SWASTIKA CLUB

In nineteen hundred and eight the Swastika club was formed among the young mothers of the community with a membership of fourteen, the object being the exchange of ideas on child raising and housekeeping. Since its inception there have been twenty babies on the club cradle roll, many of whom are now in high school. Of late years the club has become a social afternoon club. Three of the original members still belong: Mrs. Carl Haberlach, Mrs. E. T. Haltom and Mrs. Erwin Harrison. The other members are: Mrs. R. B. Hays, Mrs. E. E. Koch, Mrs. J. C. Holden, Mrs. A. A. Hall, Mrs. David Kuratli, Mrs. Gordon Burge, Mrs. W. J. Hill. Two vacancies caused by Mrs. H. E. Tuohy and Mrs. Joe McGinnis moving away. During the war the club helped extensively in the Red Cross work both in a financial way and by sewing. They also sent several much appreciated cakes to the Tillamook coast artillery company at Fort Columbia. At one time the club donated a set of books to the public library and it has always been their practice to help some poor family at Christmas time.

Mrs. E. E. Koch will present Everett Williams, Charles Koch, Annie Burton, Marion Honey, Jack Kinamon, Karl Zweifel, Marjorie Wiley, Vera Rosenberg, Ruth Kuratli, Ruth Beals, Dorothy Esch, Margurite Zweifel, Mary and Mable Harrison, Wayne Wiley, Lunetta Pollock, Carol Schultz, Muriel Wiley, Oliver Mathers and Ramona Haltom in a piano recital at the studio, 506 2nd avenue. Friday evening, November 10th, at 8 o'clock. Everyone interested invited.

The following program will be given by the Monday Musical Club on Nov. 13, at the home of Mrs. Koch.

Mrs. J. C. Holden and Mrs. E. D. Allen entertained a number of ladies on Tuesday evening, election night, in honor of Andy Gump, the independent candidate for congress. Each lady was presented with an Andy Gump button which was worn throughout the evening. Unique place cards of Andy Gump in various poses were prepared. To prove his high regard for the ladies, Andy sent his photo for each guest. Everyone gave some quotation from Andy's famous campaign speeches, which caused a great deal of laughter. 500 was played through the evening, Mrs. Oscar Schultz winning high honors and Mrs. George Hanslmair the consolation. The hostesses served dainty refreshments and were assisted by Mrs. Clark Hadley and Miss LaVerna Holden. The following were guests: Mesdames Allen, Allerman, Anderson, Bales, Baker, Burge, Beltz, Boals, A. K. Case, Art Case, Clough, Condit, Crenshaw, A. F. TILLAMOOK POST NO. 47

AMERICAN LEGION DEPARTMENT OF OREGON

Tillamook, Oregon, Nov. 6, 1922

Comrades:

Another year has rolled around and the time has come again to celebrate Armistice Day—the anniversary of that day four years ago when an armistice was declared in the World War.

This event has now become what General Pershing has termed "Civilizations International Independence Day," and all World War veterans are summoned to observe it.

S. A. Moulton, Mayor of Tillamook, has proclaimed a holiday for the occasion and Tillamook Post No. 47 has arranged a celebration.

There will be a parade of Company "K," 162nd Infantry, ordered by Brigadier General George A. White. The K. P. band will also participate in this parade, which will take place at 10:30 Saturday morning. This will be followed at 11 o'clock by speaking at the City Hall. J. W. Mott, city attorney of Astoria, will give the address of the day, assisted by Lieut. George N. Harness, chaplain.

In the afternoon at 2 o'clock there will be a football game between the high school team and a team from Company "K." The evening will be filled by a smoker at the city hall, for which an excellent card has been secured, and a dance given by the Legion at the K. P. hall.

This program can fill an entire day and you are hereby called from your labors to participate in this one big day for The American Legion.

The following heads of the various committees on the program have been appointed: Speaking, George N. Harness; Music, C. H. Coe; Football, F. L. Eberman; Dance, Tony Werner; Entertainment, H. L. Gilham; Smoker, Leland B. Ervin.

Lay aside your work this one day and be with us to celebrate.
DR. J. E. SHEARER, Commander.
HENRY HEISEL, Adjutant.

Sam Moulton, with Mrs. Roy Henkle assisting hostess. The following members were present, Mrs. Boone, Mrs. Bunn, Mrs. Gabriel, Mrs. Hayes, Mrs. Harris, Mrs. Hooley, Mrs. Hoy, Mrs. Leach, Mrs. O'Dell, Mrs. H. H. Rosenberg, Mrs. J. H. Rosenberg, Mrs. Steinbach, Mrs. Styles and Mrs. Henry White. Mrs. Frisby was the guest. After a pleasant and profitable afternoon a delicious lunch was served.

The Methodist Ladies' Aid met Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Lloyd Edwards and Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Harry Thomas. The aid is working strenuously for a year which they will hold Dec. 8 and 9 at the Palm competition store. Mrs. George Winslow is at the head of the bazaar work and a number of fancy and serviceable articles are being made.

Mrs. George Winslow and Mrs. Clarence Stanley entertained the J. U. G. club at Mrs. Winslow's home Wednesday afternoon. The rooms were tastefully decorated with autumn leaves and a delicious luncheon appropriate to Thanksgiving was served. Beside the members those present were Mrs. Hadley, Mrs. H. A. Franklin, Mrs. Alva Williams and Mrs. Harry Thomas.

Word was received here this week that Cloyd Dawson, formerly of this place, passed the highest in a civil service examination in accountancy in Portland in which over two hundred participated. He will probably be called to Washington, D. C., soon to continue his studies.

Charles Lamb, who is a senior in the University of Oregon, has been chosen a member of the debating team of that institution for this season. Charles is a son of Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Lamb and has a very creditable record at the university.

Cause and Effect

Taste is a matter of tobacco quality

We state it as our honest belief that the tobaccos used in Chesterfield are of finer quality (and hence of better taste) than in any other cigarette at the price.
