

Violin Virtuoso Will Appear in Tillamook

Miss Gertrude Hoebel who will appear Sunday afternoon at the Christian church in a violin and vocal concert under the auspices of the Monday Musical club. Tinian Herald, New Zealand, March 9, 1921: Miss Hoebel is a brilliant violinist, who reduces the most intricate passages to child's play and is an artist of high achievements. Otago Daily Times: Miss Hoebel plays and sings skillfully and tactfully. Portland Oregonian: Rare are the musical people who can do what a clever Portland musician Miss Gertrude Hoebel did last evening, when she played her own violin obligato, while singing "Alone in Love's Garden" Miss Hoebel deserves first place honors. Mr. M. A. Howard an excellent pianist, will render two numbers. These artists will be assisted by the McGhee orchestra.
