanism to take away the right of the parent to control the education of the child. They propose that we pay this bill to have "Compulsory School." But we actually have compulsory school right now under the present law. Be not deceived. What this burden of added taxes will go for is an experiment in education along communistic lines—the substitution of state monopoly in education for parental guidance. Russia is trying this experiment. Let us profit by her failure. Let us maintain our democracy and save millions of dollars.
