God gave parents their children
Governments cannot rightfully take them away
AMERICA has always stood for the protection of natural and inalienable rights, among which none is so sacred as that of parents over their children.
ABRAHAM LINCOLN said:
"The Family is the corner-stone of social order and the guarantee of public safety. No Government can take the place of the Parent, and should never be permitted to usurp it." (Speech at Quincy, Ills., 1859.)
The results of the campaign against the so-called Compulsory Education Bill, which is in fact a B. W. to Establish State Monopoly of Education, may be grouped under two heads:
Facts demonstrated
Arguments unanswered
Upon the foregoing statement of the case we invoke the fair and intelligent judgment of the voters of Oregon, confident of the result if a regard for the inherited and fundamental principles of reasonable liberty are to prevail in this state.

A vote for Olcott is a vote for the Roosevelt Highway
When the Roosevelt Highway bill was first up for consideration, Governor Olcott was one of its friends and not only spoke favorably of it, but gave it his signature of approval.
When the bill came up for final approval in the senate, Senator Pierce, now candidate for Governor, absented himself and did not vote for it. (See Senate Journal 1919, page 291.)
Pierce is opposed to the issuance of bonds for the building of highways, and the Roosevelt Highway can be built in no other way.
In his public speeches all over eastern Oregon, where the Roosevelt Highway is not popular, Governor Olcott has declared for the building of this highway.
The Republican state platform declares for it and pledges the Governor and all the legislative candidates on the Republican ticket specifically to the Roosevelt Highway.
Therefore, a vote for Ben Olcott is the same as a vote for the Roosevelt Highway.
